FBI PATROLS AT DAWN IN HUNT FOR KIDNAPERS

Telephone Calls At Carson City Arranged Ransom For Sinatra Jr.

Combined UP and AP

WEST LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Federal agents organized a predawn patrol of the San Fernando Valley today stopping residents for identification and demanding to know their whereabouts Tuesday night when Frank Sinatra Jr. was ransomed.

The unusual activity caused widespread speculation that the kidnapers might be hiding out in the two square mile residential area of Canoga Park.

Citizens became alarmed when they saw cars cruising up and down residential streets. Police in Van Nuys and West Valley received numerous calls about prowlers.

Telephone calls to two Carson City, Nev., service stations apparently were the means used to arrange the $240,000 ransoming of young Sinatra.

The elder Sinatra received the calls Tuesday afternoon, it was disclosed yesterday. One came at a station across the street from the state capitol about 1 p.m., and about 10 minutes later Sinatra took a second call at a station eight blocks south of the capitol.

Sinatra made notes during both conversations. He then returned to Reno and shortly afterward flew to Los Angeles where his son was released.

The FBI acknowledged it had men in Hollywood and San Fernando Valley but wouldn't say what they were doing.

Officer Gene Radomski of the West Valley division of the Los Angeles police department said it was "strictly an FBI operation." He said police hadn't been told the nature of the FBI activity but assumed it was connected with the Sinatra case.

Yesterday, after Sinatra Jr. was returned to his family, Los Angeles Police Chief William H. Parker complained his department was left completely in the dark on developments in the case.

"This is the first time in my memory that we have been faced with probable criminal activity in the city of Los Angeles and have been unable to respond," Parker said at a news conference, "We have always worked as a team with law enforcement agencies."

Parker said he didn't want to interfere with the FBI. "I'm sure they had adequate reason for not bringing us in," he said. "I am just pointing out our position. I am concerned with the criticism we may ultimately receive in a case which we have been deprived of any opportunity to solve."

Los Angeles Mayor Samuel W. Yorty cautioned that "surrounding the case with such secrecy may make it too easy for kidnapers" and give criminals the impression anyone can get away with it.

The mayor added: "This case could set off a chain reaction which would be extremely dangerous."

Yorty termed the handling of the case a "black eye" to the city.

Sinatra Jr., a slender, 19-year-old who has followed his father's footsteps by undertaking a singing career, was abducted by two armed men Sunday night from his motel room at a Lake Tahoe resort on the California-Nevada border. He had a singing engagement at a casino there.

Fifty-four hours later, after his father arranged to have $240,000 planted at a pickup point in West Los Angeles, Sinatra Jr. was released on a free-

Johnson Asks All Agencies To Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson has directed all federal departments and agencies to take another look at their budgets to determine what cuts can be made for the fiscal year starting July 1.

This was disclosed today by press secretary Pierre Salinger.

Salinger said Johnson directed that reports on possible cuts be made to Budget Director Kermit Gordon by 6 p.m. tomorrow.

Salinger repeated earlier statements that Johnson hopes to keep the budget somewhere between 98 and 103 billion dollars.

All departments and agency heads were directed to reexamine the appropriations, expenditures and employment figures contained in their tentative proposals for the new fiscal year. In addition, they were told to specify possible further cuts in appropriations and personnel, along with steps that might be taken to tighten up management policies to save money.

Also, they were told to see what steps could be taken to postpone program expansions and to curtail programs not of the highest urgency and to say what other steps might be appropriate in a time of "severe budgetary stringency."

Salinger said the directive went out last night after a cabinet meeting at which Johnson served notice he expected cabinet members to cooperate personally in holding the line on federal spending.

The budget for the next fiscal year is expected to be completed early next week and be ready for the printer.

Salinger said Johnson plans to meet sometime next week with leaders of farm organizations to discuss the agricultural outlook.

He said a wheat program was one of the subjects that certainly would be discussed.

Marin Vault Had $50,000 Pattillo Gems

Police, still trying to untangle the rich life of James A. (Diamond Jim) Pattillo, opened a safe deposit box in a San Rafael bank and were nearly blinded yesterday by the glitter of 74 pieces of jewelry.

The jewelry, taken from a deposit box rented in the Wells Fargo Bank by blonde Carol Lois LeBlanc, 23, was worth about $50,000.

San Francisco police, working in cooperation with local officers, also went to a $225-a-month apartment at 142 Buchanan Court, Sausalito, rented by Miss LeBlanc, where they discovered a hi-fi set and a three-foot, stuffed rabbit with long ears.

The jewelry, the hi-fi, the rabbit and all were gifts from Pattillo, Miss LeBlanc told police.

It was she who sailed away from Sausalito last week with Pattillo on his 53-foot yacht. The Coast Guard overtook the boat off Monterey and Pattillo returned to face grand theft charges.

He is suspected of taking at least $80,000 from the George Windeler Co., a San Francisco wine cask firm, of which he was vice president and secretary-treasurer.

He faces grand theft charges. Charges of conspiracy against Miss LeBlanc were dropped when police concluded she knew nothing of Pattillo's alleged thefts.

Police investigator Donald E. Midyett of the district attorney's office found diamond rings, watches, bracelets and necklaces in Miss LeBlanc's deposit box which were traced to various San Francisco shops where Pattillo had charge accounts.

The jewelry was impounded by San Francisco authorities.

Mrs. Kennedy To Mourn Year

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy plans to observe a one-year period of mourning for her slain husband and will have no public engagements during that time, it was announced today.

There had been reports that Mrs. Kennedy would campaign for her husband's successor, Lyndon B. Johnson, in next year's presidential election.

The announcement that she would observe the year of mourning came in response to questions about this possibilty.

Mrs. Kenney had planned to start politcal campaigning for her husband's re-election before his death. Her trip to Texas was the start of what was to be a number of public appearances with the president.

Real Estate Woman Backs Rumford Act

2 Other 'Sounding Board' Panelists Agree; One Dissents

Provisions of the Rumford Fair Housing Act have been in the law books since 1959, and "I just can't understand why all the sudden commotion," Assemblyman W. Byron Rumford (D-Berkeley) declared today in a panel discussion over radio station KTIM.

The author of the Rumford Act was one of four guest speakers on the "Marin Sounding Board," moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer.

Corte Madera real estate man Joe H. Stewart was the only panelist who backed the California Real Estate Assn.'s campaign to put to a public vote next November a constitutional amendment that would repeal the Rumford Act.

The other speakers, Larkspur real estate woman Maggi Walker and Rev. Donald H. Baldwin, president of the Marin Council of Churches, agreed with Rumford that the law should be retained.

RE-BROADCAST

The discussion will be rebroadcast over KTIM at 12:30 p.m. Sunday from a recording.

Rumford explained that his act, which went into effect three months ago, merely combined two previous fair housing acts (the Unruh Act and the Hawkins Act) and put them under the Fair Employment Practices Commission for enforcement.

"This is not new legislation," said Rumford. "It's been in the books since 1959."

SIMILAR LAWS

Rumford said similar fair housing laws are in effect in nine states, and the constitutionality has been tested.

If the real estate association succeeds in getting enough signatures on its initiative petition for a constitutional amendment, Rumford said he is prepared to file a legal document in court to quash the petition because he feels many points in the proposed amendment are unconstitutional.

Stewart asserted that the truly democratic way is to put the matter to a public vote for decision.

"Many people feel the Rumford Act takes away from them their right to own, use and dispose of real property as they see fit," said Stewart. "How Governor Brown can oppose this is inexplicable . . . unless he is fearful of the voice of the people."

Mrs. Walker, a fellow real

House Unit Approves Kennedy Half-Dollar

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House banking and currency committee today approved unanimously legislation to place the likeness of President John F. Kennedy on the half-dollar.

Committee chairman Wright Patman, (D-Texas), said he would try to get a House vote on the measure by Monday. Congress is expected to enact the White House-proposed legislation with little delay.

MILITARY OUTPOST SLASH — At a Pentagon press conference today Defense Secretary Robert McNamara tells of plans to reduce 33 military bases in the next three and one-half years — and said there may be other cuts. (AP Wirephoto)

33 Military Bases Face Closing, Sharp Reduction

Further Cutbacks Due Soon, Defense Secretary Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced today that, in an economy action, he had ordered 26 military bases in the United States and seven bases overseas to be closed or substantially reduced. (See also story page 15.)

McNamara told a news conference, "I have every reason to believe that studies now under way will lead to further reductions in the coming months."

The defense secretary said that when the 33 bases are closed or reduced over a period of up to three and one-half years, he expects annual savings of 106 million dollars.

The move will cut off 8,600 civilian jobs and result in a reduction of about 7,800 military personnel, McNamara said.

Every civilian employee whose job is eliminated will be offered another job opportunity, McNamara promised.

To achieve the 8,500 reduction while offering new jobs to the dispossessed, McNamara said there will be a freeze on hiring at certain other installations, as well as normal attrition.

The 26 domestic bases to be closed, and the seven overseas bases are in three foreign countries.

Included are 14 Army installations, 12 Air Force, and seven Navy.

4 IN CALIFORNIA

The hardest hit states are New York, which will lose seven bases, and California, which loses four bases.

California installations affected are:

Mira Loma Air Force station at Ontario will be closed and its mission transferred to other installations in the area by December 1964.

San Francisco: Army Overseas Supply Agency will be closed by July, 1964.

San Diego: The naval repair facility will be shut down by January, 1965, and its scheduled overhaul work transferred to Long Beach Naval Shipyard. The facility will be retained for other purposes, not immediately specified.

Stockton: Navy storage activity at the Stockton annex to be inactivated by December 1965 and turned over to GSA for disposal. Communication station will be retained.

WON'T SAY WHERE

McNamara said the overseas installations will not be announced until a later date, so that the United States can discuss the prospective actions with the foreign governments concerned. He did not identify the countries, either.

No naval shipyards were on the list of Army, Navy and Air

Water District Will Lease 160 Acres To State

The Marin Municip Water District board yesterday authorized leasing to the State Division of Beaches and Parks 160 acres between the Cascade Reservoir and the old railroad grade in Mill Valley.

The property, leased for five years, will be added to Mount Tamalpais State Park.

Handing over the property to the state is the first step in what might lead to leasing by the state of almost all of the district's watershed lands for park use.

General Manager William R. Seeger said the district is waiting for plans to be submitted by the state for development of the watershed.

LOTS OF LETTERS

Fine Is Paid For A.F. Major In S. Viet Nam

The fine is paid, the case is closed, but still the letters keep coming into Novato's acting police Chief Robert De Grazia.

The fine was that of Air Force Major Alan W. Saunders, recently of Novato, now serving in South Viet Nam. The letters are both critical and in praise of the chief.

It all started when San Rafael police sent Novato police a warrant for arrest of Saunders of 1530 Buchanan Street, Novato, or collection of $15 for an unpaid parking ticket. Chief De Grazia sent the warrant by registered mail. It was forwarded to Saunders' APO address, and reached him in South Viet Nam.

Saunders wrote offering every assistance in his arrest—and return to Novato.

The story of his reply appeared in the Independent-Journal on Dec. 3, and was carried nation-wide by the Associated Press.

Chief Di Grazia, a man who believes in tending strictly to police business, gave Saunders' reply to the air police at Hamilton Air Force Base, saying he felt the major's attitude was "unbecoming an officer." Saunders, he insisted, should pay the fine wherever he is.

Ever since the story appeared, letters have been pouring in at Novato police headquarters. So far Di Grazia has received nearly 30 letters, plus two telegrams and at least five phone calls.

These have ranged from denunciation of the chief for pressing for payment of the fine to praise of him as a man who "did his duty."

Five of the letters were accompanied by checks to pay Major Saunders' fine. One, mailed from Redwood City, was a cashier's check with no return address. Di Grazia sent it to Marin Municipal Court to clear the books for Major Saunders. The other checks will be returned, he said.

Woodacre Warms Up To 26 Degrees

It may be getting warmer in Marin County, but the process is painfully slow and there were still plenty of blue noses when dawn touched the thick frost today.

The coldest spot in the county was still Woodacre, where a low of 26 was recorded, three degrees warmer than yesterday morning, but still well below freezing.

San Rafael again today touched the freezing mark with 32 degrees.

Fog moved over many parts of the county early today, closing down the field at Hamilton Air Force Base. The Marin County Airport was still open, however.

County road crews yesterday sprinkled sand on spots subject to freezing. No injury accident was reported due to skidding.

Other low readings in the county early today were 28 at Novato and Tamalpais Valley, 30 at Chevy Chase in Larkspur, and 33 at Fairfax and San Anselmo.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Priests Talk For Yanks

ORURO, Bolivia (AP)—Catholic Church leaders were reported today trying to secure the release of a group of hostages, including four Americans, held by Communist-led tin miners.

A standoff prevailed between government troops and armed miners in the Catavi area where the hostages were held as pawns for two Communist union leaders arrested by President Victor Paz Estenssoro's government. The government still insisted it would not trade the arrested men for the hostages.

Msgr. Andrew Kennedy, a member of the staff of the Catholic vicar general in La Paz, is reported in contact with representatives of the miners' union and the miners were willing to have him mediate the dispute.

Stateless 'Meatball' Leaves

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — After 16 years in prison, Tomaya (The Meatball) Kawakita, convicted war criminal left for Japan today, a free man but stateless.

Kawakita

Kawakita, convicted of treasonable brutality while an interpreter for a Japanese prisoner-of-war camp in World War II, was granted freedom by the late President John F. Kennedy in one of Kennedy's last official acts. Kennedy granted leniency on the condition Kawakita leave the United States and never return.

Shorn of both Japanese and U.S. citizenship, Kawakita, 42, could not get a passport. After a month of negotiations, Japan authorized him entry as a "stateless person."

The native Californian departed nearby McNeil Island Federal Penitentiary late yesterday.

A snow storm spread a blanket of white across the northern half of the nation today from the Rockies into the Northeast.

Subzero cold added misery to the pre-winter storm in the Midwest. Blizzard conditions were indicated in the Dakotas, Minnesota and parts of eastern Montana.

Heavy snow and hazardous driving warnings were issued for northeastern New York, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and northern New England, with amounts ranging up to a half-foot.

The storm was blamed for at least 11 traffic deaths.

The president is scheduled to give a 20-minutes address to the General Assembly reaffirming his confidence in the U.N. and giving assurances that he will carry out President John F. Kennedy's policies.

Johnson Enters Airline Row

WASHINGTON (UPI)—In his first intervention to halt a strike, President Lynndon B. Johnson has created an emergency board to head off a walkout that would have crippled six major airlines in the midst of the Christmas travel rush.

On Johnson's order, the board was set up yesterday to investigate a dispute between the Machinists' Union and Braniff, Continental, Eastern, Northwest, Trans World Airlines and National.

The action will postpone a strike for at least 60 days while the board tries to solve the dispute over pay raises and rule changes.

Inquiry Faces Warren With Busy Schedule

Expected To Work Nights, Weekends On Assassination

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chief Justice Earl Warren, keen-eyed and vigorous at 72, will shoulder his full load of Supreme Court duties while heading the presidential inquiry into President John F. Kennedy's assassination.

That is just an assumption, since Warren has uttered not a word publicly on his plans. But his associates and friends claim they knew Warren's views quite well enough to predict his course.

WORK AT NIGHT

He is resolved to absorb his extra load as chairman of the bipartisan presidential commission by working nights and weekends, taking advantage of holidays and court recesses, and possibly giving up all or part of his usual three-week Christmas trip home to California.

There may be one case, far ahead, which Warren will avoid. If the Supreme Court ever entertains an appeal from a Texas murder case involving Jack Rubinstein, alias Jack Ruby, the court's opinion is sure to carry a notation at the bottom reading:

"Mr. Chief Justice Warren took no part in the consideration or decision of this case."

BUT NOT RUBY

Ruby, 52, is the man charged with slaying Lee Harvey Oswald on Nov. 24, two days after Dallas police charged Oswald with assassinating Kennedy. Ruby's pistol obliterated all hope of fixing Oswald's guilt by the only sure way, Oswald's own confession.

Thus Ruby not only is indirectly responsible for creation of the Warren commission but also figures heavily in its investigation.

There is no law or court rule which says a Supreme Court justice may not participate in a case in which he has prior knowledge or interest. It is up to the conscience of each justice. Warren's conscience, like the justice himself, works overtime.

Stolen Goods Report In Burglary Delayed

A probation office report on Joseph Correnti, charged with receiving stolen goods, was delayed yesterday in Marin Superior Court until Jan. 3.

Correnti, 36, of Corte Madera, was arrested after the $15,000 burglary of the Barney Norwitt home at 2 Golden Gate Avenue, Belvedere. The burglary charge against him was dropped last month, and he pleaded guilty to the receiving charge. Hearing on the probation report was set over by Judge Richard M. Sims Jr.

MRS. KENNEDY'S NEW HOME—This is a front view of the three-story, 14-room Georgetown home that Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy has purchased. She plans to move into the 169-year-old home in mid-January.

Mrs. Kennedy Purchases Old Georgetown House

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy has purchased a 169-year-old Georgetown house with 14 rooms and plans to move in with her two children by mid-January.

The three-story brick home is across the street from the residence of Undersecretary of State and Mrs. W. Averell Harriman, where Mrs. Kennedy is living temporarily.

Jurchase of the property at 3017 N Street was announced yesterday, five days after Mrs. Kennedy moved out of the White House.

The price Mrs. Kennedy paid the owners, retired businessman James McMillan Gibson and his wife, was not revealed. But the house had been on the market for some time listed at $225,000. Recently, the asking price had been dropped to about $190,000, real estate agents in the area said.

The house is one of the oldest on Georgetown, a commercial and residential area founded before the District of Columbia was established.

A wealthy early settler, Ninian Beall, built it for his son, Thomas. The house has been the residence of the late Adm. Alan G. Kirk and onetime Secretary of War Newton D. Baker.

The 14 rooms include a spacious first-floor drawing room and dining room, with a master bedroom and library on the second floor, each with a fireplace.

Before moving in Mrs. Kennedy may take her two children, Caroline, 6, and John Jr. 3 to Palm Beach for the Christmas season they traditionally spend with their grandparents there.

President Lyndon B. Johnson signed into law yesterday a special bill to give Mrs. Kennedy and her children Secret Service protection for the next two years. It also provides for office space for 12 months and $50,000 for staff salaries during that period.

Mrs. Kennedy also get free mailing privileges for life and the bill authorized payment of $15,000 for the late president's funeral and burial expenses.

Johnson Gets Bill To Expand Peace Corps

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate passed today and sent to the White House a bill authorizing a major expansion of the Peace Corps.

The action was taken by voice vote, and without debate, on a routine call of the calendar of unopposed measures.

The bill authorizes an appropriation of 102 million dollars for the corps for the current fiscal year.

Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver testified last week that plans call for having some 11,300 volunteers in service by the end of next August.

Congress appropriated 59 million dollars for the corps last year.

Funds for the corps will be included in a catch-all appropriation bill, which also will provide appropriations for the foreign aid program.

The Peace Corps is operating in 46 countries, and has turned down or postponed requests from about 30 other nations. Shriver said at the time.

Nixon, Ike Hold Talk On Politics

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon came to Pennsylvania yesterday to talk politics with the man he tried unsuccessfully to succeed—former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The two also discussed other topics, including international affairs, Nixon told newsmen here after meeting with Eisenhower in Gettysburg.

NO CHANGE

Pausing briefly at the Harrisburg State Airport, the former vice president said his talk with Eisenhower did not change his (Nixon's) mind about running for president again.

He reiterated earlier statements that he would not seek the Republican presidential nomination at next year's GOP convention in San Francisco.

He said Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania "is being mentioned prominently" in GOP circles as a leading prospect for the nomination.

Nixon would not discuss politics further. He indicated he did not believe it proper so soon after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

PRAISES LODGE

In a television interview last night, Eisenhower said the subject of the current political boom for Henry Cabot Lodge, ambassador to Viet Nam, had come up in his talk with Nixon.

Referring to reports that he had urged Lodge to return to this country, Eisenhower added:

"Now both of us agreed that we'd like to see him back here because he's a dynamic, vivacious man, a leader-type. We'd like to see him here discussing politicial matters. But neither of us, as far as I know, communicated with him. I haven't.

A spokesman for Eisenhower in Gettysburg said the meeting with Nixon was set up some time ago.

Johnson Names New Aide For Lodge

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson is sending career diplomate David G. Nes to South Viet Nam to serve as the key No. 2 man under Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

Authoritative sources said today Johnson personally approved the selection of the 46-year-old Foreign Service officer who has a distinguished World War II combat record. Nes replaces William C. Trueheart, whose two-year tour of duty expired last October.

Center For Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson gave his formal support yesterday to naming a proposed national cultural center in Washington for the late President John F. Kennedy and financing half the cost with federal money.

Robert Kennedy Quietly Returns

WASHINGTON (AP) — Slowly and quietly, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy is easing back into the public life that was so shatteringly altered by an assassin's bullet three weeks ago.

He still is the attorney general, the nation's top law enforcement officer, even though he no longer holds the intimate White House role he delighted in when his brother, John F. Kennedy, was president.

He attended a groundbreaking ceremony yesterday — his first official public appearance since his brother's funeral. He didn't say anything. He just stood and watched. The playground is in the heart of the city, and he frequently has shown concern for the city's underprivileged children.

He has made no public statement of his plans. He has permitted no news interviews.

But the general understanding continues to be that the 38-year-old attorney general will remain on the job as long as President Johnson wants him to.

"I'm not worried about Bob one bit," one close friend said. "I'm convinced he'll always be in public life—and that he will get along just as fine on his own as when he was part of that brother team. But as far as I know, he's kept his own counsel about his plans."

On chance meetings in the hallway, his characteristic "How are you" in the flat Boston accent sounds the way it used to. The rather shy smile still is there. A few days in Florida and a full week back on the job seem to have restored him to typical excellent physical condition.

He attended a cabinet meeting at the White House yesterday.

Court May Drop Libel Suit By General Walker

FORT WORTH, Texas (UPI) — Former Major Gen. Edwin Walker's 2-million-dollar libel suit against the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, WBAP radio-television and Associated Press will be dismissed Friday unless Walker appears in court, the judge warned yesterday.

Judge Charles J. Murray's announcement drew no comment from Walker. The suit, filed Sept. 27, charged that an Associated Press report of his activities at Oxford, Miss., last year subjected him to public ridicule, hatred and contempt.

He alleged the two local media used the dispatches.

ONLY THE MEMORY IS BITTER —Mrs. Pauline Pfeiffer of Terra Linda sews for daughter Ann, 11, as part of a very busy life despite a struggle against tuberculosis that lasted five and one-half years and cost her part of a lung. Memory of that has caused Mrs. Pfeiffer to lead Camp Fire Girls group in work for Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn. (Independent-Journal photo)

Woman's Career As Nurse Ended By Tuberculosis

Terra Lindan Remembers Fight As She Sees Christmas Seals

By HELANE ANDERSON

Mrs. Pauline Pfieffer of 974 Las Pavadas, Terra Linda, remembers every detail of a day in September, 1942, when she thought her world had collapsed — especially when she looks at a Christmas Seal.

She was in the final six-month stretch of a five-year nursing major at University of Washington. She had signed up for the cadet nurse corps. She blithely took the routine chest x-ray at King County Tuberculosis Hospital, where she was taking in - service training.

She was busy familiarizing herself with as much of the hospital as she could see when a physician summoned her. He placed an x-ray of a chest—her chest—on the viewer and directed her attention to the top of the left lung.

"A minimal lesion," she heard him say. "Two areas—this one's about the size of a dime, this as big as a quarter." Then, "I'm sorry. You'd better prepare to go right upstairs and go to bed."

Pauline wept. Then she asked what about her plans—her career. First there would have to be at least six months' bed - rest, she was told. Other plans would have to wait.

Pauline remained in the TB sanatorium eight months. "Don't even wiggle your toes—you're a vegetable," were her doctor's orders.

Unfortunately for Pauline, in 1942 medical science still had no drug allies in its fight against tuberculosis. Rest was the only prescription. She had to lie absolutely flat, even keeping her head down while eating. She could read for one hour daily—lying flat. Once a month she was helped to her wobbly legs to be weighed. And monthly she was taken on a stretcher to have a shampoo. Otherwise, she lay as still as she could — staring through frequent tears at the wall of a building across the lightwell.

After eight months Pauline was permitted to go home to her mother, who had taken a Red Cross nursing course in preparation. There were no children in the household and Pauline's nursing training, plus precautions such as isolated dishes and trays, protected her parents. Her bed-rest and subsequent "lady-of-leisure" days totaled two and one-half years.

Paulien and David were married in November of 1946 and went to live in Venezuela, where he was a geologist for an oil company.

"I had lots of fun," she recalls, "until March of 1947. An x-ray in Maricaibo showed 'some activity' and they sent me home, this time to bed rest at my husband's parents' home. I was also pregnant and miscarried."

After another seven months' inactivity Pauline was permitted to join her husband, by then in New Orleans. In 1949 they were transferred to Denver, where their first child, David, was born.

Before the birth of her second child, a doctor told Mrs. Pfeiffer a lobe of her lungs would need to be removed.

Her daughter, Ann, was delivered safely, but Pauline was taken back to isolation and not permitted to see her. Her sister took the baby home with her after her first 14 days in the hospital—and Mrs. Pfieffer was taken to a private hospital for lung surgery. Ironically, she did not have the required residency and so was ineligible for treatment in the county tuberculosis sanatorium where she had contracted TB.

A portion of her infected left lung was successfully removed, and after three months she was dismissed to rest at her mother's home for another nine months.

By this time drugs to fight TB had been discovered, and Pauline was given a deep injection daily for 10 months. Her husband learned to man the needle—with gusto. She insists he used the injection as an outlet for his hostility against tuberculosis.

However, even when she talks of her unhappiest years, Pauline shows no bitterness. She's a friendly, smiling person who loves people and activities. She has been a Camp Fire Girls guardian during the four years the Pfeiffers have lived in Marin and now serves on the organization's district committee. She is the president of a church group and an enthusiastic Sunny Hills guild member. She does her own housework, sews for herself and her daughter, and enjoys a weekly ballet-excercise class.

At the office of the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn. where she worked with her Camp Fire Girls Group stuffing Christmas Seals in envelopes she said: "I am so glad you are going to tuberculin test our high school students. I just wish everybody would have this test made every year. It gives a warning while there is still time for preventive measures. By the time symptoms develop, the disease is well on its way."

Held To Answer On Morals Charge

Michael Joseph O'Donnell, 31, of Sausalito, was held to answer a charge of sex perversion yesterday after a preliminary hearing in Marin Municipal Court.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson ordered O'Donnell to appear Dec. 23 in Marin Superior Court.

O'Donnell was arrested Nov. 7 by sheriff's officers after a 17-year-old Fairfax boy identified him as the man who offered him a ride home and forced him into a perverted sex act Nov. 3.

way about two miles from the home of his mother, Nancy Sinatra, in the Bel-Air section of Los Angeles.

The youth told newsmen later he was kept blindfolded during his captivity but "wasn't harmed at all."

Asked whether he had been frightened, he said: "I believe I can say offhand that I probably reacted normally — I was scared."

The Sinatras held a party at Nancy's home last night to celebrate the 46th birthday of Frank Sr. and the return of his son. Guests included singer Dean Martin, composer Jimmy Van Heusen, music publisher Murray Wolff, attorney Abe Lipsey, former restaurant operator Mike Romanoff and Las Vegas hotel operator Jack Entratter.

Joseph C. Skelly, 27, of Las Vegas, who said he had been in the snowy mountains looking for Sinatra Jr. was held at Stateline yesterday after two guns and a knife were found in his car. After questioning by the FBI he was cleared of any involvement in the kidnaping.

RUMFORD

estate broker, disagreed sharply.

"As a realtor, I feel this act is a great protection to me," Mrs. Walker declared. She said many realty brokers who agree with the idea of non-discrimination may be afraid of pressure from other brokers and from the public. Under the law, "I'm obligated to show property to anyone . . . It takes the responsibility out of my hands," she said.

All people should have the right to acquire and own property, she added. "We've never voted on whether it's right to kill your fellow man. We've never voted on whether it's right to steal from others."

Rev. Baldwin warned that if the repeal initiative comes to a vote, "it will lead to racial bitterness and turn loose on California the most destructive type of bigotry."

"We all agree that the initiative process is a wonderful thing," said Rumford, "but would the real estate people like to put the matter of realtor fees on the ballot and let the people decide?"

Stewart pointed out that the real estate boards have a "code of ethics" under which they must give equal service to all persons.

But many real estate people will not have the courage to live up to the code without the Rumford Act, which provides arbitration by FEPC in case of disputes, Mrs. Walker replied.

Two other scheduled panelists, developer Niels Schultz Jr. and Hazel Thole, Tiburon real estate woman, were unable to appear.

Mrs. Thole sent a letter, explaining she is ill. She favors putting the issue on the ballot and "standing or falling on that decision."

Public Works Bill Goes To President

A revised public works appropriations bill, including $20,000 for engineering studies on widening and straightening of Corte Madera Creek was passed today by the House of Representatives in Washington, D.C., the Associated Press reported.

The appropriation for the Corte Madera project, previously approved by the Senate, was part of a 4.4 billion dollar public works bill passed by the House. This action sends the measure to the president for his signature.

Indonesia May Accept Russ Arms, Aide Says

PARIS (UPI)—Indonesia will turn to the Soviet Union for weapons if Western nations impose an embargo on arms shipments to the island republic, Indonesian defense minister Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution said today.

Nasution accused Britain of "trying to misrepresent" the policies of the government of President Sukarno and denied Indonesia has any territorial ambitions.

Force bases due to be axed or reduced in scope.

Rumors yesterday said McNamara would move to close naval shipyards in Boston, Philadelphia and San Francisco. One base in Ohio also was mentioned.

House Speaker John W. McCormack (D-Mass.), acting for the entire Massachusetts delegation, carried to President Lyndon B. Johnson last night a bipartisan protest against rumored closing of the Boston Navy Yard.

Other protests rained on the White House from Pennsylvania, California, New York and other state congressional groups.

OBITUARIES

George Bont, San Rafael, Dies At 81

George F. Bont of 50 Lunada Court, San Rafael, a retired steel executive, died at a local hospital yesterday after an illness that began in August. He was 81.

Bont was a native of Los Angeles. He moved to San Francisco in 1929 and purchased the California Steel Products Co. He built this business until 1940 when it became necessary to move it to Richmond.

During World War II, the firm fabricated steel parts for ships and armaments. Ten years ago, Bont sold the business to Yuba Consolidated. The Richmond plant has since closed down.

Bont has been retired for 10 years. He was a director of the Metal Trades Assn., a director and life member of the San Francisco Humane Society, a member of the Family Club of San Francisco, the Press and Union Club of San Francisco and the Meadow Club of Fairfax.

His wife, Helen Dickey Bont, died nine years ago. In 1959, Bont moved to San Rafael to live with a daughter, Mrs. John S. O'Neill.

Bont also is survived by another daughter, Mrs. John C. Munson of San Rafael, two sisters, Mrs. H. S. Graul and Augusta Bont of Encino.

Memorial services will be held at 3:45 p.m. tomorrow at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, San Rafael. The family prefers contributions to the Golden Gate Kindergarten Assn. of San Francisco, the Sunnyhills Home in San Anselmo, or a charity of the donor's choice.

MARIN'S BIGGEST LIGHTED CHRISTMAS TREE?

A neighborhood project in Terra Linda has resulted in lighting what is probably the largest Christmas tree in Marin County. Sparked by Art Cirimele of 298 Arias Street, 14 families in the Elena Court got together to put Christmas lights on this 110-foot conifer on St. Isabella's Catholic Parish property between Arias Street and Freitas Parkway. Eight strands of garlands and lights 80 feet long outline the tree, and 320 light bulbs drawing 16,000 watts provide illumination that can be seen for miles. The star atop the mammoth yule tree is three feet high. (Independent-Journal photo)

Anti-Cigarette Smoking Program Ordered By State

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown's Advisory Committee on Cigarette Smoking and Health was told yesterday to devise a program "to protect the health of Californians against the effects of cigarette smoking."

At the committee's first meeting, the governor said investigation shows much higher death rates from lung cancer and heart disease among cigarette smokers, and a higher than average smoking rate among Californians.

Dr. H. M. Erickson, committee chairman and acting director of public health, said the group will:

Examine laws prohibiting cigarette sales to minors.

Consider the state's responsibility for public health.

Explore educational programs on smoking.

Investigate the financial impact to the state, through the tobacco sales tax, of an anti-smoking campaign.

Traffic Tieup Warning Signs Are Suggested

Signs should be provided on both approaches to Golden Gate Bridge to inform motorists when major accidents cause traffic tieups, the building and operating committee of the bridge district decided yesterday.

This recommendation will go before the full Golden Gate Bridge District board of directors at its regular meeting tomorrow at 10 a.m.

The building and operating committee, headed by Dan E. London of San Francisco, consists of a majority of the 14-member bridge board.

The committee yesterday recommended that three "advance accident signs" be installed, one each on the Marin County side and the San Francisco side, and the third just north of the toll plaza. Bridge General Manager James Adam estimated the cost would be about $500.

The signs would be in operation only when a major crash tied up traffic.

Adam reported that cracks have developed in an expansion joint on the southbound lanes at midspan, which causes cars to make "slapping noises." He suggested that two southbound lanes be closed on Dec. 21 so the cracks can be repaired. "We hope to complete the job in one day," said Adam. He said the cost might be about $2,000.

The building and operating committee recommended the job be done.

The general manager will also report to the board tomorrow that the east sidewalk on the span should be closed during week days for repairs. Adam said the west sidewalk has been closed for several years, and sidewalk repair on that side is about completed.

Ramp Contract Let

way about two miles from the home of his mother, Nancy Sinatra, in the Bel-Air section of Los Angeles.

The youth told newsmen later he was kept blindfolded during his captivity but "wasn't harmed at all."

Asked whether he had been frightened, he said: "I believe I can say offhand that I probably reacted normally — I was scared."

The Sinatras held a party at Nancy's home last night to celebrate the 46th birthday of Frank Sr. and the return of his son. Guests included singer Dean Martin, composer Jimmy Van Heusen, music publisher Murray Wolff, attorney Abe Lipsey, former restaurant operator Mike Romanoff and Las Vegas hotel operator Jack Entratter.

Joseph C. Skelly, 27, of Las Vegas, who said he had been in the snowy mountains looking for Sinatra Jr. was held at Stateline yesterday after two guns and a knife were found in his car. After questioning by the FBI he was cleared of any involvement in the kidnaping.

estate broker, disagreed sharply.

"As a realtor, I feel this act is a great protection to me." Mrs. Walker declared. She said many realty brokers who agree with the idea of non-discrimination may be afraid of pressure from other brokers and from the public. Under the law, "I'm obligated to show property to anyone . . . It takes the responsibility out of my hands," she said.

All people should have the right to acquire and own property, she added. "We've never voted on whether it's right to kill your fellow man. We've never voted on whether it's right to steal from others."

Rev. Baldwin warned that if the repeal initiative comes to a vote, "it will lead to racial bitterness and turn loose on California the most destructive type of bigotry."

"We all agree that the initiative process is a wonderful thing," said Rumford, "but would the real estate people like to put the matter of realtor fees on the ballot and let the people decide?"

Stewart pointed out that the real estate boards have a "code of ethics" under which they must give equal service to all persons.

But many real estate people will not have the courage to live up to the code without the Rumford Act, which provides arbitration by FEPC in case of disputes, Mrs. Walker replied.

Two other scheduled panelists, developer Niels Schultz Jr. and Hazel Thole, Tiburon real estate woman, were unable to appear.

Mrs. Thole sent a letter, explaining she is ill. She favors putting the issue on the ballot and "standing or falling on that decision."

Public Works Bill Goes To President

A revised public works appropriations bill, including $20,000 for engineering studies on widening and straightening of Corte Madera Creek was passed today by the House of Representatives in Washington, D.C., the Associated Press reported.

The appropriation for the Corte Madera project, previously approved by the Senate, was part of a 4.4 billion dollar public works bill passed by the House. This action sends the measure to the president for his signature.

Indonesia May Accept Russ Arms, Aide Says

PARIS (UPI)—Indonesia will turn to the Soviet Union for weapons if Western nations impose an embargo on arms shipments to the island republic, Indonesian defense minister Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution said today.

Nasution accused Britain of "trying to misrepresent" the policies of the government of President Sukarno and denied Indonesia has any territorial ambitions.

BASES

Force bases due to be axed or reduced in scope.

Rumors yesterday said McNamara would move to close naval shipyards in Boston, Philadelphia and San Francisco. One base in Ohio also was mentioned.

House Speaker John W. McCormack (D-Mass.), acting for the entire Massachusetts delegation, carried to President Lyndon B. Johnson last night a bipartisan protest against rumored closing of the Boston Navy Yard.

Other protests rained on the White House from Pennsylvania, California, New York and other state congressional groups.

OBITUARIES

George Bont, San Rafael, Dies At 81

George F. Bont of 50 Lunada Court, San Rafael, a retired steel executive, died at a local hospital yesterday after an illness that began in August. He was 81.

Bont was a native of Los Angeles. He moved to San Francisco in 1929 and purchased the California Steel Products Co. He built this business until 1940 when it became necessary to move it to Richmond.

During World War II, the firm fabricated steel parts for ships and armaments. Ten years ago, Bont sold the business to Yuba Consolidated. The Richmond plant has since closed down.

Bont has been retired for 10 years. He was a director of the Metal Trades Assn., a director and life member of the San Francisco Humane Society, a member of the Family Club of San Francisco, the Press and Union Club of San Francisco and the Meadow Club of Fairfax.

His wife, Helen Dickey Bont, died nine years ago. In 1959, Bont moved to San Rafael to live with a daughter, Mrs. John S. O'Neill.

Bont also is survived by another daughter, Mrs. John C. Munson of San Rafael, two sisters, Mrs. H. S. Graul and Augusta Bont of Encino.

Memorial services will be held at 3:45 p.m. tomorrow at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, San Rafael. The family prefers contributions to the Golden Gate Kindergarten Assn. of San Francisco, the Sunnyhills Home in San Anselmo, or a charity of the donor's choice.

MARIN'S BIGGEST LIGHTED CHRISTMAS TREE?

A neighborhood project in Terra Linda has resulted in lighting what is probably the largest Christmas tree in Marin County. Sparked by Art Cirimele of 298 Arias Street, 14 families in the Elena Court got together to put Christmas lights on this 110-foot conifer on St. Isabella's Catholic Parish property between Arias Street and Freitas Parkway. Eight strands of garlands and lights 80 feet long outline the tree, and 320 light bulbs drawing 16,000 watts provide illumination that can be seen for miles. The star atop the mammoth yule tree is three feet high. (Independent-Journal photo)

Anti-Cigarette Smoking Program Ordered By State

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown's Advisory Committee on Cigarette Smoking and Health was told yesterday to devise a program "to protect the health of Californians against the effects of cigarette smoking."

At the committee's first meeting, the governor said investigation shows much higher death rates from lung cancer and heart disease among cigarette smokers, and a higher than average smoking rate among Californians.

Dr. H. M. Erickson, committee chairman and acting director of public health, said the group will:

Examine laws prohibiting cigarette sales to minors.

Consider the state's responsibility for public health.

Explore educational programs on smoking.

Traffic Tieup Warning Signs Are Suggested

Signs should be provided on both approaches to Golden Gate Bridge to inform motorists when major accidents cause traffic tieups, the building and operating committee of the bridge district decided yesterday.

This recommendation will go before the full Golden Gate Bridge District board of directors at its regular meeting tomorrow at 10 a.m.

The building and operating committee, headed by Dan E. London of San Francisco, consists of a majority of the 14-member bridge board.

The committee yesterday recommended that three "advance accident signs" be installed, one each on the Marin County side and the San Francisco side, and the third just north of the toll plaza. Bridge General Manager James Adam estimated the cost would be about $500.

The signs would be in operation only when a major crash tied up traffic.

Adam reported that cracks have developed in an expansion joint on the southbound lanes at midspan, which causes cars to make "slapping noises." He suggested that two southbound lanes be closed on Dec. 21 so the cracks can be repaired. "We hope to complete the job in one day," said Adam. He said the cost might be about $2,000.

The building and operating committee recommended the job be done.

The general manager will also report to the board tomorrow that the east sidewalk on the span should be closed during week days for repairs. Adam said the west sidewalk has been closed for several years, and sidewalk repair on that side is about completed.

Ramp Contract Let

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Stolte, Inc. of Oakland aubmitted a low bid of 1.35 million dollars yesterday for construction of an off-ramp connecting San Francisco's Embarcadero Freeway with the Golden Gate redevelopment project.

BIG HOLE MARKS START—Groundbreaking for the new Petrini's Market and other stores in the Bon Air Shopping Center addition, Greenbrae, yesterday scooped up more than a shovelfull of earth. Overlooking a trench for underground utilities are Larkspur Mayor L. A. Develer, Supervisor William Fusselman, Alvin Schultz of Schultz Building Co. (top) and Frank Petrini. The market, expected to be completed late next spring, will be the focal point of an extra acre of retail shopping space. (Independent-Journal photo)

BON AIR CENTER

Petrini Starts Greenbrae Work

Ground was broken yesterday noon at the Bon Air Shopping Center in Greenbrae for its biggest expansion project since it was opened in 1952.

The new addition will add over an acre of retail area east of the existing store complex, more than doubling the present shopping space.

The focal point of the new construction will be a 30,700-square-foot supermarket for Frank Petrini, owner of Petrini's Plaza and five other meat markets in San Francisco. The market will be operated as "Petrini's," and will include a delicatessen, gourmet liquor section and fish and poultry department, besides grocery, produce and meat divisions. It is expected to employ from 75 to 100 persons.

The building will be of contemporary design and steel frame construction. The total cost, including fixtures, is estimated at $1,200,000.

Besides the market, there will be 14,850 square feet of additional floor space for other retail stores.

The parking area will be doubled to a total capacity of over 600 cars. Present landscaping designs will be extended into the new area, with 10-foot planted strips along Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, the planters in front of the stores and in parking islands.

The present entrance to the shopping center will be realigned, a new connection will be made to Sir Francis Drake Boulevard for eastbound traffic and another road will be built to channel westbound traffic to the center from Eliseo Drive near its intersection with the boulevard.

The project was designed by R. R. Zahn of Burlingame in collaboration with Victor Gruen and Associates, original architects for Bon Air. The building, parking and other construction are being handled by Schultz Building Co., Greenbrae developers.

Completion of Petrini's Market is expected by late spring, Niels Schultz said.

New York Tackles Abuses In Theater

NEW YORK (UPI)—Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz will meet with a group of well-known figures and consider laws to "help correct and eliminate some of the abuses" in the theater business.

Lefkowitz made the disclosure yesterday after a two-day public hearing on irregularities in the industry. The attorney general said he and the members of his newly formed theatrical advisory committee would study the "abuses that have been exposed," and possible legal remedies.

One state investigator testified yesterday that profiteering producers fleece Broadway's backers — whose money pays the bills for the big shows—of up to 1 million dollars each year.

Exports from the United States currently amount to about 21 billion dollars a year and provide direct employment for more than three million American workers.

Rifle Shots Cost Resident $75

Richard Joseph Murphy, 43, of Santa Venetia was fined $75 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for shooting a rifle in an attempt to scare some young duck hunters away from his property.

San Rafael attorney A. E. Bagshaw, appearing for Murphy, told Judge Harold J. Haley there was "no attempt to harm anyone but only to frighten the boys since Mr. Murphy had repeatedly warned them about shooting shot guns near his own children. But he realizes now that he did the wrong thing."

Murphy, of 181 Mark Twain Avenue, was arrested Nov. 21 after four boys, aged 15 and 16, said they heard eight rifle shots fired in their direction.

Compensation of Chief Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court was fixed at $4,000 in 1789.

Marinda Village In San Rafael Gets Several New Additions

There are several new additions in service and merchandise at the Marinda Village (Froghorn), 607 Irwin Street, San Rafael.

New here is Joseph W. Perry Jr., landscape designer from out Marconi Lodge way near Marshall. He does both interior and exterior designs.

Then there is Mei-Etta from Oakland, specializing in imported jade and pearls. Mei-Etta, in fact, is quite a large distributor of pearls in the Bay Area.

E. Lee from San Francisco has a men's wear department and deals in imported Hong Kong suits as well as other habiliments.

Plants, artificial flowers and garden supplies are carried by Iroha Garden Center. Owner Ricky Sumimoto is an established nurseryman in Berkeley. It goes without saying that he has bonzai trees.

And to fill up some more space there's a department for old-fashioned Christmas trees. And extra gift stocks.

GEORGE LARSON, who recently opened his own real estate office at 34 Sunnyside Avenue, Mill Valley, has another reason for wearing that broad smile. His alma mater's football team has made it to the Rosebowl for the third time in the last four years (University of Washington).

He has a lot at stake in the forthcoming game on New Years Day—his reputation depends on the outcome. It was he who composed the university's official fighting song "Victory for Washington." This helped the team win in 1960 and 1961, and is expected to bring it through again this year.

GARY CLICK is new assistant manager of the W. T. Grant and Co. store in the Corte Madera Shopping Center. He was previously in the Sunnyvale store and replaces Ron Latola, who has been transferred to Daly City.

STUDEBAKER'S shutdown at South Bend won't have much effect on local car deliveries, according to Roland Bacci of Rossi's Garage, San Rafael Studebaker dealer.

Rossi's has plenty of cars available, says Bacci, and zone inventories are well up to take care of demands for most all models. If there is any waiting period it isn't likely to be a long one for the present.

Studebaker's plant in Hamilton, Ontario, has been producing 30,000 cars a year for the Canadian market. Now it's a matter of stepping up production about three times that for U. S. shipments. Plans are to absorb excess freight and duty to keep prices low.

OTHER MOTOR FACTS. The tally for stolen cars is about 300,000 a year. Recovery is around 90 per cent . . . Five million cars won't be recovered this year — they're headed for the scrap heap . . . Marin automotive sales last year were more than 40 million dollars . . . Two or more automobiles are now owned by 35 per cent of Marin families . . . Two-car families are expected to increase still more in the next 12 months because of the growing number of youngsters reaching driving age.

The Lydians in Asia Minor are credited with minting the first true coins near the end of the 7th Century B. C. Their hard cash was electrum, a natural alloy of gold and silver.

Free Postcards, Says Auditor

A limited number of postcards with a color picture of the Marin Civic Center are available free at the Civic Center, Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell announced today.

As Long as they last, they will be given to citizens who ask for them at the auditor's office.

The postcards were printed with the help of funds provided by the Marin County Employees Assn., Mitchell said.

AID TO CUBA EXILES TO END NEXT YEAR

U.S. To Halt 2.5 Million Dollars A Month To Refugees In Miami

MIAMI (UPI)—The director of the Cuban refugee relief program indicated today that federal aid to exiles in Miami—now running at the rate of 2.5 million dollars per month—will be ended sometime next year.

John F. Thomas, head of the U.S. refugee program, told a news conference the move "has no connection" with current budget cutbacks ordered by President Lyndon B. Johnson.

He said there are now about 53,000 Cuban exiles receiving relief in Miami. The assistance checks range up to a $100 a month maximum for a family.

Interviewing refugees for possible resettlement in other parts of the nation will require about three months more, he said. "The target date for comphase of our program is March 31, 1964," he said.

He said all Cubans in the Miami area receiving financial aid have a "free choice" as to whether to accept resettlement or be chopped off the federal relief rolls.

"Let me make clear that mention of the target date for completion of interviewing does not mean the closing of the Cuban refugee center by that date," he said.

But Thomas, whose headquarters are in Washington, D.C., declined to spell out exactly when the center might be shut down next year.

Thomas said that of about 170,000 Cubans registered at the center here since it was opened in 1961, more than 71,000 have been resettled in jobs in other parts of the United States.

He denied a Cuban newsman's charge that "a great many" of the resetled Cubans have returned to Miami.

"Our figures show that only four per cent have returned here and, of those, two per cent have been resettled again," he said.

Thomas said there was growing criticism in other parts of the United States toward the Cuban exiles for not leaving Miami at a faster pace and resettling elsewhere.

"The goal of the federal government will continue to be as helpful as posible to every refugee to become a self-supporting and contributing member of our society during his exile," Thomas said.

School Expansion To Up Traffic, Hospital Fears

The operations committee of the Marin General Hospital District board last night expressed concern that increased traffic might result on Bon Air road due to expansion plans of Marin Catholic High School.

The committee decided that board member Ernest N. Kettenhofen and either William W. Turner, administrator, or Thomas J. Broderick, associate administrator, should meet with county planning commissioners to discuss the problem.

The committee instructed Turner to review contracts with professional services at the hospital, recommended raising the minimum hospital wage from $280 to $300 per month and handed over $17,634.17 in unpaid bills to a collection agency.

$150 Coat Vanishes

A $150 cashmere coat was found missing from a closet at Marin General Hospital yesterday, Walter K. Pearce of 123 Marina Boulevard, San Rafael, reported to Marin sheriff's deputies. The coat belonged to his wife, who worked yesterday as a volunteer hospital aide, Pearce said.

But No Money Taken

A coin box holding San Francisco newspapers in front of the Edgewater Inn was broken into within the last two days but no money was taken, Douglas Brown, newspaper distributor, reported to Corte Madera police at 6:30 a.m. today.

Trustees Say Goodby To Old Dixie

Trustees of the Dixie School District met for the last time last night at the original Dixie School.

The building, probably constructed in 1874, according to Supt. Dennie B. Willis, was the only school in the district until 1954, and has been used as an administration building since 1957.

The superintendent and district staff have moved to new quarters at the Don Timoteo School at 35 Trellis Drive, Terra Linda. The Dixie School building will house the district maintenance and transportation staff.

Last night the board tabled a suggestion that the Miller Creek School be renamed the John F. Kennedy School.

Trustees voted to purchase an 11.7-acre site for a school next to the Thomas Nunes home in Lucas Valley, and authorized hiring architects and a structural engineer for a space study of the Bernard Hoffman School.

The resignation of Principal Charles A. Skutt of Bernard Hoffman School was accepted. Skutt, who was hired by the district in 1957, will retire June 30.

New two-year contracts were awarded Asst. Supt. Joseph B. Goff and curriculum consultant Penrod Moss, starting July 1, with the understanding that their salary increases would be set at the same time as those of other school district employees.

Bolinas Pupils Offer Show

"Scenes From Oklahoma" will be produced by Bolinas School fifth through eighth graders at 8 p.m. next Wednesday at the Bolinas Community Center.

The show, using excerpts from the Broadway musical, is expected to go "on the road" next year, with its first spot to be Larkspur, Peter M. Auer, superintendent-principal, said today.

Costumes, set designs and scripts are by pupils and the show is directed by Richard Hassall, Bolinas teacher. The work is all done after school.

Ten billion board feet of timber were cut from national forests in the 1963 fiscal year. Total valuation was $134.4 million.

Young Democrats Favor Brown With Johnson

Marin Young Democrats, headed by San Rafael High School senior Bob Black, would like to see Gov. Edmund G. Brown as vice presidential candidate.

"Most of us would like to see Governor Brown as President Johnson's running mate," Black asserted in an interview yesterday.

Black, age 16, lives at 144 Tamal Vista Drive in San Rafael. Other officers of the Marin Young Democrats are Paul Wilson, vice president; Miriam Byers, secretary; John Pecora, treasurer, and Rick Raznikov, editor of the newsletter.

"We have general meetings on the first and third Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. in the courthouse," said Black. "The meetings are open to anyone."

Next Tuesday night, the group will hear San Rafael High School teacher Charles Fesler discuss "Dealing Critically with the Marxist."

The immediate goal of the Marin Young Democrats is to expand membership of about 30 by including youths from other high schools in the county. The group plans to send a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in Las Vegas next year.

Bolinas-Stinson Schools Are Within Budget

Secretary Beverly Alberigi reported to Bolinas-Stinson School District trustees at their meeting last night that the district is "well within its budget" in line of spending. This was the middle of the year report.

George Quesada, San Francisco architect, will be invited to attend the board meeting Jan. 8 at which time trustees plan to review plans for new restrooms at Bolinas School, Clerk Arthur E. Carpenter reported.

More Rigid Fire Program For Bolinas

Bolinas fire protection district commissioners have agreed to initiate a more rigid program of fire inspection, Commissioner James Dougan said today.

Action was prompted by the recent fire loss of a storage shed behind the home of Mrs. Lillian Shaw.

Inspections, to be carried out by Bolinas Volunteer Firemen under Peter Martin, first assistant chief, will include all public buildings such as the Community Center, Bolinas School, and Bolinas Beach Public Utilities Hall, as well as churches.

Martin will observe a fire drill to be held 9:30 a.m. Wednesday at Bolinas School.

Commissioners also decided to investigate possible purchase of steamer type hydrants for installation on the new water main to be installed by the Bolinas Public Utility District.

Hayakawa Honor Dinner Set Dec. 27

A dinner in honor of Dr. S. I. Hayakawa of Mill Valley, internationally known semanticist, will be held at 8 p.m. Dec. 27 at the Atherton Hotel in San Francisco under sponsorship of the magazine Etc., which Hayakawa founded and which is celebrating 20 years of publication.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Hanley Norins, 2172 Pacific Street, San Francisco.

$1,700 Burglary In Mill Valley House

Someone entered the basement of the home of Mrs. Theodore Cirul at 87 Ethel Avenue, Mill Valley, and removed two power saws, a lathe, a portable oven, a slab of pink marble and two Chinese rugs, Mrs. Cirul reported to police late yesterday.

Total value of the items is $1,700, she said.

Christmas Gifts Stolen From Auto

Thieves who felt it is better to receive than to give during the yuletide season yesterday looted a San Rafael car parked in San Francisco of a full day's purchase of Christmas gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Hakon Danielsen, 159 Knight Drive, told police the car was parked at Fifth and Mission streets when the gifts were taken from the trunk.

Center Roof Job Hinges On Funds

The three portions of Mill Valley's community and youth center have been "tied together" structurally but room repairs and structural underpinning must be held up until more money is raised.

"We're short of funds," said City Mgr. Almcrants today. "The money isn't coming in as fast as everyone anticipated and the roof repairs will have to wait awhile."

Total amount raised, including a check for $100 yesterday from the Wells Fargo Bank, is $5,700. The goal is $25,000.

The fund drive has proved to be a real community effort.

Tree sales by Tamalpais High School students have raised $1,000, of which about one-half is profit for the fund. The lot at C's Drive In, 510 Miller Avenue, is manned around the clock, according to student Dennis Thran, and guarded in shifts by students in a "covered wagon" trailer.

The high school will participate in several student activities, Charles C. Crawford, vice principal, told Richard L. Parino, youth activities committee member Tuesday. Crawford is liaison man for high school events.

Egger and Son Nurseries, Mill Valley, will have a photographic display of the proposed center facilities this week end and will give a percentage of week end receipts to the center.

W. H. Greene and Son, Mill Valley excavating contractors, were dumping about 400 yards of fill at the center site today, according to Bill Woods, fund raising committee member. The fill is being donated.

Kenya Loudly Becomes 35th Africa Nation

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — Tens of thousands of Africans whistled, sang and cheered today as Kenya became Africa's 35th independent nation.

But even as the shouts of "uhuru" (freedom) echoed through the streets of this former British colonial capital, monumental problems confronted the new nation. It must conquer frontier warfare, tribal rivalries and economic difficulties.

LAST COLONY

When the Union Jack was hauled down and Kenya's flag of black, red and green went up amid wild jubilation at Nairobi's Freedom Stadium, Britain relinquished its last colonial holding in East Africa.

The Africans roared with delight and Kenya's Prime Minister Jomo Kenyatta joyously waved his flywhisk — an African symbol of authority — at the midnight ceremony.

The wives of white settlers wept and their husbands swallowed hard as they considered their future as a minority of 50,000 in a nation of 8.5 million Africans.

ZANZIBAR, TOO

Forty-eight hours earlier, the spice island of Zanzibar, just to the south, received its independence.

Britain's Prince Philip represented his wife, Queen Elizabeth II, at both celebrations.

Kenyatta, the legendary "burning spear" of the Mau Mau terror a decade ago, is no longer the firebrand who headed the African nationalist movement and spent eight years in British detention. Now 73, Kenyatta has called on his nation to forgive and forget the bitterness of the past as it wrestles with its problems.

Lions Shouldn't Ride Horseback

WINDHOEK,, South-West Africa (UPI) — Farmer Daantjie Harmse of the Grootfontein District in northern South-West Africa was out hunting on horseback recently with three friends.

Without warning, a lion sprang from the long grass and landed on the rump of his horse, inches behind the saddle.

Harmse leaped for his life, and the horse bolted with the lion firmly astride its back.

It was still there when Harmse's brother, another member of the hunting party, killed it with a single shot.

Hawaii To Get Anti-Bias Act

HONOLULU (AP)— Hawaii—where Caucasians are in the minority—will soon get a Fair Employment Practices Act which forbids discrimination.

Alfred Laureta, state labor director, admits there's job discrimination in Hawaii, and the new law—effective Jan. 1, 1964—will outlaw discriminatory practices in employment based on race, sex, age, religion, color or ancestry.

Gone from the newpaper classified pages will be familiar and curious advertisements like these: executive secretary wanted, Haole only; part-time service attendants, Orientals over 20; mature Japanese housekeeper; AJA bookkeepers wanted . . . .

Haoles are caucasians, AJAs are Americans of Japanese ancestry.

Water District Will Rent Garage Space In San Rafael

Lease of 4,000 square feet was approved yesterday by district directors.

The directors also:

1. Awarded a contract for printing water bills for the next two years to Standard Register Co. of San Rafael at $1,020.

2. Approved purchase of an electronic buried valve locator from Metrotech of Mountain View for $170.50.

3. Approved sale of the surplus Chapman Park tank lot to Paula Porter of 3 Alta Way, Corte Madera, owner of adjacent property.

4. Authorized purchase to two combination loader and back hoes from Coan Equipment Co. of Albany for $15,499.98.

5. Made Dec. 24 a half work day.

6. Approved warrants for $380,508.45.

Wool Takes Little Care

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI) — Clothing and textiles specialists at the University of Nebraska said wool responds well to a minimum of care and that it just takes a little "know-how" to keep it looking fresh and neat.

The know-how includes such simple things as knowing how to hang, air, brush and press wool.

Wool garments should be hung on a well-shaped hangar, preferably of the wooden or padded type, the specialists said.

Other tips offered: avoid crowding garments together in a closet; allow room to permit wrinkles to fall out; brush frequently to remove dust particles; and dry-clean or wash woolens before they become too soiled.

Now, Boys—Ulp! We Got Two Of Them

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) —The Boys girls teach in the Des Moines public schools.

They are Miss Margaret Boys, Miss Martha Boys, Miss Virginia Boys and Mrs. Hilda Boys. Each teaches at a different school.

A NEW DECK FOR GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE?

Directors of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District will meet tomorrow to consider a committee recommendation that feasibility studies be made for a 25-million-dollar lower deck for passenger cars. Rough sketches show what the approaches might look like in five years, if the directors decide to go ahead and if a lower deck is feasible. Sketch (left) shows the Marin approach, divided in the center by a middle lane that "tunnels" down to the lower deck. San Francisco approach (right) has a center "tunnel" to the second deck. Building in center is the present administration building. To left of that are shown new southbound lanes with new toll gates. General Manager James Adam stressed that these sketches are quite preliminary and is just one of many of how to add a lower deck to the existing span. A second deck, even if it is feasible, would not be an alternate to a second crossing, engineers have pointed out. Ultimately, a second crossing will come anyway, but many of the directors contend that a second deck is needed now to meet the mounting traffic congestion.

Former Slave Succumbs At 109 In Texas

SINTON, Tex (UPI) — Funeral services were held yesterday for Ranson Farris, who was born a slave 109 years ago. He would have been 110 on Christmas Day.

When Farris was born on a cotton plantation in Matagorda County, Texas, the Republican Party was being founded in Wisconsin. The question of slavery in Kansas and Nebraska was a burning national issue. Elisha M. Pease was the governor of the eight-year-old state of Texas.

Farris lived through the assassinations of four presidents.

Around Sinton, he was known as "Uncle Nance." He worked as a cowhand on the King Ranch in its early days and later became a railroad laborer. Then he farmed.

He is survived by a stepson, a stepdaughter and six grandchildren.

Students Seek Cleanest Halls

Competition between Redwood High School lunch periods for the cleanest campus began yesterday and student judges were immediately impressed by the immaculate grounds, according to Tom Strathairn, self - government head.

A panel of senior students will judge halls, lavarories, and campus grounds for cleanliness at the end of each lunch period. The cleanest will have 10 to 20 minutes added to its lunch period on Friday.

Now on a two-week trial basis, the program will become permanent if approved in January by the student body governing board, the legislative assembly.

Chamber President Asks For Tax Cut

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (UPI) — Edwin P. Neilan, U. S. Chamber of Commerce president, yesterday called for a tax cut to forstall a possible "shallow economic recession."

The Delaware banker urged Congress to face "its true responsibility" and "couple a tax cut with an end to political boondoggling and other unnecessary federal spending."

It would be unrealistic, he said, to insist that every dollar in a tax cut be matched by a dollar cut in spending. He warned that "The time element is such that delay the tax cut and to incur recession would be to invite a still bigger splurge of federal spending."

At a press conference, Neilan suggested that President Lyndon B. Johnson cut 25,000 government employes from such departments as agriculture, interior and health, education and welfare.

He said he had rather see these employes dropped than major cuts in the defense budget.

"These people would never be missed," he said.

Neilan, a former Democrat who became a Republican, called his address "U. S. Monetary and Fiscal Policy — A Tax payer's View."

U.S. Must Regain Car Domination, Executive Says

MONTEREY (UPI) — A top Chrysler executive said today the United States needs to recapture its domination of the world automotive market.

Clare E. Biggs, Chrysler Corp. vice president and general manager of Chrysler-Plymouth Division, estimated that the United States would account for only 46 per cent of the 19.7 million cars and trucks built during 1963.

Briggs said at the 3rd annual West Coast rally, that his division would market shortly after the first of the year, the lowest priced V-8 powered car in the United States. The compact Valiant car will be powered by a new V-8 engine that went into production this week.

Crop production now is 70 per cent higher per acre in the United States than in 1919-1921.

Plans For Retirement Announced

SAN FRANCISCO — Wells Fargo Bank, recently named trustee of the California Medical Assn.'s retirement plan set up under the Keogh-Smathers Act, today took the lead among California banks in announcing "master retirement plans" for other self-employed persons.

Enacted in 1962 the Keogh-Smathers Act permits such self-employed persons as doctors, lawyers, accountants or owners or partners in non-incorporated businesses to set up their own tax-favored retirement plans.

A person can put 10 per cent of his earned income — up to $2,500—in his retirement plan and deduct half the amount from his taxable income.

Income and taxes on investments in the retirement plan are tax-free until withdrawn and distributions from the plan are not taxed until the person actually receives them.

TOMALES, ANALY FEES ON AGENDA

Two Districts Attempting To Work Out Interdistrict Tuition Fee Agreement

A formula for determining the tuition fees for students under interdistrict agreements between Tomales and Analy High School Districts is expected to be considered by the Analy district's board of trustees tonight.

The formula, in essence, was approved by the Tomales board, according to Superintendent Anthony Matulich of the Tomales district, after being worked out by a committee from both groups.

Matulich said recent state legislation makes it possible for districts to enter into agreements and prescribe the amount—or tuition—to be paid for students attending from the other district.

Prior to the legislation, he said, a state attorney general's ruling compelled districts to pay 100 per cent of all costs of educating each student above and beyond state and federal school funds.

Under the new legislation, he added, the districts may now determine what amount shall be paid each other.

Matulich said the old Potter Elementary School District, in Sonoma County and within the Tomales district, will be used as financial basis for the formula because it is the area involved where students will be switching districts.

He said the proposed formula for tuition cost for out-of-district students is to take the old Potter assessed valuation and figure the amount of potential revenue that the school district property tax rate would draw annually from this valuation.

The number of units of average daily attendance residing within Old Potter district would be calculated, he said. The formula would then divide the potential revenue by the units for a cost figure.

Matulich said in no case would either of the districts receive more than the actual excess cost.

In other recent Tomales action, the trustees went on record of backing the $175,000 bond issue or the tax increase in the Jan. 14 election to raise money for bringing the buildings at the high school up to earthquake-proof standards. The third possibility, that of abandonment of the buildings and the use of temporary buildings, was opposed by the board.

Novatan Files Suit For 'False Arrest'

A $25,000 lawsuit was filed in Marin Superior Court today by a Novato man who claims he was falsely arrested and imprisoned on a charge of trespassing.

Harry Leff filed the suit against Ronald J. and Elizabeth M. Lampky of Larkspur. According to the suit, Leff was jailed Aug. 4 on a complaint to Larkspur police that he trespassed on the Lampky property, but nobody signed a formal charge and he was released the next day.

Strawberry Rec Gets Tide Easement

A non-exclusive easement for navigation over two tide lots and tideland portion of a lot was granted Strawberry Recreation District last night by the Milland Development Co.

The lots are in the arm of Richardson Bay vicinity to Strawberry Village and Strawberry Point Elementary School.

The district board adopted an ordinance, effective in 30 days, putting a control on all easements and properties of the district. It gives the district the right to approve or disapprove any changes in easements such as building a fence across a walkway easement, planting shrubbery on a walkway easement, or building a pier or wharf.

A map of the easements is being prepared to be available for the public in January, said secretary Patricia M. Gowen.

Bodies? No, Dreams

VENTURA (UPI)—Police who stopped to aid owners of a hearse ended up making three arrests yesterday when they discovered marijuana, heroin and narcotics injection devices.

1,563 Acres Added To Mosquito District

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission today took its first action on a boundary change since it was formed, approving addition of 1,563 acres to the Marin County Mosquito Abatement District.

District Manager G. Paul Jones said the land just east of Stafford Lake near Novato is due for major subdivision development, and that people there were getting a "free ride" in mosquito protection.

Commission member Byron W. Leydecker asked whether a larger area should be included, since spraying by the district extends farther. Jones replied that the boundaries have been drawn to cover those benefitted directly, rather than where work is done. For instance, the district pays for aerial spraying of a large salt marsh near Petaluma because mosquitoes from there swarm in places as far away as Fairfax.

Approval was by 4-0 vote, with commissioner Jan Paul Dyk of Sausalito absent.

The commission set hearings on three other items: Formation of a flood control zone in the Belvedere-Tiburon area, annexation to a flood control zone in the Bel Aire area, and annexation of three new units of the Kent Woodlands subdivision to the Kentfield Fire District. All will be at 9 a.m. Jan. 4.

The commission agreed to the Saturday meeting date because of the need for speed for these areas to be included on the tax rolls for the 1964-65 fiscal year.

McKeay To Quit Rec Commission

Robert McKeay, chairman of the Novato parks and recreation commission, and one of its original members, has said he does not wish to be reappointed when his term expires on Dec. 31.

McKeay stated in a letter to Mayor M. E. Babe Silva that he felt much had been accomplished since the commission was formed, but due to a change in his job responsibilities, he could not continue.

He was former principal of Novato High School and now heads the adult education and the work experience programs of Novato Unified School District.

NEW CHEVELLE!
BY CHEVROLET

The kind of go—6 or V8—you'd expect from one of Chevy's great highway performers. Come on down and drive it.

The kind of comfort you'd expect in a large interior. Come on down and sit in it.

The kind of fresh styling—inside [illegible] —that makes it the year's smartest surprise. Come down and stare at it.

New Chevelle Malibu Sport Coupe

Now—Chevy spirit in a new kind of car!

We built this one to do a lot more than just stand around looking beautiful. Held its weight down in the 3,000-pound range. Then built four lusty engines for it—two sixes and two V8's—with output all the way up to 220 horses*!

And if that combination of modest weight and potent power gives you the idea that this is one frisky car indeed, you've got the right idea.

You've also got a roomy car with a generous amount of space for legs, hips, shoulders, hats and luggage. Yet its 115-inch wheelbase keeps it highly maneuverable in traffic and very easy to park.

With its Full Coil suspension, it's got a ride that reminds you of the Jet-smooth kind the way it muffles noise and cushions bumps.

And the fine hand of Body by Fisher craftsmen shows up beneath this one's suave good looks, too. Just listen to the solid thunk of a door closing or look at the neat seams and smooth metalwork. You'll see what we mean.

Sound good so far? There's more. Like the fact that Chevelle comes in three series with eleven models—convertibles, sport coupes, sedans, wagons, even Super Sport models with front bucket seats. Like the fact that (and see if this doesn't strike you as one of the nicest surprises of all) the new Chevelle comes at an easy-to-take price!

Like to hear more? The listening's wonderful at your Chevrolet dealer's—and so's the driving.

MARINITES HELP

Repaired Ship Returns To Sea

Story and photos
By FRANK FARRARI

A former Japanese freighter, heavily damaged in a collision off Point Reyes June 4, returned to sea today with a big assist from two Marin County residents.

John V. Walsh of 517 Chapman Drive, Corte Madera, supervised repairs to the water-damaged hull and machinery.

Capt. Joseph Ferrari of 362 Edgewood Avenue, Mill Valley, ship supervisor for Schnitzer Steel Products, has been on the rehabilitation project from the moment he went out to the sinking ship in a tug boat.

The former Kokoku Maru, now known as the Rose S., is being towed to Japan by an ocean-going tug, Daisho Maru No. 1, in a slow journey that will take from 36 to 38 days barring storms and mishaps.

JOHN V. WALSH
Bossed repair job

Her hull was pierced in a fog-bound collision with the U.S. Military Transport Service vessel Asterion, and she went adrift near South Farallon Island.

The bow of the Asterion pierced the starboard side of the Kokoku Maru about midship.

Forty-three members of the Kokoku Maru crew, cast adrift in rafts, were rescued by two Coast Guard cutters. One crew member was killed.

"I thought she'd sink before we got her in," Ferrari said.

The 9,987-ton ship was taken to Richmond, where it sank at the dock. It was pumped out, taken to drydock and patched, Ferrari said.

Later its cargo was discharged and it was taken to Bethlehem Steel for structural work, and then to the old Moore Dry-Dock in Oakland for further repairs.

Caught in a bustle of last-minute preparations yesterday, Walsh said in another two days the ship could have steamed to Japan and wouldn't have needed to be towed by tug. "But we ordered the tug a long time ago," he said.

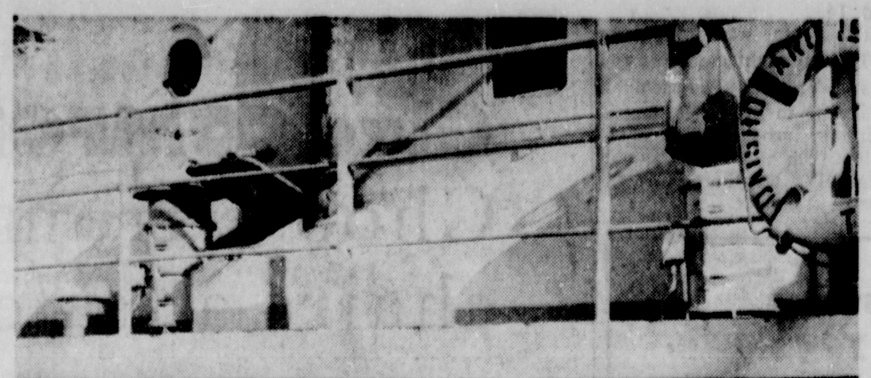
Walsh, a consulting engineer and ship surveyor, will go to Japan after the Rose S. arrives to supervise final repairs.

The ship, now owned by Schnitzer Steel Products, of Portland, Ore., will return to the United States for further assignments.

Captain Ferrari said it is possible he may be sailing aboard the ship someday.

Neither Marin men started the journey aboard the Rose S. today. Only two crew members, Don McReynolds of Hayward and William Mills of Oakland, were on board. The ship, in tow, carried scrap metal and phosphate rock for Japan.

Thinking of the journey ahead, McReynold said, "I've had my Chrismas already."



LONG JOURNEY AHEAD—Capt. K. Arima of the seagoing tug Daisho Maru No. 1 and Capt. Joseph Ferrari, ship supervisor for Schnitzer Steel Products, stand aboard the tug before start of a trans-Pacific tow of the freighter Rose S (formerly the Kokoku Maru), which was salvaged after a collision off Point Reyes last June. Mill Valleyan Ferrari, who participated in rescue of the Rose S. and in repairs which have been under way ever since, won't make the journey to Japan.

Blood Bank Day Slated By Center

The Christmas season is here and workers at the Marin Blood Center, urging all to get in the spirit of giving, have scheduled Blood Bank Day tomorrow.

The center at 506 Fourth Street, San Rafael, will be open as usual from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. If donors miss tomorrow, it is open regularly on Mondays, Wednesday and Fridays, said the center.

"Despite the holiday season, illness continues and operations must go on. You cannot tell a person who needs a blood transfusion to wait until after Christmas," said Gloria Gibala, staff nurse for the center.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP)—There are five levels of caverns in Kentucky's Mammoth Cave, the lowest 360 feet below ground. The cave has 325 mapped passageways and 150 miles of explored passages.

Beasts Gone, Name Changed

HONOLULU (AP)—With nary a horse left in its venerable stables, Honolulu Construction & Draying Company Ltd., streamlined its title and came up to date.

The old Honolulu firm now in fact, has one of the shortest names in the yellow pages—HC&D.

A top company official, pointing out that the company hasn't used a drayhorse for years, said the company name was changed because "draying is archaic."

Went To Brazil, Meredith Says; Bail Increased

Paul M. Meredith, 23, the Hamilton Air Force Base Airman who jumped bail to flee charges of kidnaping and armed robbery, asserts he spent part of his two months of freedom in Brazil.

"I think he's dreaming," Marrin County Undersheriff Eugene Meyer declared today.

Meredith said he decided to return to the United States because he felt he had no "real freedom" in Brazil.

"Those jungles are terrible," he said.

Meyer and Inspector Marco Melovich took Meredith to Santo Rosa Municipal Court yesterday where the $25,000 bail he skipped was exonerated at request of an attorney for a bail bonding firm. The firm had put up $785 to cover the expense of returning Meredith to Marin County.

The court re-set bail at $50,000. Meredith faces a charge of kidnaping in Sonoma County, where he is accused of terrorizing the Garth Tufts family in Cotati and taking the 15-year-old daughter Aleta at gun-point on July 25. The girl was later released.

Next day, Meredith held up the Household Finance Corp. of San Rafael, taking $6,275. He was captured within an hour by the California Highway Patrol near Sausalito.

Meredith has pleaded guilty to armed robbery. He is appear in Marin Superior Court Dec. 23 for sentencing.

While in Santa Rosa Municipal Court yesterday Meredith told reporters of his "adventures in Brazil."

Meyer said today that the AWOL airman had a passport, but there was nothing on it to indicated he had ever left the country. Meyer said there was no indication that Meredith traveled much farther than Youngstown, Ohio, where he was captured Nov. 4.

'You Want Wh-a-a-t?'

DENVER (UPI)—Two unsavory looking characters walked into the Busby Liquor Store in Denver yesterday, showing clerk Virginia Brolley, 38, a gun, and demanded money. "I don't think this is very funny," Mrs. Brolley said indignantly. Without a word, both men walked out.

Looka The Seagulls!

BRUSSELS (UPI) — Brussels Airport officials said today they are using generosity to keep seagulls away from the airstrips. The officials said they have lured the seagulls away by setting up well-stocked food stations a good distance from the runways.

Rocky Backers Not Worried Over Lodge

WASHINGTON (AP) — Partisans of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller swore yesterday that they are unworried by the newest threat on the political horizon, namely:

That a slate of delegates favoring Henry Cabot Lodge for the Republican presidential nomination may be entered in New Hampshire's primary on March 10, first in the nation.

"Are your brows furrowed?" a newsman asked a man high in the Rockefeller organization.

"Nary a furrow," was the reply. "This kind of effort requires time, organization, work, people, money."

He said he could see no sign of this combination forming behind Lodge.

Since there is supposed to be a moratorium on politics until Dec. 22, when the official mourning period for the late President John F. Kennedy ends, the above-quoted Rockefeller man must remain nameless.

But not so Richard L. Fortin, past president of the Manchester, N. H., Young Republican Club. He said he has written former President Dwight D. Eisenhower asking that he encourage Lodge to enter the preference primary.

Two days ago another Manchester man, Victor Lemieux, said he put in a radiophone call to Ambassador Lodge in South Viet Nam and got the impression Lodge would enter the primary "as soon as he receives the word from Eisenhower."

As things stand this word is not likely to go forth, at least in written form.

Eisenhower and Lodge had a talk when the latter was here recently for consultations.

Soaked Wrong Way

LONDON (UPI)—Two automobile association patrolmen found themselves ankle deep in beer yesterday when they called to clean up 800 bottles of brew that were broken when a beer truck turned over. "My socks are soaked in it," patrolman Leslie Haines said. "The wife will never believe why."

Fantasies For Children Are Planned

Two fantasies for children written by Mill Valley playwright Dan Totheroh will be presented in a Christmas benefit program Saturday and Sunday at the California Palace of the Legion of Honor, San Francisco.

The plays, which are sponsored by the San Francisco International Child Art Center, are "The Stolen Prince" and "The Lost Princess." They are also directed by Totheroh.

Set in Ancient China, they will be performed in the traditional Chinese manner with crashing cymbals, beating drums and dying dragons.

Performances will begin at 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. on both days. Tickets are available at the J. M. Radio & TV, Bel Aire Shopping Center, Tiburon, and at the Legion Theater.

Totheroh has gained international recognition in the past 30 years with award-winning plays such as "Wild Birds" and "The Great Dark." Others were "Distant Drums," starring Pauline Ford, "Moor Born" with Helen Gahagan, "Mother Lode" with Melvin Douglas and Beulah Bondi.

Totheroh's achievements in Hollywood include the screen plays "The Devil and Daniel Webster," "Dawn Patrol," "Zoo in Budapest" and "Yellow Jack."

Loan Employee Hurt As Auto Hits Tree

Franklin Carlos Llanes, 43-year-old mortgage company employee of 510 Oak Manor Road, Fairfax, was in fair condition in Marin General Hospital today after suffering face cuts in a one-car accident yesterday.

San Anselmo police said Llanes was traveling west on Redhill Boulevard near Sequoia Avenue about 6 p.m. when his car struck a tree on the boulevard island.

Company Asks All Tam Valley Garbage

A request from the Mill Valley Garbage Co. for an exclusive franchise for garbage service in Tamalpais Valley will be discussed by the Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District board Jan. 14.

The matter was brought up at Tuesday night's meeting and was taken under advisement, according to Robert D. Smith, secretary pro-tem. The Mill Valley firm now serves Tamalpais Valley but there is no exclusive franchise.

To All Marin Realtors And Real Estate Salesmen:

We appeal to the members of the Marin County Real Estate Board to declare their opposition to the initiative on the Rumford Act. This Act protects the democratic right for all people to share equally the benefits of our society, including the opportunity to buy a home of one's choice.

We think that it would be shameful for our nation, as well as our business, if we seek to deny any portion of our people their democratic right: and that we shall justify in the eyes of many people their suspicion that realtors are an unscrupulous group interested only in what moneyed gain is involved in property transactions, regardless of any social ethics.

We ask all realtors and salesmen to read the following "Declaration of Policy of the California Realtors for Fair Housing". Search your conscience, and if you agree, sign and return to the undersigned.

"The undersigned Realtors as Brokers and Associate members in good standing in their local board, hereby declare their support of the principle of a free Housing market unrestricted by such factors as Race, Creed or National origin.

We urge upon the California Real Estate Association and the citizens of California that the Rumford Fair Housing Law be given a reasonable opportunity to evidence how it will operate in actual practice. We are concerned that the initiative to outlaw all legislation in this area may be unconstitutional and destructive of healthy community relations in California.

We request that C.R.E.A.'s stand in support of the initiative be reconsidered by its new Board of Directors. We declare our resistance to assessments on Realtors and local Realty Boards to finance outlawing the initiative.

We welcome the support of all Realtors in this appeal for Fair Play for Fair Housing."

75,000 CIVILIAN U.S. JOBS MAY END

Defense Department May Shut Down 35 Military Installations In Nation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department plans to shut down 35 military installations in the United States with a total of 75,000 civilian jobs, it was learned today.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara was expected to make the official announcement within a day or so, a congressional source said.

It was learned that seven of the installations are in New York State with a total of some 11,000 jobs.

Earlier it was learned that the Defense Department planned to shut down naval shipyards at Boston, San Francisco and Philadelphia as part of the new military economy drive. There were reports that more shipyards might be affected.

At the White House, press secretary Pierre Salinger said the matter had not been brought to President Lyndon B. Johnson and that the Defense Department could decide itself to close the bases.

"This matter has not come to the White House yet and it does not necessarily have to," Salinger said. "It could be decided by the department of defense.

During his "coffee break" press conference on Saturday, Johnson told reporters that the department was reviewing military bases with the view of possibly consolidating some in an economy move.

Early in 1961, the Defense Department ordered the shutting down of 52 installations in the United States. At that time the department backed down on only a handful of the closures despite the outraged cries of members of Congress.

Over the past three years, the Defense Department has announced plans for closing or reducing about 400 military facilities in early 1961, the Pentagon said the U. S. Armed Forces had activities at about 6,700 sites at home and abroad.

The Pentagon said today that it still operates approximately 6,700 sites, despite the announced closings and plans for closing of the past three years. One reason cited was the opening of the new missile sites in recent years.

However, the Pentagon said it has removed about 260,000 acres from its rolls in three years, returning the land to communities.

In all such cases, the Department endeavors to help civilian employees to find employment in other government agencies, at other military sites or in private industry. Attrition is another means used for making necessary employee reductions.

Helen Hayes Takes 'White House' Role

NEW YORK (AP) — After a five-year absence, Helen Hayes is returning to Broadway to star in "The White House Story," a drama about presidential families.

A. E. Hotchner's script relates what are described as nonpolitical episodes beginning with George Washington and ending with the Theodore Roosevelt family. The production, announced yesterday, is scheduled for a May 13 premiere.

The meat and poultry industry payroll is $1.5 billion a year in the United States.

Repaired Ship Returns To Sea

Story and photos
By FRANK FARRARI

A former Japanese freighter, heavily damaged in a collision off Point Reyes June 4, returned to sea today with a big assist from two Marin County residents.

John V. Walsh of 517 Chapman Drive, Corte Madera, supervised repairs to the water-damaged hull and machinery.

Capt. Joseph Ferrari of 362 Edgewood Avenue, Mill Valley, ship supervisor for Schnitzer Steel Products, has been on the rehabilitation project from the moment he went out to the sinking ship in a tug boat.

The former Kokoku Maru, now known as the Rose S., is being towed to Japan by an ocean-going tug, Daisho Maru No. 1, in a slow journey that will take from 36 to 38 days barring storms and mishaps.

JOHN V. WALSH
Bossed repair job

Her hull was pierced in a fog-bound collision with the U.S. Military Transport Service vessel Asterion, and she went adrift near South Farallon Island.

The bow of the Asterion pierced the starboard side of the Kokoku Maru about midship.

Forty-three members of the Kokoku Maru crew, cast adrift in rafts, were rescued by two Coast Guard cutters. One crew member was killed.

"I thought she'd sink before we got her in," Ferrari said.

The 9,987-ton ship was taken to Richmond, where it sank at the dock. It was pumped out, taken to drydock and patched, Ferrari said.

Later its cargo was discharged and it was taken to Bethlehem Steel for structural work, and then to the old Moore Dry-Dock in Oakland for further repairs.

Caught in a bustle of last-minute preparations yesterday, Walsh said in another two days the ship could have steamed to Japan and wouldn't have needed to be towed by tug. "But we ordered the tug a long time ago," he said.

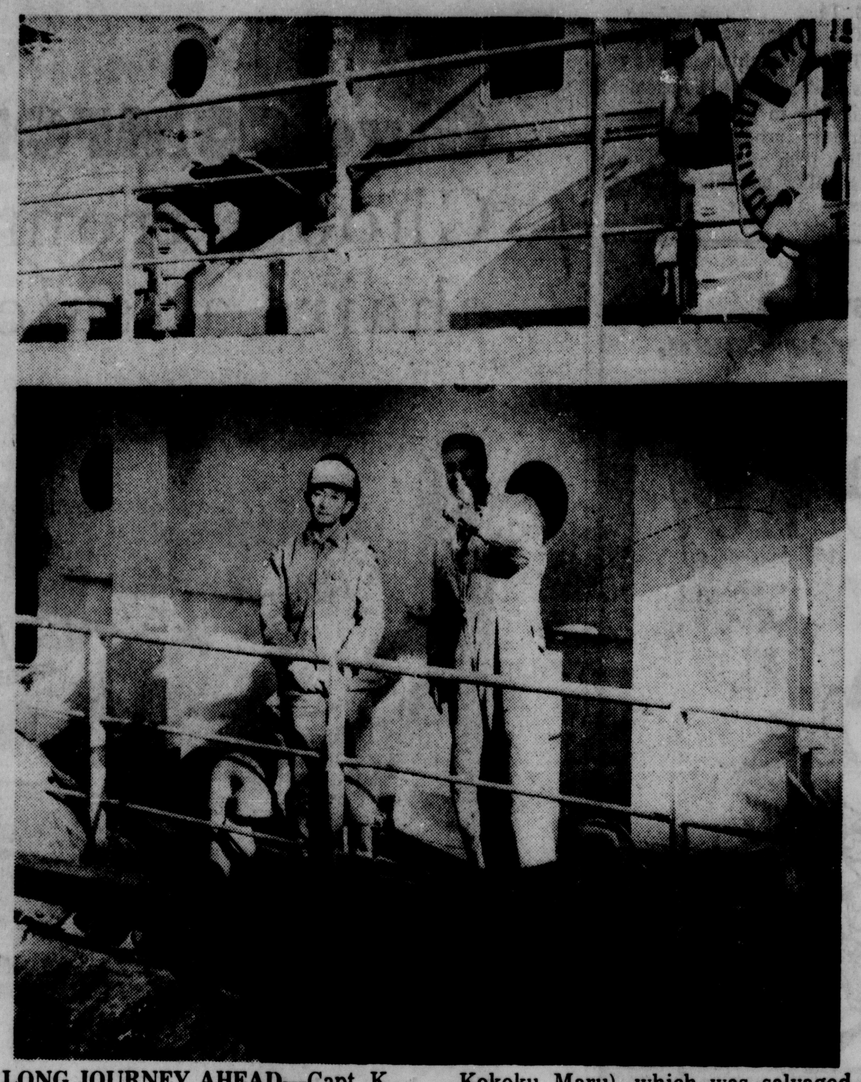
Walsh, a consulting engineer and ship surveyor, will go to Japan after the Rose S. arrives to supervise final repairs.

The ship, now owned by Schnitzer Steel Products, of Portland, Ore., will return to the United States for further assignments.

Captain Ferrari said it is possible he may be sailing aboard the ship someday.

Neither Marin men started the journey aboard the Rose S. today. Only two crew members, Don McReynolds of Hayward and William Mills of Oakland, were on board. The ship, in tow, carried scrap metal and phosphate rock for Japan.

Thinking of the journey ahead, McReynold said, "I've had my Chrismas already."



LONG JOURNEY AHEAD—Capt. K. Arima of the seagoing tug Daisho Maru No. 1 and Capt. Joseph Ferrari, ship supervisor for Schnitzer Steel Products, stand aboard the tug before start of a trans-Pacific tow of the freighter Rose S (formerly the Kokoku Maru), which was salvaged after a collision off Point Reyes last June. Mill Valleyan Ferrari, who participated in rescue of the Rose S. and in repairs which have been under way ever since, won't make the journey to Japan.

Blood Bank Day Slated By Center

The Christmas season is here and workers at the Marin Blood Center, urging all to get in the spirit of giving, have scheduled Blood Bank Day tomorrow.

The center at 506 Fourth Street, San Rafael, will be open as usual from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. If donors miss tomorrow, it is open regularly on Mondays, Wednesday and Fridays, said the center.

"Despite the holiday season, illness continues and operations must go on. You cannot tell a person who needs a blood transfusion to wait until after Christmas," said Gloria Gibala, staff nurse for the center.

Caverns Galore

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP)—There are five levels of caverns in Kentucky's Mammoth Cave, the lowest 360 feet below ground. The cave has 325 mapped passageways and 150 miles of explored passages.

Beasts Gone, Name Changed

HONOLULU (AP)—With nary a horse left in its venerable stables, Honolulu Construction & Draying Company Ltd., streamlined its title and came up to date.

The old Honolulu firm now in fact, has one of the shortest names in the yellow pages—HC&D.

A top company official, pointing out that the company hasn't used a drayhorse for years, said the company name was changed because "draying is archaic."

Went To Brazil, Meredith Says; Bail Increased

Paul M. Meredith, 23, the Hamilton Air Force Base Airman who jumped bail to flee charges of kidnaping and armed robbery, asserts he spent part of his two months of freedom in Brazil.

"I think he's dreaming," Marrin County Undersheriff Eugene Meyer declared today.

Meredith said he decided to return to the United States because he felt he had no "real freedom" in Brazil.

"Those jungles are terrible," he said.

Meyer and Inspector Marco Melovich took Meredith to Santo Rosa Municipal Court yesterday where the $25,000 bail he skipped was exonerated at request of an attorney for a bail bonding firm. The firm had put up $785 to cover the expense of returning Meredith to Marin County.

The court re-set bail at $50,000. Meredith faces a charge of kidnaping in Sonoma County, where he is accused of terrorizing the Garth Tufts family in Cotati and taking the 15-year-old daughter Aleta at gun-point on July 25. The girl was later released.

Next day, Meredith held up the Household Finance Corp. of San Rafael, taking $6,275. He was captured within an hour by the California Highway Patrol near Sausalito.

Meredith has pleaded guilty to armed robbery. He is appear in Marin Superior Court Dec. 23 for sentencing.

While in Santa Rosa Municipal Court yesterday Meredith told reporters of his "adventures in Brazil."

Meyer said today that the AWOL airman had a passport, but there was nothing on it to indicated he had ever left the country. Meyer said there was no indication that Meredith traveled much farther than Youngstown, Ohio, where he was captured Nov. 4.

'You Want Wh-a-a-t?'

DENVER (UPI)—Two unsavory looking characters walked into the Busby Liquor Store in Denver yesterday, showing clerk Virginia Brolley, 38, a gun, and demanded money. "I don't think this is very funny," Mrs. Brolley said indignantly. Without a word, both men walked out.

Looka The Seagulls!

BRUSSELS (UPI) — Brussels Airport officials said today they are using generosity to keep seagulls away from the airstrips. The officials said they have lured the seagulls away by setting up well-stocked food stations a good distance from the runways.

HOMES SWALLOWED

Earth Slide Kills Four Canadians

ST. JOACHIM DE TOURELLE, Que. (AP) — A second earth movement today sent two houses tumbling into a sea of mud which swallowed up four brothers in a truck and three other houses last night. The first earth movement also demolished a highway bridge and carried four homes into the St. Lawrence River.

Quebec provincial police, working throughout the night to help this stricken and alarmed Gaspe Peninsula community, ordered 10 houses evacuated.

Except for the brothers, no other deaths were reported in the sudden earth shift in this small community 275 miles northeast of Quebec. But the situation was so confused that officials said there may have been more fatalities.

A pit 150 feet deep and a half square mile in area was opened in the Tourelle Creek Valley 500 to 1,000 feet above the Gaspe Highway.

Police said a car also was swallowed up by the earth movement but that its occupants — a couple — were pulled out of the mud.

The truck carrying the brothers vanished. They were identified as Johnny Therrien, 32; and his brothers, Raymond 28; Benoit, 22, and Onesime, 20.

Constable Martin Gauthier said fishermen in three boats rescued at least six persons from the houses swept into the river. No other occupants were believed lost.

The disaster came at 5:30 p.m. with a trembling of the earth.

An elderly woman whose house was carried away said she barely mad time to lift up the telephone and ask the operator to get help. Within moments water swirled up to her knees. She fled the dwelling just before it was awept away amid chunks of earth as big as the house.

The giant earth movement also tore up a portion of a secondary road on which the truck and car were traveling. The thick grey mud moved down the hillside into the St. Lawrence River.

On its way it knocked out the 50-foot Gaspe Highway bridge that crosses the creek just before it feeds into the St. Lawrence.

It was a near-zero, stormy night and police had to use ski-equipped vehicles.

The Red Cross volunteer from nearby Ste. Anne Des Monts described the disaster scene:

"There was a gap in the highway. No one could get across. People were standing on both sides, scared and afraid. There were no lights, no telephones."

A provincial surveyor, Gilbert Sasseville, said the earth movement may have been caused by an underground lake. He said there had been landslides in the area before.

Department Store Has Busy Day

MIAMI (AP) — Tom Myers' shopping center department store had booming business the other day as a result of a series of incidents which brought attention to the store. Myers said he could have done without them.

They included: a boy running through a glass door, police arriving when a shoplifter got away, capture of a second shoplifter, and finally, arrival of firefighting units because of a haze which filled the store.

They found the haze caused by hot moist air entering the building and mixing with the dry air conditioned air.

Civil War Slaughter Topped World War I

CHICAGO (AP) — Civil War deaths on the Union side, 364,000, outnumbered the total deaths in World War I, 131,000, almost 3 to 1.

They nearly equalled the total deaths of World War II, 409,000, the Veterans Administration reports.

Envoy Trained In West Named Korean Premier

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — President-elect Chung Hee Park formed a new cabinet today, apparently designed to strengthen ties with the United States and other Western allies.

Named as premier is Dr. Choi Doo-sun, 69, Western educated former newspaper publisher known for his diplomatic talent.

To assist him in the diplomatic field, Park named Chung Ilkwon as foreign minister and Kim Yong-shik, present foreign minister, as minister without portfolio in charge of foreign affairs. Chung was twice ambassador to Washington — once under former Premier Huh Chung's caretaker government in 1960, and later under the present military regime.

The new Cabinet will take office Tuesday with the inauguration of Park.

In Washington, President Lyndon B. Johnson appointed Gov. John A. Burns of Hawaii to head the U. S. delegation to the inauguration, United Press International reported.

Johnson designated Burns as presidential representative with the special rank of ambassador.

Samuel D. Berger, U. S. Ambassador to South Korea, also will be a representative at the inauguration.

Now They Code Fire Plugs

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP) — A man with a silver-dipped paint brush has visited all the fireplugs in this city.

But it's all in the name of progress. The Portsmouth Water Department had the old red fire plugs painted silver with color-coded trim.

A green-trimmed plug delivers 1,000 gallons per minute. A yellow one offers 500 gallons and red marks a small line with less than 500 gallons.

75,000 CIVILIAN U.S. JOBS MAY END

Defense Department May Shut Down 35 Military Installations In Nation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department plans to shut down 35 military installations in the United States with a total of 75,000 civilian jobs, it was learned today.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara was expected to make the official announcement within a day or so, a congressional source said.

It was learned that seven of the installations are in New York State with a total of some 11,000 jobs.

Earlier it was learned that the Defense Department planned to shut down naval shipyards at Boston, San Francisco and Philadelphia as part of the new military economy drive. There were reports that more shipyards might be affected.

At the White House, press secretary Pierre Salinger said the matter had not been brought to President Lyndon B. Johnson and that the Defense Department could decide itself to close the bases.

"This matter has not come to the White House yet and it does not necessarily have to," Salinger said. "It could be decided by the department of defense.

During his "coffee break" press conference on Saturday, Johnson told reporters that the department was reviewing military bases with the view of possibly consolidating some in an economy move.

Early in 1961, the Defense Department ordered the shutting down of 52 installations in the United States. At that time the department backed down on only a handful of the closures despite the outraged cries of members of Congress.

Over the past three years, the Defense Department has announced plans for closing or reducing about 400 military facilities in early 1961, the Pentagon said the U. S. Armed Forces had activities at about 6,700 sites at home and abroad.

The Pentagon said today that it still operates approximately 6,700 sites, despite the announced closings and plans for closing of the past three years. One reason cited was the opening of the new missile sites in recent years.

However, the Pentagon said it has removed about 260,000 acres from its rolls in three years, returning the land to communities.

In all such cases, the Department endeavors to help civilian employees to find employment in other government agencies, at other military sites or in private industry. Attrition is another means used for making necessary employee reductions.

Helen Hayes Takes 'White House' Role

NEW YORK (AP) — After a five-year absence, Helen Hayes is returning to Broadway to star in "The White House Story," a drama about presidential families.

A. E. Hotchner's script relates what are described as nonpolitical episodes beginning with George Washington and ending with the Theodore Roosevelt family. The production, announced yesterday, is scheduled for a May 13 premiere.

The meat and poultry industry payroll is $1.5 billion a year in the United States.

Youth In Peace Corps As Africa Drama Coach

Robert Moulthrop, 22, of 199 Canal Street, San Rafael, is serving with the Peace Corps as an assistant drama coach in the University of Ibadan, Nigeria.

Moulthrop is a son of Mrs. Gwen Scott of San Rafael and Richard W. Moulthrop of Larkspur. He studied music and English at Catholic University in Washington D. C. While there, he got a part time job as clerical assistant to Sen. Jacob K. Javits (Rep.-N.Y.)

Soon after Moulthrop went to Nigeria in September, his name appeared in Congressional Record along with his impression of the Guthrie Theater in Minneapolis. Javits introduced Moulthrop's praise of the Guthrie Theater to support the idea of live theater at the community level.

Mrs. Scott reported that her son is enjoying his job in Nigeria tremendously. "His letters are marvelous," she said. She and her son have lived in Marin three years. He will be in Nigeria until September, 1965.

SINGING TREE

A cricket sings in his cage hung in a Christmas tree while Brian Bressler plays flute accompaniment at Oregon Ceramic Studio in Portland, Ore., yesterday. The tree is hung with cages from which other crickets also sound off. Idea is that of John Ardiel, who makes cricket houses for persons who remember Dickens' "Cricket on the Hearth" but want the cricket where they can watch him. (AP Wirephoto)

HOMES SWALLOWED

Earth Slide Kills Four Canadians

ST. JOACHIM DE TOURELLE, Que. (AP) — A second earth movement today sent two houses tumbling into a sea of mud which swallowed up four brothers in a truck and three other houses last night. The first earth movement also demolished a highway bridge and carried four homes into the St. Lawrence River.

Quebec provincial police, working throughout the night to help this stricken and alarmed Gaspe Peninsula community, ordered 10 houses evacuated.

Except for the brothers, no other deaths were reported in the sudden earth shift in this small community 275 miles northeast of Quebec. But the situation was so confused that officials said there may have been more fatalities.

A pit 150 feet deep and a half square mile in area was opened in the Tourelle Creek Valley 500 to 1,000 feet above the Gaspe Highway.

Police said a car also was swallowed up by the earth movement but that its occupants — a couple — were pulled out of the mud.

The truck carrying the brothers vanished. They were identified as Johnny Therrien, 32; and his brothers, Raymond 28; Benoit, 22, and Onesime, 20.

Constable Martin Gauthier said fishermen in three boats rescued at least six persons from the houses swept into the river. No other occupants were believed lost.

The disaster came at 5:30 p.m. with a trembling of the earth.

An elderly woman whose house was carried away said she barely mad time to lift up the telephone and ask the operator to get help. Within moments water swirled up to her knees. She fled the dwelling just before it was awept away amid chunks of earth as big as the house.

The giant earth movement also tore up a portion of a secondary road on which the truck and car were traveling. The thick grey mud moved down the hillside into the St. Lawrence River.

On its way it knocked out the 50-foot Gaspe Highway bridge that crosses the creek just before it feeds into the St. Lawrence.

It was a near-zero, stormy night and police had to use ski-equipped vehicles.

The Red Cross volunteer from nearby Ste. Anne Des Monts described the disaster scene:

"There was a gap in the highway. No one could get across. People were standing on both sides, scared and afraid. There were no lights, no telephones."

A provincial surveyor, Gilbert Sasseville, said the earth movement may have been caused by an underground lake. He said there had been landslides in the area before.

Department Store Has Busy Day

MIAMI (AP) — Tom Myers' shopping center department store had booming business the other day as a result of a series of incidents which brought attention to the store. Myers said he could have done without them.

They included: a boy running through a glass door, police arriving when a shoplifter got away, capture of a second shoplifter, and finally, arrival of firefighting units because of a haze which filled the store.

They found the haze caused by hot moist air entering the building and mixing with the dry air conditioned air.

Civil War Slaughter Topped World War I

CHICAGO (AP) — Civil War deaths on the Union side, 364,000, outnumbered the total deaths in World War I, 131,000, almost 3 to 1.

They nearly equalled the total deaths of World War II, 409,000, the Veterans Administration reports.

Envoy Trained In West Named Korean Premier

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — President-elect Chung Hee Park formed a new cabinet today, apparently designed to strengthen ties with the United States and other Western allies.

Named as premier is Dr. Choi Doo-sun, 69, Western educated former newspaper publisher known for his diplomatic talent.

To assist him in the diplomatic field, Park named Chung Ilkwon as foreign minister and Kim Yong-shik, present foreign minister, as minister without portfolio in charge of foreign affairs. Chung was twice ambassador to Washington — once under former Premier Huh Chung's caretaker government in 1960, and later under the present military regime.

The new Cabinet will take office Tuesday with the inauguration of Park.

In Washington, President Lyndon B. Johnson appointed Gov. John A. Burns of Hawaii to head the U. S. delegation to the inauguration, United Press International reported.

Johnson designated Burns as presidential representative with the special rank of ambassador.

Samuel D. Berger, U. S. Ambassador to South Korea, also will be a representative at the inauguration.

Now They Code Fire Plugs

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP) — A man with a silver-dipped paint brush has visited all the fireplugs in this city.

But it's all in the name of progress. The Portsmouth Water Department had the old red fire plugs painted silver with color-coded trim.

A green-trimmed plug delivers 1,000 gallons per minute. A yellow one offers 500 gallons and red marks a small line with less than 500 gallons.

CHUBBY TO WED HOLLAND BEAUTY

Chubby Checker, Negro singer credited with inventing the twist, announced at the home of his parents in Philadelphia today his engagement to Catherine Lodders, 21, of Haarlem, The Netherlands, who was named Miss World in 1962. Singer-dancer said they'll be married next spring. (AP Wirephoto)

Bigamy Trial Goes To Jury

Twenty-three-year-old Ernesto Manuel Quintana, on trial for bigamy in Marin Superior Court, was described today as a "sort of Romeo who married three young girls and proposed to a fourth."

His case went to the jury at noon after Asst. Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales declared Quintana was "the sort of person" naive girls should beware.

Quintana, now a resident of San Jose, is charged with marrying Sharon Marie Riella in 1959 while still married to Patricia Irene Arnus. Miss Riella obtained an annulment earlier this year. Both marriages took place in Marin County, when Quintana lived in San Rafael.

Jerome C. Durham, assistant public defender, said Quintana was not on trial for his "romances, but merely one charge of bigamy." He asked the jury to consider that "even that charge is loaded with reasonable doubt." Durham said Quintana "was given the impression that he was free to marry Miss Riella."

The testimony of San Jose attorney Thomas A. Salciccia was surrounded by confusion, Durham said, for Quintana "thought Mr. Salciccia told him he could marry again if annulment proceedings were started against the first wife."

Penny Farmer of 304 D Street, San Rafael, testified Quintana proposed to her earlier this year, but he declared he was "just giving her a line."

After his arrest for bigamy last October, Quintana married a third girl in San Jose.

Soliciting At Bar Alleged During Bookmaking Trial

Soliciting for prostitution as well as illegal gambling were alleged to have been going on at the Patio Bar in San Rafael this summer, a state investigator testified today at the bookmaking trial of William P. Mountanos.

Jack L. Chambers, supervising special investigator for the State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, said he "received reports July 2 from confidential informants that illegal gambling and soliciting for prostitution were taking place at the bar."

Chambers was the last witness called by Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety before noon today in the third day of the trial. Mountanos, brother of Marin Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, was arrested at the bar Aug. 21 for accepting $10 horse race bets from a state undercover agent. The bar is owned by a third brother, George Mountanos.

In answer to a question by Mountanos' attorney, Nathan Cohn, Chambers said he "personally knew nothing" of any subsequent investigation of prostitution. He said he had never been in the bar, but operated in cooperation with other state agents who were investigating alleged bookmaking.

Cohn earlier questioned Raymond J. Stonehouse, ABC chief special agent, about practices of his department's enforcement of liquor laws.

Stonehouse said investigation of bookmaking and other such activities usually involves cooperation of local police. But he said the department did not inform San Rafael police or the sheriff's office in the Mountanos case.

Bank Aide Elected By Chamber

Edward C. Saunders, assistant cashier of the Bank of America in Mill Valley, was elected president of the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce at yesterday's meeting of the board of directors.

Saunders, now treasurer, will succeed Lawrence A. Mayer.

Other officers elected were Herman Boldetti, first vice president; Eddie R. Pedersen, second vice president; Clyde E. Beasley, treasurer. Granville L. Beedle was reappointed secretary-manager.

Other board members are Charles F. Berlenbach Jr., John G. Donhoff, William E. Eberhart, A. A. Hemmerling, Frank C. Hickman and Mayer. Mayer had served as interim president of the chamber after Leonard E. Blakely resigned in October on being transferred from Mill Valley to San Francisco by Wells Fargo Bank.

The new officers will be installed at the annual chamber dinner in February. No date has been set.

Retiring from the board after two years' service are Gerald Gooch and Lew Tyrrell.

Novato Police Offer Bicycles

Approximately 25 bicycles will be auctioned at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Novato police station.

The bikes, in boys' and girls' styles and all sizes, have been picked up by police over the past three years and never claimed.

In addition to the bikes, several tricycles, baby strollers, tools, watches, tires, and even a hi-fi set will be sold for cash to highest bidders.

Two Are Sentenced For Drunk Driving

A San Rafael woman and a Sausalito man were sentenced yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving.

Margaret Peterson Robedeaux, 47, of 18 Trellis Drive, San Rafael, was fined $139 for driving while intoxicated Nov. 15 in San Rafael. Hubert Eugene Washburn, 35, of 195 Santa Rosa Street, Sausalito, was fined $166 for drunken driving Nov. 4 on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard. Both appeared before Judge Harold J. Haley.

Hard To Keep People On Job With 'George'

It's hard to hire people to work with "George," Marin County's IBM 1401 data processing monster, and it's even harder to keep them, according to Arleigh Sewell, director of data processing for the county.

Therefore Sewell is asking that a requirement that tabulating operators and programmeres be required to live in Marin or Sonoma counties.

He agreed that the request, if approved by the county personnel commission at its meeting at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Civic Center, will make recruiting harder, because of the stiff competition in the fields.

But, he said today, persons hired by the county who live in San Francisco or the East Bay just do not stay, there are so many jobs closer to home. "We are only keeping them a few months," he complained.

School District Signs For Portable Rooms

San Jose School District has contracted with California Cargo Corp. for use of six portable classrooms until June 30, 1966.

The Independent-Journal yesterday inadvertently cut two years off the contract, reporting the expiration date as next June 30.

Tam Math Whiz Perfect Scorer

Paul Copperman, a junior at Tamalpais High School, has accomplished something "Unique within the last half dozen year" by scoring 800—a perfect score—in the 1963 scholastic aptitude test in mathematics.

"It's tremendous," according to his teacher, Richard Newman, chairman of the mathematics department.

Not only did Copperman get the high score which is unusual, Newman said, but he received it as a junior taking a senior mathematics test.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Copperman of 519 Browning Street, Mill Valley, the youth entered Tamalpais High last year. At that time he took both geometery and advanced algebra simultaneously and received "A" in both as a sophomore.

This year he is taking senior mathematics, including trigonometry and fundamentals of advanced mathematics.

The SAT test is given all students interested in attending college.

Second highest score at Tamalpais was posted by senior Dan Friedman with 793. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Friedman of 353 Montford Avenue, Mill Valley.

No Larkspur Quorum

A meeting of the Larkspur Park and Recreation commission last night was cancelled because of a lack of a quorum, said Chairman Robert V. Golden. The next meeting will be on Jan. 8.

Mariner Cove Yule Judging Slated

Judging of the outdoor Christmas decorations contest of the Mariner Cove Improvement Assn. will be between 8 and 10 p.m. on Dec. 19 and 20.

The contest is open only to association members, according to President Albert J. Boro. Three cash prizes of $30, $20 and $10 will be awarded.

Fairfax Car Stolen

Fairfax police today reported theft of an automobile owned by Thomas Schahill, 131 Bolinas Avenue, Fairfax, parked at his residence. The 1956 Oldsmobile was taken about 8 p.m. yesterday.

At Grand Teton, licensed hunters have been permitted to harvest elk, but some 1,170 hunters were able to bag only 280 in 1962.

Youth In Peace Corps As Africa Drama Coach

Robert Moulthrop, 22, of 199 Canal Street, San Rafael, is serving with the Peace Corps as an assistant drama coach in the University of Ibadan, Nigeria.

Moulthrop is a son of Mrs. Gwen Scott of San Rafael and Richard W. Moulthrop of Larkspur. He studied music and English at Catholic University in Washington D. C. While there, he got a part time job as clerical assistant to Sen. Jacob K. Javits (Rep.-N.Y.)

Soon after Moulthrop went to Nigeria in September, his name appeared in Congressional Record along with his impression of the Guthrie Theater in Minneapolis. Javits introduced Moulthrop's praise of the Guthrie Theater to support the idea of live theater at the community level.

Mrs. Scott reported that her son is enjoying his job in Nigeria tremendously. "His letters are marvelous," she said. She and her son have lived in Marin three years. He will be in Nigeria until September, 1965.

Nazi Leader Gets Term For Murder

MUNICH, Germany (AP) — Thomas Krafft, a former sergeant in the Nazi SS elite guard, was sentenced yesterday to 12 years in prison for the murder of four Austrians on V-E Day.

Krafft, 43, went into hiding in 1960 when he learned that police were on his tracks. Last year, he got drunk at a Munich inn and mistook a police prowl car for his own automobile. When he tried to drive off, he was arrested.

CAB Says It Will Take Week To Decipher Plane's Fall

WASHINGTON (UPI)—It will take at least one week before experts can decipher the torn, twisted aluminum foil taken from the flight recorder of the Pan American World Airways jet that crashed at Elkton, Md., Sunday night, the Civil Aeronautics Board said yesterday.

In another development, it was also disclosed that the dramatic message "Clipper 214 going down in flames" did not come from the Pan American pilot that night. It came instead from the copilot of a National Air Lines DC8 flying in a holding pattern only 1,000 feet above flight 214.

The CAB learned this only after the copilot himself informed investigators. What else he told interrogators was not revealed.

While investigators at the scene of the crash that killed all 81 aboard examined and identified wreckage, experts at the CAB's headquarters here used microscopes and tweezers to reconstruct the damaged flight recorder tape.

The CAB hopes to gain from the foil a record of the jet's speed, altitude, airspeed, heading and the stresses it encountered just before it fell in flames. The 28-minute flight from takeoff to tragedy is scrawled over about five inches of foil slightly more than two inches wide.

The foil was not only crushed but some of it was torn so badly that putting it together was like trying to assemble a jigsaw puzzle made out of confetti. O. E. Patton, the CAB's top flight recorder expert, said it was "the worst we've ever handled" but added:

"I think we're going to get some data out of it."

Patton headed a five - man team assigned to the task of deciphering the recorder tape. The others included a second CAB expert plus representatives from the Federal Aviation Agency, Air Line Pilots Assn and the manufacturer of the recorder.

The job of piecing together the foil, Patton said, will consume at least the rest of the week. The graph lines depicting the flight and mid-air disintegration, which to the human eye resemble fingernail scratches on a chunk of kitchen foil, then will be magnified by photography about 25 times for easier reading.

The shell containing the foil originally was a perfect sphere about the size of a basketball. It was so badly crushed by impact that when the CAB split it open to get at the foil, the two halves looked like battered oyster shells.

Patton said the CAB is renewing previous recommendations that the FAA require stronger protecting casings and moving recorders in the tail instead of their present location — in the left main wheel well.

There were these other developments in the investigation:

There were persistent reports, on which the CAB had a terse "no comment," that investigators at the crash have uncovered some evidence of a lightning strike.

There also was an unconfirmed report that the National plane flying above flight 214 was hit by lightning about the same time but suffered no damage.

Still Another Monk Burns Self To Death

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — A 22-year-old Buddhist monk burned himself to death on the grounds of a religious pagoda in coastal Binh Dinh Province Monday, the official Viet Nam Presse reported today.

The report said the suicide was an "oblation," an offering for religious or charitable purposes. It did not explain further.

Blind Youth, 13, Musical Marvel

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Thirteen-year-old Michael Gerber, blind at birth, is a musician who has appeared as soloist with the nearby Kirkwood Symphony Orchestra.

Gerber is a pianist, has been studying piano since he was 3 years old.

Dorothy Ziegler, the orchestra's conductor and music director, said Michael's "outstanding achievement to date has been aided by the fact that he has absolute pitch."

Michael has learned by ear, using phonograph records and a tape recorder. He is now learning to read music in Braille.

"Michael is a remarkable boy," Miss Ziegler said.

Monorail Called Long Way Off

DENVER, Colo. (UPI) — Denver University traffic engineers say monorail or other types of rapid transit will not become a reality in Denver until the cost of driving becomes prohibitive.

The engineers said the public refuses to leave cars at home and use mass transit. The Denver Tramway Corp. carries only about one-third as many passengers as it did in World War II.

Bigamy Trial Goes To Jury

Twenty-three-year-old Ernesto Manuel Quintana, on trial for bigamy in Marin Superior Court, was described today as a "sort of Romeo who married three young girls and proposed to a fourth."

His case went to the jury at noon after Asst. Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales declared Quintana was "the sort of person" naive girls should beware.

Quintana, now a resident of San Jose, is charged with marrying Sharon Marie Riella in 1959 while still married to Patricia Irene Arnus. Miss Riella obtained an annulment earlier this year. Both marriages took place in Marin County, when Quintana lived in San Rafael.

Jerome C. Durham, assistant public defender, said Quintana was not on trial for his "romances, but merely one charge of bigamy." He asked the jury to consider that "even that charge is loaded with reasonable doubt." Durham said Quintana "was given the impression that he was free to marry Miss Riella."

The testimony of San Jose attorney Thomas A. Salciccia was surrounded by confusion, Durham said, for Quintana "thought Mr. Salciccia told him he could marry again if annulment proceedings were started against the first wife."

Penny Farmer of 304 D Street, San Rafael, testified Quintana proposed to her earlier this year, but he declared he was "just giving her a line."

After his arrest for bigamy last October, Quintana married a third girl in San Jose.

Two Are Sentenced For Drunk Driving

A San Rafael woman and a Sausalito man were sentenced yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving.

Margaret Peterson Robedeaux, 47, of 18 Trellis Drive, San Rafael, was fined $139 for driving while intoxicated Nov. 15 in San Rafael. Hubert Eugene Washburn, 35, of 195 Santa Rosa Street, Sausalito, was fined $166 for drunken driving Nov. 4 on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard. Both appeared before Judge Harold J. Haley.

Tam Math Whiz Perfect Scorer

Paul Copperman, a junior at Tamalpais High School, has accomplished something "Unique within the last half dozen year" by scoring 800—a perfect score—in the 1963 scholastic aptitude test in mathematics.

"It's tremendous," according to his teacher, Richard Newman, chairman of the mathematics department.

Not only did Copperman get the high score which is unusual, Newman said, but he received it as a junior taking a senior mathematics test.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Copperman of 519 Browning Street, Mill Valley, the youth entered Tamalpais High last year. At that time he took both geometery and advanced algebra simultaneously and received "A" in both as a sophomore.

This year he is taking senior mathematics, including trigonometry and fundamentals of advanced mathematics.

The SAT test is given all students interested in attending college.

Second highest score at Tamalpais was posted by senior Dan Friedman with 793. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Friedman of 353 Montford Avenue, Mill Valley.

Soliciting At Bar Alleged During Bookmaking Trial

Soliciting for prostitution as well as illegal gambling were alleged to have been going on at the Patio Bar in San Rafael this summer, a state investigator testified today at the bookmaking trial of William P. Mountanos.

Jack L. Chambers, supervising special investigator for the State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, said he "received reports July 2 from confidential informants that illegal gambling and soliciting for prostitution were taking place at the bar."

Chambers was the last witness called by Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety before noon today in the third day of the trial. Mountanos, brother of Marin Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, was arrested at the bar Aug. 21 for accepting $10 horse race bets from a state undercover agent. The bar is owned by a third brother, George Mountanos.

In answer to a question by Mountanos' attorney, Nathan Cohn, Chambers said he "personally knew nothing" of any subsequent investigation of prostitution. He said he had never been in the bar, but operated in cooperation with other state agents who were investigating alleged bookmaking.

Cohn earlier questioned Raymond J. Stonehouse, ABC chief special agent, about practices of his department's enforcement of liquor laws.

Stonehouse said investigation of bookmaking and other such activities usually involves cooperation of local police. But he said the department did not inform San Rafael police or the sheriff's office in the Mountanos case.

Bank Aide Elected By Chamber

Edward C. Saunders, assistant cashier of the Bank of America in Mill Valley, was elected president of the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce at yesterday's meeting of the board of directors.

Saunders, now treasurer, will succeed Lawrence A. Mayer.

Other officers elected were Herman Boldetti, first vice president; Eddie R. Pedersen, second vice president; Clyde E. Beasley, treasurer. Granville L. Beedle was reappointed secretary-manager.

Other board members are Charles F. Berlenbach Jr., John G. Donhoff, William E. Eberhart, A. A. Hemmerling, Frank C. Hickman and Mayer. Mayer had served as interim president of the chamber after Leonard E. Blakely resigned in October on being transferred from Mill Valley to San Francisco by Wells Fargo Bank.

The new officers will be installed at the annual chamber dinner in February. No date has been set.

Retiring from the board after two years' service are Gerald Gooch and Lew Tyrrell.

Novato Police Offer Bicycles

Approximately 25 bicycles will be auctioned at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Novato police station.

The bikes, in boys' and girls' styles and all sizes, have been picked up by police over the past three years and never claimed.

In addition to the bikes, several tricycles, baby strollers, tools, watches, tires, and even a hi-fi set will be sold for cash to highest bidders.

Hard To Keep People On Job With 'George'

It's hard to hire people to work with "George," Marin County's IBM 1401 data processing monster, and it's even harder to keep them, according to Arleigh Sewell, director of data processing for the county.

Therefore Sewell is asking that a requirement that tabulating operators and programmeres be required to live in Marin or Sonoma counties.

He agreed that the request, if approved by the county personnel commission at its meeting at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Civic Center, will make recruiting harder, because of the stiff competition in the fields.

But, he said today, persons hired by the county who live in San Francisco or the East Bay just do not stay, there are so many jobs closer to home. "We are only keeping them a few months," he complained.

School District Signs For Portable Rooms

Tentative Site Picked For Outdoor School

A committee trying to establish a school for outdoor education in Marin County has been spinning its wheels for lack of agreement on objectives for the past three months, members agreed yesterday.

The group then unanimously agreed the aim would be to produce a school away from regular schools, where sixth graders could, for one week of the year, be given intensive education about nature in the field.

The site tentatively picked is Enchanted Hills Camp, used in the summer for blind children.

The next big problem, according to Charles Nagel, head of health, physical education, recreation and safety in the county schools office, will be gaining support of school districts.

He called for speed because work has begun on budgeting.

William Lovvorn, principal of Marin Terrace and Old Mill Schools in Mill Valley, said superintendents of several districts should be buttonholed to gain their support for a countywide effort.

Man's Body Found On West Marin Beach

A man's body was sighted today on a Point Reyes Peninsula beach by a West Marin rancher.

James Kehoe reported he saw the body from a cliff. Its identity was not known as of noon today. Kehoe also said he found an abandoned car on his ranch, west of the road to McClure's Beach.

BOSS TAKES ALL EMPLOYEES ON YULE SAIL

SOUTHAMPTON, England (AP)—Arthur Allwright, electronics manufacturer, sailed down the English Channel today in search of the sun on a nine-day Mediterranean cruise.

With him aboard the liner Strathden went all 42 of his employees, ranging from Jim Bailey, 78, to office girl Erica Copeland, 16. The boss picks up the check.

"This," said Allwright, "is their Christmas bonus — my way of saying thanks for 13 years of profit making.

"We've never had a strike. We work as one big family. They've been wonderful."

The trip will cost $5,600, none of it deductible.

Pistol Aboard Jet Liner Brings Fine Of $500

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —Robert Lee Woodard, 40, was fined $500 today for displaying a derringer pistol aboard a jet airliner in flight.

U. S. Dist. Judge Oliver J. Carter noted that Woodard, a Santa Clara meatcutter, had merely shown the weapon, a souvenir, as a curiosty and did not employ it in a threatening manner.

However, the judge said taking firearms aboard an airplane is "a serious offense." It violated a 1961 law passed to prevent airliner hi-jackings.

Woodard was arrested Nov. 5 when his plane from Dallas landed at San Francisco International Airport and was met by numerous deputy sheriffs and FBI agents. They were summoned as a result of a radio message from the pilot.

Cambodia Pulls Back Envoy In Row With U.S.

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP)—Prince Noredom Sihanouk, Cambodian chief of state, said today Cambodia has recalled its ambassador to Washington following a protest registered by the U.S. government.

The protest concerned a reported communique of the Cambodian government which the United States charged expressed satisfaction at the death of President John F. Kennedy, along with the deaths of South Viet Nam President Ngo Dinh Diem and Thailand Premier Sarit Thanarat. The Cambodian government denied any reference had been made to Kennedy.

The State Department in Washington declined immediate comment on the situation. It was known, however, that a broadcast of the government statement in question produced shock when U.S. monitors first heard it. An immediate inquiry was launched.

Sihanouk said in a speech in the province of Takeo that his ambassador was being recalled following what he termed the protests and threats U.S. Ambassador Philip Sprouse made to the Cambodian government.

10.5 Million Dollars Local Taxes So Far

Another $1,132,737 in property tax payments were processed yesterday, County Treasurer-Tax Collector Stanley Fontez reported today, bringing the total handled so far to about 10.5 million dollars.

The total first installment collection, which was due Tuesday, is about 16 million, Fontez said, but he expected it would take about 10 days to total all payments received.

Controller Asks Loan For State

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Just like thousands of individuals, this state is hard pressed to meet its bills during the Christmas season.

State Controller Alan Cranston said today he may need to borrow up to 125 million dollars in December and January for the general fund, the state's checking account.

Cranston, in a letter to Gov. Edmund G. Brown, proposed borrowing 50 million dollars from the Architecture Revolving Fund Dec. 19, and 15 million dollars from the School Land Fund, 10 million dollars from the Motor Vehicle Fund and 5 million dollars from the Motor Vehicle Fuel Fund on Dec. 24.

Loan Aide Drops Innocent Plea

SACRAMENTO (AP) —Robert Joseph, former president of West Coast Savings and Loan Association, today changed his plea on charges of making illegal loans from innocent to nolo contendere.

The new plea means he will not contest charges that he made a false report on a loan, and made unauthorized loans totaling $373,600.

Superior Court Judge Raymond T. Coughlin set Jan. 16 for sentencing.

Both offenses Joseph is accused of are prohibited by state financial laws.

CAB Says It Will Take Week To Decipher Plane's Fall

WASHINGTON (UPI)—It will take at least one week before experts can decipher the torn, twisted aluminum foil taken from the flight recorder of the Pan American World Airways jet that crashed at Elkton, Md., Sunday night, the Civil Aeronautics Board said yesterday.

In another development, it was also disclosed that the dramatic message "Clipper 214 going down in flames" did not come from the Pan American pilot that night. It came instead from the copilot of a National Air Lines DC8 flying in a holding pattern only 1,000 feet above flight 214.

The CAB learned this only after the copilot himself informed investigators. What else he told interrogators was not revealed.

While investigators at the scene of the crash that killed all 81 aboard examined and identified wreckage, experts at the CAB's headquarters here used microscopes and tweezers to reconstruct the damaged flight recorder tape.

The CAB hopes to gain from the foil a record of the jet's speed, altitude, airspeed, heading and the stresses it encountered just before it fell in flames. The 28-minute flight from takeoff to tragedy is scrawled over about five inches of foil slightly more than two inches wide.

The foil was not only crushed but some of it was torn so badly that putting it together was like trying to assemble a jigsaw puzzle made out of confetti. O. E. Patton, the CAB's top flight recorder expert, said it was "the worst we've ever handled" but added:

"I think we're going to get some data out of it."

Patton headed a five - man team assigned to the task of deciphering the recorder tape. The others included a second CAB expert plus representatives from the Federal Aviation Agency, Air Line Pilots Assn and the manufacturer of the recorder.

The job of piecing together the foil, Patton said, will consume at least the rest of the week. The graph lines depicting the flight and mid-air disintegration, which to the human eye resemble fingernail scratches on a chunk of kitchen foil, then will be magnified by photography about 25 times for easier reading.

The shell containing the foil originally was a perfect sphere about the size of a basketball. It was so badly crushed by impact that when the CAB split it open to get at the foil, the two halves looked like battered oyster shells.

Patton said the CAB is renewing previous recommendations that the FAA require stronger protecting casings and moving recorders in the tail instead of their present location — in the left main wheel well.

There were these other developments in the investigation:

There were persistent reports, on which the CAB had a terse "no comment," that investigators at the crash have uncovered some evidence of a lightning strike.

There also was an unconfirmed report that the National plane flying above flight 214 was hit by lightning about the same time but suffered no damage.

Monorail Called Long Way Off

DENVER, Colo. (UPI) — Denver University traffic engineers say monorail or other types of rapid transit will not become a reality in Denver until the cost of driving becomes prohibitive.

The engineers said the public refuses to leave cars at home and use mass transit. The Denver Tramway Corp. carries only about one-third as many passengers as it did in World War II.

Dad may borrow from $25 to $3,000 upon approval of credit and the first payment is not due for six weeks. Take up to two years to pay and no co-signers are necessary. K. C. Jones Steps Out Of Shadow Into Cage Spotlight On His Own

Jack Hanley

Boston's Celtics are making a runaway of the NBA's Eastern Division race this season. And they are doing it without Bob Cousy who retired last spring after another monotonous Celtic championship.

There were pessimists who predicted dark days for the Celtics when they lost their great playmaker. But anyone who ever saw K. C. Jones, Cousy's understudy, in action knew the pessimists were wrong.

Jones was the playmaker of the championship teams at USF a decade ago but he always was in the shadow of Bill Russell. When he joined the Celtics with Russell, it was moving from one shadow to another, this time Cousy's.

However, Jones knew his chance at the No. 1 spot ultimately would come and he dutifully and faithfully served his apprenticeship. Now, finally he is Boston's playmaker. He isn't going to make Boston fans forget Cousy but he is going to do a topnotch job.

EVEN THE great Russell, accustomed to the main spotlight at USF, found himself in Cousy's shadow when he turned pro. At a testimonial dinner last spring for Cousy, Russell told how this felt.

"You meet a Cousy not once in a month but once in a lifetime," Russell said. "I'm an egotist; egotism helps as much as pride. I'm not just a good ball player—I'm a great one. There is such a thing as professional jealousy. A fellow reads about Cousy, sees his picture often, but I can honestly say that I never resented Cousy.

"COUSY HAS been a great player; everyone agrees on that. But he was even greater as a man. If Bob were even a wee bit less of a man off the court, I would have lost all respect for him. But he never took advantage of his position on the team or his place in the game.

"We all saw each other and played together as brothers—not as teammates. Bob has set the style for this team. He was our leader. Cousy, just by being himself, has given me so much. I have felt highly honored and privileged to have played second fiddle to the likes of this guy."

Quite a tribute.

Cal Expected To Pick New Coach Soon

BERKELEY (UPI) — The University of California was in the market for a new football coach today after the surprising resignation of Marv Levy.

Levy last night quit his job "in the best interests of the university." In doing so, he gave up a year of his two-year contract.

Director of Athletics Pete Newell called it "a very regrettable decision. The suddenness of this move leaves us all a little off balance." Nevertheless, the selection of a new coach was expected shortly.

Levy, 38, came to the University of California in 1960 from the University of New Mexico, where his teams had compiled a record of 14 wins and 6 losses.

In the four years under Levy, California annually played one of the nation's most ambitious schedules and wound up with an 8-29-3 mark.

But the 1963 edition of the Bears showed possibilities with a 4-5-1 record.

California entered its last game against arch-rival Stanford with a 4-4-1 record and a chance to finish with a winning season. The Bears grabbed a 17-9 lead, then lost it as Stanford roared back to a 28-17 victory.

Levy was shaken by the loss and just said "I can't understand it" when asked why his gridders had let down.

His resignation statement said, "I have decided that it would be in the best interests of the University and all parties concerned to resign . . . my reasons for doing so are personal in nature. It has been a wonderful experience . . . I wish every success to the team."

Newell commented that "Marv has put forth a tremendous amount of effort for the university and we regret that this has come to pass."

Levy was born in Chicago and was a star athlete at South Shore High School. He served in the Air Force for four years and then enrolled in Coe College at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where he excelled both on and off the playing field.

He won eight letters in football, track and basketball, was student body president, and earned Phi Beta Kappa honors.

Jensen May Try Comeback

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Jackie Jensen, the man who quit baseball two years ago because he didn't want to fly, now wants to get back into the game.

The powerful outfielder, nearing the 37-year mark, says he would return to the game if he could catch on with the San Francisco Giants, Los Angeles Dodgers or Angels.

"I'd like to go to spring training with a West Coast team," says Jensen. "I've already talked to the Boston Red Sox and I think there will be no trouble about getting a release."

Jensen said he had conquered his fear of flight and now uses planes to travel around California and Nevada.

The one-time University of California football star was voted the American League player of the year in 1958 when he drove in 121 runs, smashed 35 homers and batted .281.

He retired at the end of the 1959 campaign, played again in 1961, then sat out the 1962-63 seasons.

Jensen currently is employed in the public relations department of Harrah's gambling casinos in Reno and Lake Tahoe, Nev.

He is in tip-top condition, weighing 187 against his usual playing weight of 192.

Big Week Of Fishing For Matthews Clan

It was a big time for fishing for the Matthews family of Novato in the first week of the Schenley Sportsmen's Club striped bass contest, it was reported today.

While fishing in Tomales Bay, Walter Matthews caught a 24-pounder and a 22-pound, 8-ounce bass, brother George caught a 36-pound, 8 - ounce whopper, and Walter's son, Walter Matthews Jr., pulled out a 29 - pound beauty. All catches were in the first week's report, the period ending last Sunday.

Seals Getting Worse Each Game, Lose Again

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Coach Bud Poile has three days to figure out how to bolster his skidding San Francisco Seals, who have lost nine of their last 11 outings and look worse each game.

The Seals were fed to the league-leading Denver Invaders last night at Denver and lost, 5-1. On Tuesday, it was 8-2 at Denver, and the Seals lost to Los Angeles, 4-2, on Sunday.

That gives them three losses this week by a combined 5-17 margin.

The Seals held Denver last night for 14 minutes, but then Lou Jankowski of the Invaders hit two goals in five minutes. The Colorado team hit two more goals before Ed Panagabko tallied after 13:26 of the second stanza.

Cold weather again held the crowd down, and 1,578 fans watched the slaughter.

San Francisco, still in a tie for fourth but now 10 full points back of league-leading Denver, hosts Vancouver Saturday.

Packers' Unique Situation: Must Beat 49ers, Then Wait

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "We have got to win. This is a must game."

Green Bay Coach Vince Lombardi stressed that point today in discussing the Packers' game Saturday with the last-place San Francisco 49ers.

Lombardi and the Packers are in a unique position. First they must beat the 49ers and then they must wait 22 hours or so to see if they win the National Football League's Western Conference title.

The Packers will start the nationally televised Saturday contest at Kezar Stadium with a 10-2-1 record compared with 10-1-2 for the division leading Chicago Bears, who play Detroit Sunday.

A Green Bay victory coupled with a Chicago defeat would mean a fourth consecutive division title for the Packers. A Green Bay tie combined with a Chicago loss would force a play-off.

A Green Bay loss or a Chicago victory would give the title to the Bears.

"There is just no taking the 49ers lightly," said Lombardi. "And there is no indication any of our players do."

The 49ers, in their worst NFL season, have a 2-11 record but strangely enough one of the triumphs was a 20-14 decision over Chicago at Kezar—the only defeat suffered by the Bears this year.

Lombardi said quarterback Bart Starr has returned to his peak only this week. He missed four games with a broken bone in his passing hand and saw action on Nov. 25 when Green Bay beat the 49ers 28-10.

Starr hit on 14 of 26 passes as the Packers rallied for 21 points in the second half last week to beat Los Angeles 31-14. In practice this week, Starr has shown continual improvement.

"He's been getting better each day," said Lombardi.

Halfback Tom Moore also was reported in top shape again and ready for full service.

Two Marin Grid Stars Will Be Honored Tonight

Rich Ahern of San Rafael High School and Roy Otis of Novato High will be among 20 Bay Area football players honored tonight at the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame banquet in San Francisco.

The student-athletes were chosen to represent Marin on the basis of their scholastic honors as well as football ability. Ahearn was the lineman picked and Otis was the selected back. Rich was a tackle on the co-champion Bulldogs' team and Roy was quarterback for the Hornets.

One lineman and one back were selected from nine other Bay Area counties, making a total of 20 scholar-athletes. The banquet, open to the public, will start at 7 o'clock and will be held in the Peacock Court of the Mark Hopkins Hotel.

UOP's Shackelford Signs With Denver

STOCKTON (UPI) — The Denver Broncos yesterday signed Don Shackelford, 245-pound University of Pacific lineman, away from the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League.

Shackelford was the sixth round draft choice of the American Football League Broncos and the fourth round pick of the Browns.

Phillies Top Nat'l League On Defense

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies, with outfielder Don Demeter tying a major league record, captured individual fielding honors in the National League last season, the final averages revealed today.

Demeter handled 172 outfield chances perfectly in 119 games.

Second baseman Tony Taylor and pitcher Chris Short of Philadelphia also led at their respective positions. Taylor finished with a .986 mark while Short accepted 61 chances, the most among the 37 pitchers who fielded 1.000.

Milwaukee led the league in club fielding. The Braves fielded a collective .980 in 1963.

Tentative Site Picked For Outdoor School

A committee trying to establish a school for outdoor education in Marin County has been spinning its wheels for lack of agreement on objectives for the past three months, members agreed yesterday.

The group then unanimously agreed the aim would be to produce a school away from regular schools, where sixth graders could, for one week of the year, be given intensive education about nature in the field.

The site tentatively picked is Enchanted Hills Camp, used in the summer for blind children.

The next big problem, according to Charles Nagel, head of health, physical education, recreation and safety in the county schools office, will be gaining support of school districts.

He called for speed because work has begun on budgeting.

William Lovvorn, principal of Marin Terrace and Old Mill Schools in Mill Valley, said superintendents of several districts should be buttonholed to gain their support for a countywide effort.

Man's Body Found On West Marin Beach

A man's body was sighted today on a Point Reyes Peninsula beach by a West Marin rancher.

James Kehoe reported he saw the body from a cliff. Its identity was not known as of noon today. Kehoe also said he found an abandoned car on his ranch, west of the road to McClure's Beach.

BOSS TAKES ALL EMPLOYEES ON YULE SAIL

SOUTHAMPTON, England (AP)—Arthur Allwright, electronics manufacturer, sailed down the English Channel today in search of the sun on a nine-day Mediterranean cruise.

With him aboard the liner Strathden went all 42 of his employees, ranging from Jim Bailey, 78, to office girl Erica Copeland, 16. The boss picks up the check.

"This," said Allwright, "is their Christmas bonus — my way of saying thanks for 13 years of profit making.

"We've never had a strike. We work as one big family. They've been wonderful."

The trip will cost $5,600, none of it deductible.

Pistol Aboard Jet Liner Brings Fine Of $500

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —Robert Lee Woodard, 40, was fined $500 today for displaying a derringer pistol aboard a jet airliner in flight.

U. S. Dist. Judge Oliver J. Carter noted that Woodard, a Santa Clara meatcutter, had merely shown the weapon, a souvenir, as a curiosty and did not employ it in a threatening manner.

However, the judge said taking firearms aboard an airplane is "a serious offense." It violated a 1961 law passed to prevent airliner hi-jackings.

Woodard was arrested Nov. 5 when his plane from Dallas landed at San Francisco International Airport and was met by numerous deputy sheriffs and FBI agents. They were summoned as a result of a radio message from the pilot.

Cambodia Pulls Back Envoy In Row With U.S.

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP)—Prince Noredom Sihanouk, Cambodian chief of state, said today Cambodia has recalled its ambassador to Washington following a protest registered by the U.S. government.

The protest concerned a reported communique of the Cambodian government which the United States charged expressed satisfaction at the death of President John F. Kennedy, along with the deaths of South Viet Nam President Ngo Dinh Diem and Thailand Premier Sarit Thanarat. The Cambodian government denied any reference had been made to Kennedy.

The State Department in Washington declined immediate comment on the situation. It was known, however, that a broadcast of the government statement in question produced shock when U.S. monitors first heard it. An immediate inquiry was launched.

Sihanouk said in a speech in the province of Takeo that his ambassador was being recalled following what he termed the protests and threats U.S. Ambassador Philip Sprouse made to the Cambodian government.

10.5 Million Dollars Local Taxes So Far

Another $1,132,737 in property tax payments were processed yesterday, County Treasurer-Tax Collector Stanley Fontez reported today, bringing the total handled so far to about 10.5 million dollars.

The total first installment collection, which was due Tuesday, is about 16 million, Fontez said, but he expected it would take about 10 days to total all payments received.

Controller Asks Loan For State

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Just like thousands of individuals, this state is hard pressed to meet its bills during the Christmas season.

State Controller Alan Cranston said today he may need to borrow up to 125 million dollars in December and January for the general fund, the state's checking account.

Cranston, in a letter to Gov. Edmund G. Brown, proposed borrowing 50 million dollars from the Architecture Revolving Fund Dec. 19, and 15 million dollars from the School Land Fund, 10 million dollars from the Motor Vehicle Fund and 5 million dollars from the Motor Vehicle Fuel Fund on Dec. 24.

Loan Aide Drops Innocent Plea

SACRAMENTO (AP) —Robert Joseph, former president of West Coast Savings and Loan Association, today changed his plea on charges of making illegal loans from innocent to nolo contendere.

The new plea means he will not contest charges that he made a false report on a loan, and made unauthorized loans totaling $373,600.

Superior Court Judge Raymond T. Coughlin set Jan. 16 for sentencing.

Both offenses Joseph is accused of are prohibited by state financial laws.

The FISHIN' FOOL

Steelhead Fishing Is Slow, But A Run Of Stripers Makes Up For It

STEVENS

To forestall a flock of telephone calls, let's begin today's report by sadly announcing that steelhead fishing in the coast streams is very slow. Most of the stream mouths are open and we did have a bit of rain which ordinarily would activate the ingress of the steelies, but it's still a bit early for them to clamor for admittance to the inland waters.

I talked with Clare Titus of Point Arena, who, with hubby Ernie, make up a pair of extremely avid steelhead anglers. Clare told me Garcia, Gualala and and Navarro are clear enough for fishing, but that outside of an occasional silver or steelhead being caught, there has been nothing doing. She did say, however, that rumor has it that the Fort Bragg streams in general and the Noya in particular have been somewhat productive.

ALL INDICATIONS in my estimation are that we are probably due for the winter run of steelhead in our coast streams, both north and south of the Gate, but it will take a fairly hard rain to entice the fish who presumably are hovering outside the streams in the ocean to start their annual spawning runs. So, watch for said rains and then wait from three to five days after it stops before leaving home and hearth.

Nothing to prevent you from participating is some of the very fine striper fishing hither and yon. All reports indicate a maximum return for the effort—On both side s of the San Pablo Bay and upstream to the mouth of San Antonio Slough, the Napa River and the Carquinez Bridge.

TO BE MORE specific, Joe Nerviani, of Joe's Launching at Santa Venetia, and Alice Quan of China Camp reported beaucoup nice bass brought in over the weekend. Fish ran to as heavy as 25 pounds, mostly taken on sardines on the Shell Banks and off the S. P. Buoy. Average size was probably 10 pounds but with very few much smaller ones coming in. Joe Nerviani reported three boats only from his place on Monday, but 18 nice bass were unloaded. Joe also admitted that the larger fish fell to bullheads as bait.

Suetta Lagrone of Dillon's Point reported a good run of fine fat flounders and some stripers. Suetta talked quite sprightly after her recent trips to two different hospitals. Claims she is now okay.

Evelyn Bird of the Napa Val spot reported fair to good bass fishing near the second bridge and the Towers, but very few ducks being brought in.

DOWRELIO'S of Crockett reported good to excellent fishing, and Frank Joseph of Rodeo told me his skiffs were doing a good job of fish taking, particularly by those who worked the area in the early hours of the day.

I just learned that another oldtimer, Otto Walker, suffered a stroke recently. He is in the Vet's Hospital at Martinez, I believe. Here's a sincere hope Otto licks his trouble.

Nomellini, Perry To Finish Pro Grid Careers Saturday

REDWOOD CITY (UPI)—Veteran halfback Joe Perry will join tackle Leo Nomellini in the starting lineup Saturday when the San Francisco 49ers close out their 1963 season against Green Bay.

It will be the final National Football League game for both of the great veterans, who have announced plans to quit after this year.

Perry's career both began and ended with the 49ers and spanned 16 seasons. Nomellini stayed with the 49ers during his entire 14-year career and will appear in his 174th consecutive NFL game, a record.

Coach Jack Christiansen named his starting lineup for the Packer battle yesterday. Bill Cooper was chosen to fill in at right linebacker for the injured Matt Hazeltine.

Should the 49ers score three touchdowns in the Kezar Stadium clash against Green Bay, kicker Tommy Davis will have a chance to break the National Football League record of 156 consecutive points after touchdown. George Blanda of the Chicago Bears set the mark and Davis has clicked on 154 in a row.

White, a first-stringer, is 87 pounds lighter than Orange Coast's Barrie Montgomery, who has no chance of getting into Saturday's game. Montgomery, 221, is the water boy.

K. C. Jones Steps Out Of Shadow Into Cage Spotlight On His Own

Jack Hanley

Boston's Celtics are making a runaway of the NBA's Eastern Division race this season. And they are doing it without Bob Cousy who retired last spring after another monotonous Celtic championship.

There were pessimists who predicted dark days for the Celtics when they lost their great playmaker. But anyone who ever saw K. C. Jones, Cousy's understudy, in action knew the pessimists were wrong.

Jones was the playmaker of the championship teams at USF a decade ago but he always was in the shadow of Bill Russell. When he joined the Celtics with Russell, it was moving from one shadow to another, this time Cousy's.

However, Jones knew his chance at the No. 1 spot ultimately would come and he dutifully and faithfully served his apprenticeship. Now, finally he is Boston's playmaker. He isn't going to make Boston fans forget Cousy but he is going to do a topnotch job.

EVEN THE great Russell, accustomed to the main spotlight at USF, found himself in Cousy's shadow when he turned pro. At a testimonial dinner last spring for Cousy, Russell told how this felt.

"You meet a Cousy not once in a month but once in a lifetime," Russell said. "I'm an egotist; egotism helps as much as pride. I'm not just a good ball player—I'm a great one. There is such a thing as professional jealousy. A fellow reads about Cousy, sees his picture often, but I can honestly say that I never resented Cousy.

"COUSY HAS been a great player; everyone agrees on that. But he was even greater as a man. If Bob were even a wee bit less of a man off the court, I would have lost all respect for him. But he never took advantage of his position on the team or his place in the game.

"We all saw each other and played together as brothers—not as teammates. Bob has set the style for this team. He was our leader. Cousy, just by being himself, has given me so much. I have felt highly honored and privileged to have played second fiddle to the likes of this guy."

Quite a tribute.

Cal Expected To Pick New Coach Soon

BERKELEY (UPI) — The University of California was in the market for a new football coach today after the surprising resignation of Marv Levy.

Levy last night quit his job "in the best interests of the university." In doing so, he gave up a year of his two-year contract.

Director of Athletics Pete Newell called it "a very regrettable decision. The suddenness of this move leaves us all a little off balance." Nevertheless, the selection of a new coach was expected shortly.

Levy, 38, came to the University of California in 1960 from the University of New Mexico, where his teams had compiled a record of 14 wins and 6 losses.

In the four years under Levy, California annually played one of the nation's most ambitious schedules and wound up with an 8-29-3 mark.

But the 1963 edition of the Bears showed possibilities with a 4-5-1 record.

California entered its last game against arch-rival Stanford with a 4-4-1 record and a chance to finish with a winning season. The Bears grabbed a 17-9 lead, then lost it as Stanford roared back to a 28-17 victory.

Levy was shaken by the loss and just said "I can't understand it" when asked why his gridders had let down.

His resignation statement said, "I have decided that it would be in the best interests of the University and all parties concerned to resign . . . my reasons for doing so are personal in nature. It has been a wonderful experience . . . I wish every success to the team."

Newell commented that "Marv has put forth a tremendous amount of effort for the university and we regret that this has come to pass."

Levy was born in Chicago and was a star athlete at South Shore High School. He served in the Air Force for four years and then enrolled in Coe College at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where he excelled both on and off the playing field.

He won eight letters in football, track and basketball, was student body president, and earned Phi Beta Kappa honors.

Jensen May Try Comeback

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Jackie Jensen, the man who quit baseball two years ago because he didn't want to fly, now wants to get back into the game.

The powerful outfielder, nearing the 37-year mark, says he would return to the game if he could catch on with the San Francisco Giants, Los Angeles Dodgers or Angels.

"I'd like to go to spring training with a West Coast team," says Jensen. "I've already talked to the Boston Red Sox and I think there will be no trouble about getting a release."

Jensen said he had conquered his fear of flight and now uses planes to travel around California and Nevada.

The one-time University of California football star was voted the American League player of the year in 1958 when he drove in 121 runs, smashed 35 homers and batted .281.

He retired at the end of the 1959 campaign, played again in 1961, then sat out the 1962-63 seasons.

Jensen currently is employed in the public relations department of Harrah's gambling casinos in Reno and Lake Tahoe, Nev.

He is in tip-top condition, weighing 187 against his usual playing weight of 192.

Big Week Of Fishing For Matthews Clan

It was a big time for fishing for the Matthews family of Novato in the first week of the Schenley Sportsmen's Club striped bass contest, it was reported today.

While fishing in Tomales Bay, Walter Matthews caught a 24-pounder and a 22-pound, 8-ounce bass, brother George caught a 36-pound, 8 - ounce whopper, and Walter's son, Walter Matthews Jr., pulled out a 29 - pound beauty. All catches were in the first week's report, the period ending last Sunday.

Seals Getting Worse Each Game, Lose Again

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Coach Bud Poile has three days to figure out how to bolster his skidding San Francisco Seals, who have lost nine of their last 11 outings and look worse each game.

The Seals were fed to the league-leading Denver Invaders last night at Denver and lost, 5-1. On Tuesday, it was 8-2 at Denver, and the Seals lost to Los Angeles, 4-2, on Sunday.

That gives them three losses this week by a combined 5-17 margin.

The Seals held Denver last night for 14 minutes, but then Lou Jankowski of the Invaders hit two goals in five minutes. The Colorado team hit two more goals before Ed Panagabko tallied after 13:26 of the second stanza.

Cold weather again held the crowd down, and 1,578 fans watched the slaughter.

San Francisco, still in a tie for fourth but now 10 full points back of league-leading Denver, hosts Vancouver Saturday.

Packers' Unique Situation: Must Beat 49ers, Then Wait

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "We have got to win. This is a must game."

Green Bay Coach Vince Lombardi stressed that point today in discussing the Packers' game Saturday with the last-place San Francisco 49ers.

Lombardi and the Packers are in a unique position. First they must beat the 49ers and then they must wait 22 hours or so to see if they win the National Football League's Western Conference title.

The Packers will start the nationally televised Saturday contest at Kezar Stadium with a 10-2-1 record compared with 10-1-2 for the division leading Chicago Bears, who play Detroit Sunday.

A Green Bay victory coupled with a Chicago defeat would mean a fourth consecutive division title for the Packers. A Green Bay tie combined with a Chicago loss would force a play-off.

A Green Bay loss or a Chicago victory would give the title to the Bears.

"There is just no taking the 49ers lightly," said Lombardi. "And there is no indication any of our players do."

The 49ers, in their worst NFL season, have a 2-11 record but strangely enough one of the triumphs was a 20-14 decision over Chicago at Kezar—the only defeat suffered by the Bears this year.

Lombardi said quarterback Bart Starr has returned to his peak only this week. He missed four games with a broken bone in his passing hand and saw action on Nov. 25 when Green Bay beat the 49ers 28-10.

Starr hit on 14 of 26 passes as the Packers rallied for 21 points in the second half last week to beat Los Angeles 31-14. In practice this week, Starr has shown continual improvement.

"He's been getting better each day," said Lombardi.

Halfback Tom Moore also was reported in top shape again and ready for full service.

Two Marin Grid Stars Will Be Honored Tonight

Rich Ahern of San Rafael High School and Roy Otis of Novato High will be among 20 Bay Area football players honored tonight at the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame banquet in San Francisco.

The student-athletes were chosen to represent Marin on the basis of their scholastic honors as well as football ability. Ahearn was the lineman picked and Otis was the selected back. Rich was a tackle on the co-champion Bulldogs' team and Roy was quarterback for the Hornets.

One lineman and one back were selected from nine other Bay Area counties, making a total of 20 scholar-athletes. The banquet, open to the public, will start at 7 o'clock and will be held in the Peacock Court of the Mark Hopkins Hotel.

UOP's Shackelford Signs With Denver

STOCKTON (UPI) — The Denver Broncos yesterday signed Don Shackelford, 245-pound University of Pacific lineman, away from the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League.

Shackelford was the sixth round draft choice of the American Football League Broncos and the fourth round pick of the Browns.

Boat From Santa Nice Christmas Gift; Tomales Great For Boater

'Twas the night before Christmas, and all through the house, not a creature was stirring—except, of course, Mr. Tittlejot—and he was trying hard not to. On tiptoes he quietly moved the decorated Christmas tree, numerous toys and wrapped gfits from the living room into one end of his big double garage. All this he set up again, right in front of the brand new 14-foot boat and motor, perched on a trailer. The whole deal was gift-wrapped in yards of sparkling cellophane and topped with a huge red bow. The billboard-size tag read, "To the Tittlejots." It was signed: Santa Claus.

HE STOOD for a moment regarding its splendor, and then lamented out loud, "Heaven help you in the morning, Tittlejot. You've scuttled the family budget. And why didn't you consult with your wife and kids?"

At 6:30 a.m. the children ran down the stairs and into the living room where Tittlejot sat on the sofa. His eyes were propped open with toothpicks. He nursed his black-and-blue conscience with a fifth cup of coffee.

The smallest Tittlejot scurried about looking astonished, then queried of his un-Christmasy father, "Where is it?"

"In the garage. I'll bring it right in—" said Tittlejot, assuming the boy meant the missing Christmas tree.

"NOT THE tree, daddy. I want to see our BOAT that Santa brought us," insisted the small-fry. Tittlejot was considerably jolted, to say the least.

Then Mrs. Tittlejot walked in briskly. "Santa put our boat in the garage, children. Let's take a look." Back over her shoulder, she said to her husband, "Thank you so much dear . . . although I do hope he bought one big enough. The children are growing you know."

Tittlejot managed to get his slack jaw off his chest. Looking at his empty coffee cup he sighed. Perhaps he should make the next cup with a bit of Irish.

ONCE AGAIN we mention the Tomales Bay area for the boater. Often—and especially this time of year—the landscape and water are seen with the special magic of new vision. Everything is startling brilliant. Nothing is fuzz-edged. The water is intensely blue, and the air strong with salt and undefined things of the sea.

The Miller County Park is right next to Nick's Cove Restaurant. Here the boater-camper will find park rest rooms, some camping facilities, also an excellent launching ramp.

A FEW miles south of this area, still on Highway 1, is the Marshall Boat Works. Because it is on deep water, a hoist is used to put your boat in and take it out. Inboard, outboard and general boat repairs are handled. If you want a mooring rental, they are usually available.

The other side of Tomales Bay can be reached by driving west from Point Reyes to Inverness where there are private boating facilities. Continuing on you will reach Tomales Bay State Park, which is open all year, according to the "Sunset Book of State Parks of California." This park is one of the most beautiful in the state. Dark, interlocking bishop pine trees are on the cliffs above the bay.

This shoreline offers many sandy beaches for the boater who wants to picnic. Among the popular ones are Hearts Desire, Indian and Shell Beaches. Others are on rancher property. These owners have been remarkably tolerant, and will probably remain that way for some time, if campers will respect the privilege enough to leave the area clean and sanitary.

HARD SEA winds seldom reach these gently sloping sandy areas. Picnic tables and barbecues are found on some; on others, the boater must improvise. But most of them must be approached from the water. Never forget, too, that there is a rise and fall of the tides; so take note of the high water line, and put your equipment ahead of it.

Almost all year smelt, halibut, clams, and crab (in season) are there in good quantity. Any day now, the herring will run. It's quite a sight to see the commercial fishermen combing the breakers with nets, beneath a canopy of screaming seabirds. For this is also a place of the waterfowl. Sandpipers make dainty feet-doodles in the sand, and in the mud tidelands. Grebes, loons and cormorants fly just off-shore, diving repeatedly for fish.

If you're a bird watcher, bring field glasses. You'll never have it so good.

Five Marin Bowlers In Cal Finals

Lu Sharp of Mill Valley will lead a field of five Marin County keglerettes to the State Bowlers Victory Legion finals in Santa Rosa next March as the result of Marin BVL competition which concluded Sunday at Greenbrae Lanes.

Lu won Class A championship on the local level Sunday with a four-game series of 793 pins.

Other winners in the Marin playoffs were Barbara Molseed of Kentfield, Class B, with a 754 total; Vivian Zembrod of Hamilton Air Force Base, Class C, 701; Betty Listman, Novato, Class D, 704; and Caroline Miller, Mill Valley, Class E, 588.

All five Marinites will compete in the State finals in Santa Rosa on March 14 to compete with other sectional winners.

In the Marin playoffs there were 14 entries in Class A competition, 55 in Class B, 153 in Class C, 184 in Class D and 94 in Class E.

The local BVL tournament netted $687 for hospitalized veterans.

Harold Keaton of Novato donated trophies to the local class winners and was on hand to present them Sunday.

WINNER—Lu Sharp, Class A winner of the Bowlers Victory Legion competition in Marin.

Raiders Are Favored By 13 Points

OAKLAND (UPI) — Coach Al Davis, trying to get his Oakland Raider team up for Sunday's battle here against Denver, is unhappy that his team has been named 13-point favorites over the Broncos.

"That's ridiculous," was his comment.

Davis said that end Art Powell, whose ability to get the long pass is a key part of the Raider attack, is hurting. He suffered a hamstrung leg and is not expected to be at full speed.

"I honestly think we should be favored, but not by two touchdowns," he commented. "We are under extreme pressure. It isn't reasonable to expect us to play back to that 31-point fourth quarter. I'll settle for any kind of a win."

Davis referred to the heroic Raider win over the Chargers Sunday that moved Oakland to within one game of San Diego with two contests to go for both teams.

Packers Sign Center, Captain Of Wisconsin

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—University of Wisconsin co-captain and center Ken Bowman said he had signed a contract yesterday with the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League.

Country Club Keglers Blister Pins

It was a blistering week at Country Club Bowl this past seven-days with some of the highest scores of the year recorded in league competition.

Topping the list was Tom Gould with a 710 (wow!) series in the Koch Fiberglas League. The 166 average bowler started off his three-game series with a 245 game, then added a second line of 208. In the third game he started with a strike, then rolled a spare, a split, and then put out nine straight strikes for a 257 game.

His last game stood up for the high individual game of the week. The 710 performance was good for a night's average of 237.

In the 900 Classic, Ed Henry and Rich Curry each had a 638 series for runner-up honors. Mike Marelli was runner-up in game scores with a 255 in the San Rafael Elks League.

Elinor Davis of the 600 Scratch League had high series for the gals with a 587, topped by a 210 game. Vivian Gray, rolling in the Morning Glories League, headed the individual game action with a 245. Her series for the night was 567.

In the junion leagues, Ralph Garner recorded a 629 series headed by a 232 game. Rick and Ed Posusney represented their family well with 621 and 610 series respectively. Ed Posusney's 244 game was the high individual game for the youngsters.

Camellia Bowl Teams Start Their Practice

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The two Camellia Bowl participants, Prairie View A and M of Texas and St. Johns University of Minnesota, arrived Tuesday and began drills for their NAIA championship football game Saturday.

Both squads immediately headed for the practice field, Prairie View to American River Junior College and St. Johns to Sacramento City College.

Prairie View apparently had the only injuries of the two teams. Fullback Mack Green and tackle Carl Robinson both suffered from previous ankle ailments. However, coach Bill Nick said he hoped the two, and quarterback Jim Kearney, who had a broken hand, would be in shape to play in Hughes Stadium Saturday.

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS
I-J Fish and Game Writer

STEVENS

To forestall a flock of telephone calls, let's begin today's report by sadly announcing that steelhead fishing in the coast streams is very slow. Most of the stream mouths are open and we did have a bit of rain which ordinarily would activate the ingress of the steelies, but it's still a bit early for them to clamor for admittance to the inland waters.

I talked with Clare Titus of Point Arena, who, with hubby Ernie, make up a pair of extremely avid steelhead anglers. Clare told me Garcia, Gualala and and Navarro are clear enough for fishing, but that outside of an occasional silver or steelhead being caught, there has been nothing doing. She did say, however, that rumor has it that the Fort Bragg streams in general and the Noya in particular have been somewhat productive.

ALL INDICATIONS in my estimation are that we are probably due for the winter run of steelhead in our coast streams, both north and south of the Gate, but it will take a fairly hard rain to entice the fish who presumably are hovering outside the streams in the ocean to start their annual spawning runs. So, watch for said rains and then wait from three to five days after it stops before leaving home and hearth.

Nothing to prevent you from participating is some of the very fine striper fishing hither and yon. All reports indicate a maximum return for the effort—On both side s of the San Pablo Bay and upstream to the mouth of San Antonio Slough, the Napa River and the Carquinez Bridge.

TO BE MORE specific, Joe Nerviani, of Joe's Launching at Santa Venetia, and Alice Quan of China Camp reported beaucoup nice bass brought in over the weekend. Fish ran to as heavy as 25 pounds, mostly taken on sardines on the Shell Banks and off the S. P. Buoy. Average size was probably 10 pounds but with very few much smaller ones coming in. Joe Nerviani reported three boats only from his place on Monday, but 18 nice bass were unloaded. Joe also admitted that the larger fish fell to bullheads as bait.

Suetta Lagrone of Dillon's Point reported a good run of fine fat flounders and some stripers. Suetta talked quite sprightly after her recent trips to two different hospitals. Claims she is now okay.

Evelyn Bird of the Napa Val spot reported fair to good bass fishing near the second bridge and the Towers, but very few ducks being brought in.

DOWRELIO'S of Crockett reported good to excellent fishing, and Frank Joseph of Rodeo told me his skiffs were doing a good job of fish taking, particularly by those who worked the area in the early hours of the day.

I just learned that another oldtimer, Otto Walker, suffered a stroke recently. He is in the Vet's Hospital at Martinez, I believe. Here's a sincere hope Otto licks his trouble.

Nomellini, Perry To Finish Pro Grid Careers Saturday

REDWOOD CITY (UPI)—Veteran halfback Joe Perry will join tackle Leo Nomellini in the starting lineup Saturday when the San Francisco 49ers close out their 1963 season against Green Bay.

It will be the final National Football League game for both of the great veterans, who have announced plans to quit after this year.

Perry's career both began and ended with the 49ers and spanned 16 seasons. Nomellini stayed with the 49ers during his entire 14-year career and will appear in his 174th consecutive NFL game, a record.

Coach Jack Christiansen named his starting lineup for the Packer battle yesterday. Bill Cooper was chosen to fill in at right linebacker for the injured Matt Hazeltine.

Should the 49ers score three touchdowns in the Kezar Stadium clash against Green Bay, kicker Tommy Davis will have a chance to break the National Football League record of 156 consecutive points after touchdown. George Blanda of the Chicago Bears set the mark and Davis has clicked on 154 in a row.

QUARTERBACK COULD WELL TRADE JOBS

PASADENA (AP) — Orange Coast College of California, which plays Northeastern Oklahoma A&M in the Junior Rose Bowl Saturday, has a 134-pound quarterback named Billy White.

White, a first-stringer, is 87 pounds lighter than Orange Coast's Barrie Montgomery, who has no chance of getting into Saturday's game. Montgomery, 221, is the water boy.

Next In Succession Are Not Stepping Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — A report that the two aging congressional leaders next in the line of presidential succession plan to step down so younger men can take their places drew angry denials yesterday.

When a reporter at a news conference asked Speaker of the House John W. McCormack (D-Mass.) whether he plans to give up his leadership post, he flared up.

"I am amazed you would ask such a question. Is there no limit of decency?" he replied.

McCormack, who will be 72 next week, began to stalk angrily from the room after his reply and suddenly turned and declared: "I was elected speaker and I'm going to remain speaker."

The report that 86-year-old Sen. Carl Hayden (D-Ariz.) plans to relinquish his post as Senate president pro tempore was scotched by Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana as not possessing "a scintilla of truth."

"These reports should be seen as they are—absolutely without any responsible foundation," Mansfield said in a statement.

A columnist had circulated a report, which also was broadcast, that Hayden might step aside to let Mansfield take his place as presiding officer of the Senate, with Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, now assistant Democratic leader, moving up to succeed Mansfield.

The reports, Mansfield said, "in my opinion seek to bring about a discord and disunity within the Democratic party and its leadership in the Senate which does not and will not exist."

When President Lyndon B. Johnson succeeded the slain President John F. Kennedy, leaving the nation without a vice president, this put McCormack as speaker next in the line of succession with Hayden behind him.

As for Hayden, Mansfield said Johnson is "proud of the fact that Senator Hayden is the president pro tempore of the Senate and has given him full and complete confidence."

Hayden has been added by Johnson to those invited to his weekly meetings with Democratic congressional leaders.

"So far as I am concerned —and I am sure I speak for the entire membership," Mansfield said, "the Senate has never elected a more capable and respected president pro tempore. And this body, to its last member, needs no other and wants no other."

Boat From Santa Nice Christmas Gift; Tomales Great For Boater

'Twas the night before Christmas, and all through the house, not a creature was stirring—except, of course, Mr. Tittlejot—and he was trying hard not to. On tiptoes he quietly moved the decorated Christmas tree, numerous toys and wrapped gfits from the living room into one end of his big double garage. All this he set up again, right in front of the brand new 14-foot boat and motor, perched on a trailer. The whole deal was gift-wrapped in yards of sparkling cellophane and topped with a huge red bow. The billboard-size tag read, "To the Tittlejots." It was signed: Santa Claus.

HE STOOD for a moment regarding its splendor, and then lamented out loud, "Heaven help you in the morning, Tittlejot. You've scuttled the family budget. And why didn't you consult with your wife and kids?"

At 6:30 a.m. the children ran down the stairs and into the living room where Tittlejot sat on the sofa. His eyes were propped open with toothpicks. He nursed his black-and-blue conscience with a fifth cup of coffee.

The smallest Tittlejot scurried about looking astonished, then queried of his un-Christmasy father, "Where is it?"

"In the garage. I'll bring it right in—" said Tittlejot, assuming the boy meant the missing Christmas tree.

"NOT THE tree, daddy. I want to see our BOAT that Santa brought us," insisted the small-fry. Tittlejot was considerably jolted, to say the least.

Then Mrs. Tittlejot walked in briskly. "Santa put our boat in the garage, children. Let's take a look." Back over her shoulder, she said to her husband, "Thank you so much dear . . . although I do hope he bought one big enough. The children are growing you know."

Tittlejot managed to get his slack jaw off his chest. Looking at his empty coffee cup he sighed. Perhaps he should make the next cup with a bit of Irish.

ONCE AGAIN we mention the Tomales Bay area for the boater. Often—and especially this time of year—the landscape and water are seen with the special magic of new vision. Everything is startling brilliant. Nothing is fuzz-edged. The water is intensely blue, and the air strong with salt and undefined things of the sea.

The Miller County Park is right next to Nick's Cove Restaurant. Here the boater-camper will find park rest rooms, some camping facilities, also an excellent launching ramp.

A FEW miles south of this area, still on Highway 1, is the Marshall Boat Works. Because it is on deep water, a hoist is used to put your boat in and take it out. Inboard, outboard and general boat repairs are handled. If you want a mooring rental, they are usually available.

The other side of Tomales Bay can be reached by driving west from Point Reyes to Inwerness where there are private boating facilities. Continuing on you will reach Tomales Bay State Park, which is open all year, according to the "Sunset Book of State Parks of California." This park is one of the most beautiful in the state. Dark, interlocking bishop pine trees are on the cliffs above the bay.

This shoreline offers many sandy beaches for the boater who wants to picnic. Among the popular ones are Hearts Desire, Indian and Shell Beaches. Others are on rancher property. These owners have been remarkably tolerant, and will probably remain that way for some time, if campers will respect the privilege enough to leave the area clean and sanitary.

HARD SEA winds seldom reach these gently sloping sandy areas. Picnic tables and barbecues are found on some; on others, the boater must improvise. But most of them must be approached from the water. Never forget, too, that there is a rise and fall of the tides; so take note of the high water line, and put your equipment ahead of it.

Almost all year smelt, halibut, clams, and crab (in season) are there in good quantity. Any day now, the herring will run. It's quite a sight to see the commercial fishermen combing the breakers with nets, beneath a canopy of screaming seabirds. For this is also a place of the waterfowl. Sandpipers make dainty feet-doodles in the sand, and in the mud tidelands. Grebes, loons and cormorants fly just off-shore, diving repeatedly for fish.

If you're a bird watcher, bring field glasses. You'll never have it so good.

Five Marin Bowlers In Cal Finals

Lu Sharp of Mill Valley will lead a field of five Marin County keglerettes to the State Bowlers Victory Legion finals in Santa Rosa next March as the result of Marin BVL competition which concluded Sunday at Greenbrae Lanes.

Lu won Class A championship on the local level Sunday with a four-game series of 793 pins.

All five Marinites will compete in the State finals in Santa Rosa on March 14 to compete with other sectional winners.

In the Marin playoffs there were 14 entries in Class A competition, 55 in Class B, 153 in Class C, 184 in Class D and 94 in Class E.

The local BVL tournament netted $687 for hospitalized veterans.

Harold Keaton of Novato donated trophies to the local class winners and was on hand to present them Sunday.

WINNER—Lu Sharp, Class A winner of the Bowlers Victory Legion competition in Marin.

Raiders Are Favored By 13 Points

OAKLAND (UPI) — Coach Al Davis, trying to get his Oakland Raider team up for Sunday's battle here against Denver, is unhappy that his team has been named 13-point favorites over the Broncos.

"That's ridiculous," was his comment.

Davis said that end Art Powell, whose ability to get the long pass is a key part of the Raider attack, is hurting. He suffered a hamstrung leg and is not expected to be at full speed.

"I honestly think we should be favored, but not by two touchdowns," he commented. "We are under extreme pressure. It isn't reasonable to expect us to play back to that 31-point fourth quarter. I'll settle for any kind of a win."

Davis referred to the heroic Raider win over the Chargers Sunday that moved Oakland to within one game of San Diego with two contests to go for both teams.

Camellia Bowl Teams Start Their Practice

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The two Camellia Bowl participants, Prairie View A and M of Texas and St. Johns University of Minnesota, arrived Tuesday and began drills for their NAIA championship football game Saturday.

Both squads immediately headed for the practice field, Prairie View to American River Junior College and St. Johns to Sacramento City College.

Prairie View apparently had the only injuries of the two teams. Fullback Mack Green and tackle Carl Robinson both suffered from previous ankle ailments. However, coach Bill Nick said he hoped the two, and quarterback Jim Kearney, who had a broken hand, would be in shape to play in Hughes Stadium Saturday.

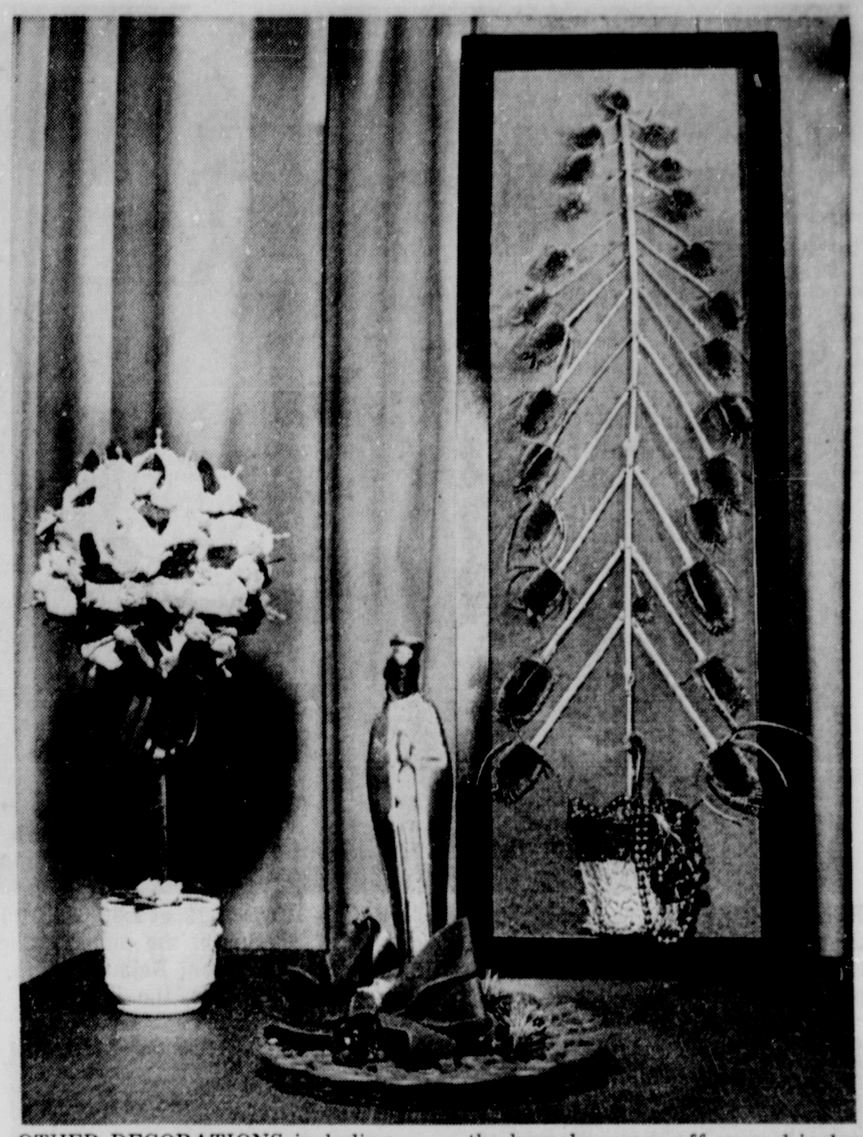
YULETIDE ENCHANTMENT

An elegant green topiary tree resplendent with tiny white lights and gold and silver glittering ornaments was fashioned by Mrs. Edwards from an egg carton. The San Francisco woman is best known for her awards in orchid arrangements.



OTHER DECORATIONS including a gold teasel arrangement mounted on red burlap were included in the demonstration and lecture. Mrs. Edwards disclosed her method of preparing fresh pine—clip the end of the branch, scrape off several inches of bark and place in a container of rubbing alcohol for an hour, Then put in deep cold water for a time. Next In Succession Are Not Stepping Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — A report that the two aging congressional leaders next in the line of presidential succession plan to step down so younger men can take their places drew angry denials yesterday.

When a reporter at a news conference asked Speaker of the House John W. McCormack (D-Mass.) whether he plans to give up his leadership post, he flared up.

"I am amazed you would ask such a question. Is there no limit of decency?" he replied.

McCormack, who will be 72 next week, began to stalk angrily from the room after his reply and suddenly turned and declared: "I was elected speaker and I'm going to remain speaker."

The report that 86-year-old Sen. Carl Hayden (D-Ariz.) plans to relinquish his post as Senate president pro tempore was scotched by Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana as not possessing "a scintilla of truth."

"These reports should be seen as they are—absolutely without any responsible foundation," Mansfield said in a statement.

A columnist had circulated a report, which also was broadcast, that Hayden might step aside to let Mansfield take his place as presiding officer of the Senate, with Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, now assistant Democratic leader, moving up to succeed Mansfield.

The reports, Mansfield said, "in my opinion seek to bring about a discord and disunity within the Democratic party and its leadership in the Senate which does not and will not exist."

When President Lyndon B. Johnson succeeded the slain President John F. Kennedy, leaving the nation without a vice president, this put McCormack as speaker next in the line of succession with Hayden behind him.

As for Hayden, Mansfield said Johnson is "proud of the fact that Senator Hayden is the president pro tempore of the Senate and has given him full and complete confidence."

Hayden has been added by Johnson to those invited to his weekly meetings with Democratic congressional leaders.

"So far as I am concerned —and I am sure I speak for the entire membership," Mansfield said, "the Senate has never elected a more capable and respected president pro tempore. And this body, to its last member, needs no other and wants no other."

Lagunitas School Trustees Re-Affirm Tam Unity Stand

Trustees of the Lagunitas School District by 4-1 vote have re-affirmed their stand in favor of unification of Tamalpais High School District.

Before the start of a series of 11 public hearings on unification before the County Committee of School District Organization, the board passed a resolution favoring the move.

Only dissenter at the Lagunitas board's meeting Tuesday night was Mrs. Georgette Vilas, who does not favor unification with such a large district.

Trustees heard a report from Supt. Clifford L. Frye on the teachers aide program which started this year with 46 volunteers from the community helping out at school.

They do such jobs as supervising study groups while a teacher is giving special instruction to a small group, typing and duplicating work, playing the piano and various other jobs. Trustees ordered that letters be written to each volunteer voicing thanks for the work. Joanne Stanley of Forest Knolls is coordinator of the program.

The board also appointed seven to a professional relations committee. Trustee Leslie Stone, Superintendent Frye, teachers Maxine Cantrell, Marjorie Stommel and Miss Mary Anne Kolanoski, and parents Mrs. Jan Tarr and Mrs. Carol Johnson will serve on the group. It will study salaries, staff assignments, and related subjects.

Next meeting of the board will be at 8 p.m. Tuesday, when trustees will discuss the budget and selection of a second school site. Architects Warren Callister and Martin Rosse have been retained to work on site selection.

Masks On Display

Paper mache masks and ceramic works of African and Southern Indian design, created by Sir Francis Drake High School pupils taught by instructors Joseph Biasotti and James Brown, are on display in the school library and showcase window.

Gallinas Village CSD Looking Into Recreation Field

Steps by the Gallinas Village Community Services district in the field of recreation will be proposed tonight at a meeting of the district board and a special recreation committee.

District directors will also hear opinions of residents on a proposal by the International Investment Co. to rezone a small area along North San Pedro Road for duplexes. The proposal comes before the County Planning Commission Monday.

A report will also be offered on whether residents on Sunny Oaks Drive have been connected to the sewer line of the Las Gallinas Sanitary District, rather than using septic tanks.

San Rafael Student To Engineer Parley

Harris Dean Drake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harris B. Drake of 22 Reservoir Road, San Rafael, has been named as one of 100 students from California to attend the Engineering Preview Conference at San Luis Obispo Polytechnic Institute Dec. 20-21, chairman William Dresia of the San Rafael High School science department announced today.

The boy was chose in competition for the conference sponsored by heating and air conditioning engineers.

Middle East, Europe Slides To Be Shown

Slides taken during a trip through the Middle East and Europe by three Marin Couples will be shown at First Baptist Church in San Anselmo at 7:30 p.m. next Dec. 19, Lester Allison of 306 Butterfield Road announced today.

The slides were taken during a trip by Allison and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Bowman of San Rafael and Maj. (Chaplain) and Mrs. Edward Carson of Terra Linda. Carson is finishing three and one-half years on Army chaplain duty in Germany.

Dinner at 6:30 p.m. in the church will precede the travelog, to be narrated by Allison. He said reservations may be made by phoning the church office.

The couples began the trip after the Allisons and Bowmans left Marin Oct. 9 and met the Carsons at Frankfurt.

Novato Game, Dance Set At High School

The Novato High School basketball team will be out to prove itself in a game with the alumni in the new gymnasium at 7 p.m. Dec. 20.

Following the game there will be a Christmas dance in the old gymnasium from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. All alumni and students are welcome with coat and tie the dress of the evening.

Lagunitas School Trustees Re-Affirm Tam Unity Stand

Trustees of the Lagunitas School District by 4-1 vote have re-affirmed their stand in favor of unification of Tamalpais High School District.

Before the start of a series of 11 public hearings on unification before the County Committee of School District Organization, the board passed a resolution favoring the move.

Only dissenter at the Lagunitas board's meeting Tuesday night was Mrs. Georgette Vilas, who does not favor unification with such a large district.

Trustees heard a report from Supt. Clifford L. Frye on the teachers aide program which started this year with 46 volunteers from the community helping out at school.

They do such jobs as supervising study groups while a teacher is giving special instruction to a small group, typing and duplicating work, playing the piano and various other jobs. Trustees ordered that letters be written to each volunteer voicing thanks for the work. Joanne Stanley of Forest Knolls is coordinator of the program.

The board also appointed seven to a professional relations committee. Trustee Leslie Stone, Superintendent Frye, teachers Maxine Cantrell, Marjorie Stommel and Miss Mary Anne Kolanoski, and parents Mrs. Jan Tarr and Mrs. Carol Johnson will serve on the group. It will study salaries, staff assignments, and related subjects.

Next meeting of the board will be at 8 p.m. Tuesday, when trustees will discuss the budget and selection of a second school site. Architects Warren Callister and Martin Rosse have been retained to work on site selection.

Masks On Display

Paper mache masks and ceramic works of African and Southern Indian design, created by Sir Francis Drake High School pupils taught by instructors Joseph Biasotti and James Brown, are on display in the school library and showcase window.

Gallinas Village CSD Looking Into Recreation Field

Steps by the Gallinas Village Community Services district in the field of recreation will be proposed tonight at a meeting of the district board and a special recreation committee.

District directors will also hear opinions of residents on a proposal by the International Investment Co. to rezone a small area along North San Pedro Road for duplexes. The proposal comes before the County Planning Commission Monday.

A report will also be offered on whether residents on Sunny Oaks Drive have been connected to the sewer line of the Las Gallinas Sanitary District, rather than using septic tanks.

An hour of farm labor today produces more than five times as much food and other crops as it did in the period of 1919-1921.

Last Meeting Tonight On Hub Parking District Plan

Tonight will be the last chance for property owners in downtown San Anselmo to learn details of the proposed parking assessment district.

The last of a series of meetings to explain the district and seek petition signatures will be held at 8 o'clock in the city hall, announced chairman Mozart Kaufman of the city council-appointed parking district committee.

Signatures representing 51 per cent of the property owners and 60 per cent of the assessed valuation are needed for creation of the district, which would purchase lots designated on a district plan to provide off-street parking. Cost of buying and improving the property would be paid by assessments, with bonds issued to permit immediate purchase.

State Options $4.4 Million In Vehicles

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The state took an option on 4.4 million dollars worth of new cars and pickup trucks today from 15 California automobile dealers.

Robert Harkness, director of General Services, said bids on the 1,952 cars ranged from $1,566.38 each for Dodge Darts to $2,151.83 each for Dodge station wagons.

Bids were also accepted for 750 Dodge pickup trucks. The state has 20,000 vehicles in its motor pool. Harkness said the option guarantees the state's right to buy the cars, but doesn't mean it has to.

A spokesman said, however, that the state probably would buy the full amount.

The new vehicles will be distributed to state car pools in Sacramento, San Francisco, Fresno and Los Angeles.

Harkness said nearly half of the vehicles were bought under a new law allowing them to be traded in after four years.

Stepfather Gets Death For Killing

SAN JOSE (AP) — Earl Clarence Sears, 55-year-old former convict, was sentenced to death yesterday for the murder of his 8-year-old stepdaughter.

Superior Judge Homer Thompson rejected motions that Sears be granted a new trial, that his conviction be reduced to second degree murder, and that his sentence be reduced to life imprisonment.

Sears was convicted last month of fatally stabbing Elizabeth Olives at the home of his estranged wife, Clara, in Cupertino.

Sears also was sentenced to prison terms for attempted murder of his wife and her mother, Mrs. Francis Montijo.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

32 EDITORIAL PAGE Thursday, Dec. 12, 1963 San Rafael, Calif.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Supervisors' Decision About Rumford Fuss Was Proper

A Judgment of Solomon was performed by Marin County supervisors Tuesday in quiet and able fashion.

They voted unanimously to reaffirm an earlier approval of the Rumford Fair Housing Act (initially supported jointly with another similar measure in bill form before the state assembly.) But they balked at criticizing private organizations of real estate men.

On the former point they manifested consistency, and gave new Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker the opportunity he asked to associate himself with the basic principle involved.

On the latter, they conducted civilized discussion and came to a conclusion seemingly well accepted by everyone with obviously sound reason behind them.

The act itself, by now somewhat misunderstood by many of the general public, is applicable to housing financed by the taxpayer. Since everybody including minority groups pays taxes, it is clearly no unreasonable infringement of individual liberty to prescribe that everybody should have equal opportunity to avail himself of construction for which all helped raise the money. Those builders who object should seek loans elsewhere.

Although this aspect didn't come up at the meeting, the initiative proposal of an amendment to the constitution seems so loosely drawn that apart from its "fair housing" aspect it could negate ordinances which forbid sale of property that has been illegally subdivided or developed.

With reference to the proposal that there be criticism of real estate people supporting the initiative measure either actively or passively, the board would have placed itself in an untenable position in so acting. Not only would this have seemed a political pressure-move unseemly in such a body, but the results could well have been the opposite intended.

Fully within the memory of most readers was Marin County's recent supervisorial recall action. Many who took part in that are today critical of real estate brokers' wish for repeal of the Rumford Act. Yet in that other action they rightly objected to charges that they were acting unfairly, or improperly, or illegally. The law provides for what is being attempted in both cases, and law-abiding citizens should realize the parallelism.

Emotion always enters into such matters and no one can object to that. In a democracy it is right and proper to debate but so long as legal channels are being properly observed, they have every obligation to keep their heads and respect the position of the other side.

Take It A Little Easy

With all reverence and respect to the memory of John F. Kennedy, we submit that it is not the greatest mark of patriotism to go overboard in the matter of re-naming places in his honor. In fact it comes perilously close to the commonplace and sometimes creates inconvenience.

It's another matter where something new and yet to be named is under consideration.

Thus the Dixie School District trustees did well to pause when asked to change the already established and geographically adequate name of the Miller Creek School in Marinwood to the John F. Kennedy School. If, however, they wish to name a new school in Lucas Valley after Mr. Kennedy that seems perfectly reasonable and proper.

A LITTLE-USED TECHNIQUE

Civil Rights Supporters Will Try For Discharge Petition

By Congressional Quarterly

WASHINGTON — The determination of House backers of a civil rights bill is now pitted against the wiles of House Rules Committee Chairman Howard W. Smith (D-Va.).

Although "Judge" Smith ultimately lost in similar recent civil rights battles, his defeat required no small effort on the part of his opponents. This time, as in 1960 when the last civil rights bill was passed, they will try to beat Smith by means of a little - used parliamentary technique - the discharge petition.

The civil rights bill was reported by the House Judiciary Committee Nov. 20. Like all controversial bills, it needs a "rule" governing its floor debate to avoid confusion and delay in the 435-Member House. Smith's committee dispenses these rules.

ON NOV. 27, following President Johnson's appeal to Congress to pass the civil rights bill as a memorial to the late President Kennedy, Rep. Richard Bolling (D-Mo.), a Rules Committee member, began discharge proceedings, a complicated procedure.

Even if Bolling's petition got the needed 218 signatures in short order, the earliest it could be brought up is Dec. 23, undoubtedly too late for floor action in this session. Nevertheless, it would be ready for consideration soon after the second session convened on Jan. 3, 1964.

The House would first consider the discharge motion, which could be adopted by a majority vote. It would then consider the rule which it had just discharged from the Rules Committee. Once the rule was adopted, it would then consider the bill itself under the conditions set forth in the rule.

DISCHARGE PETITIONS are rarely successful. In 1960, however, when a petition to spring the civil rights bill from the Rules Committee came within 10 signatures of success, this was enough to get the committee to grant a rule two days later.

The last time a bill was actually brought to the floor through a discharge petition was in 1960 when a bill providing a pay raise for federal employees was brought up.

After a whirlwind two-day campaign led by federal employees unions, a petition to free the bill from the Rules Committee reached the necessary 219 signatures. The bill was subsequently passed, vetoed by President Eisenhower, and enacted when the president's veto was overridden.

MANY REPRESENTATIVES are reluctant to sign a discharge petition for a number of reasons. Some simply oppose the legislation concerned and would be content to see it die in committee.

Others, in the interest of comity or their own possible desire to bottle up a bill in the future, do not like to use a procedure which they feel tramples on the prerogatives of their peers.

Some resist signing any petition, for fear that otherwise they would be pressured to sign others.

And some say that "half-baked" legislation might ensue from frequent use of petitions — legislation enacted without proper committee consideration.

'Now—What Would I Want With A Hot Potato?'

WHAT OTHER EDITORS SAY

AND NOW, A SCAR . . .

Back through the yellowing pages of The San Quentin News, it is clear that in time of national emergency, the men of this institution have rallied and sacrificed for the cause of their nation.

Regardless of what a man had done to send him to prison, he nonetheless counted himself a part of this country, and with rare exception offered his limited help in whatever way opened by the Department.

During the black years of the early Forties, the News is filled with stories of selfless giving—in labor, talent and even blood which flowed beyond the walls to the Allied wounded. San Quentin blood too, was spilled at Iwo Jima and Bataan. What was it, what did it take to unite a community of so-called hardened criminals in this uncanny display of patriotism? That question is best left to the psychiatrists. But we like to think of it as pride that transcends personal circumstances.

It was that pride that brought this prison to its knees two weeks ago on November 22. That pride—and faith, if you will—had been shattered by a trigger controlled by a twisted mind.

But it was not pride that drew silent hundreds together that morning under the solemn radio speakers, determined to hear the news with their own ears before believing it—and even then, not quite.

It was not pride that held these "hardened criminals" there in an icy rain which pressed the gloom down upon them . . . it was not pride that held us before television sets which took us from Washington to Arlington National Cemetery, confused and stunned.

No, it was shame and a scar remained on our decency.

An unnatural shame strangely heavy on men who had committed burglaries, assaults, robberies and even murder. But some things are unforgivable, unthinkable. Yet such a thing had been done.

For a few catastrophic moments by unspoken truce the line between these men in blue, and those in tan was equated; there were no convicts, no guards . . . just simple mourners already feeling the loss. Their loss . . . and perhaps in this human reaction and manifestation can we someday justify the death of this husband, father and great American.

For in those moments, the cold steel heart of this prison softened, and all things became equal in grief.—San Quentin News.

Where There's Hate, Some Will Kill

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Mr. Haerle asks why the radical Right should have been immediately suspected of President Kennedy's murder.

Two reasons that come to mind are: Medgar Evers, and the little girls bombed to death in their Sunday school.

In a community of hate, some members will always kill. Each side has its lunatic fringe, not just one side.

Major Shirks Duties As A Citizen

Editor, Independent Journal

I read with interest Maj. Alan W. Saunders' "cute" letter to San Rafael Acting Police Chief di Grazia in which the major, supposedly well out of reach in Viet Nam, sarcastically pleads for an early arrest for a traffic warrant.

As one who paid his share of citation without exercising literary brilliance by writing "Dear Chief" letters as did the major, I should like to urge that Acting Chief di Grazia oblige Maj. Saunders as soon as practicable.

More important than the question of the bill for $15 which the clever major jumped town without paying is the apparently blatant attitude that such a person is impervious to the laws of this hick town of San Rafael, or its constituted authority.

I question the trustworthiness and suitability of officers of this calibre. Perhaps the military service which enjoys Maj. Saunders' talents will enlighten us as to what his background and official duties in Viet Nam are. His cleverness in beating us out of $15.00 and writing our acting chief a "Dear Chief" letter certainly would seem to demonstrate a special quality of which his service may well be proud. Let's have more on Maj. Alan W. Saunders, defender of the bastions of freedom in Viet Nam, but who delights in shirking his responsibilities as a citizen.

B. HURST

(Come come, aren't we being a little stuffy? Anybody that can make himself a spot of fun in Viet Nam is entitled to it, though we admit the major should have paid before he leaped. Besides it's Novato and not San Rafael you're discussing!— EDITOR)

Pearl Harbor Day Brings Lessons

Editor, Independent Journal

As Pearl Harbor Day of 1963 approached American Legion Veterans, rededicated ourselves to the principles for which we fought and for which thousands of our comrades-in arms made the supreme sacrifice . . . peace, freedom, equality.

At the same time we must continue to shoulder the solemn responsibility which was entrusted to us. To advance this interest we must train our students in such a way as to acquire wisdom from experience and this can only be done by training them in all the modes of human thought.

Youth tends to reflect the attitudes of its parents. A love for intellectual excellance and willingness to work are grown in the home. Parents that create such a family atmosphere are preparing their children to meet their future responsibility of putting God's designs into action.

Let there be a dedicated effort and a greater crusade in our schools and homes for a world of peace, freedom and equality.

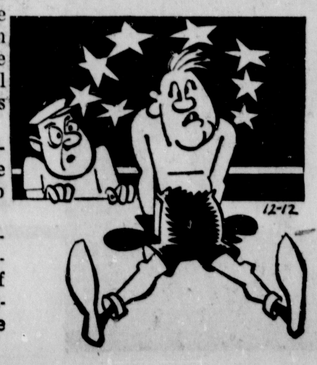
TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A prize fighter, having heavy going in his first important fight, was floored in the second round by a punch right on the button. He looked from the mat at his trainer with glazed eyes. "Let the referee count," yelled the trainer. "Don't get up till eight." The fighter nodded and asked weakly, "What time is it now?"



That eminent composer and band leader, Duke Ellington, who understandably is not displeased when disciples refer to him as "The American Bach," often quotes that same Bach in his casual conversation. The Duke once was heard to remark, speaking about piano playing, "As Bach says, if you ain't got a left hand, you ain't worth a hoot in hell."

Death Never Struck President And Vice President Within 4 Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has been lucky in a grisly way, because death has been choosy.

Eight presidents have died in office, four of them assassinated. Seven vice presidents have died in office.

Death never tapped a president and vice president in any single four-year term.

BUT NOW once again, with Vice Pres. Lyndon B. Johnson moved up to the presidency, there is no vice president.

The law which provides for a successor to Johnson, if the president died, is a lot more pretentious looking than it really is.

Next in line for the presidency, when there is no president or vice president, are these people in this order:

John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, 71, speaker of the House; Sen. Carl Hayden of Arizona, 86, president pro tempore of the Senate; and the Cabinet, starting with Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

THIS ORDER of succession, laid down by Congress in 1947, seems to be generously spread out over the government. That's misleading.

If Speaker McCormack became the president, he would automatically have to resign from Congress and give up the speakership.

It's a safe bet this would follow quickly:

The House would elect another speaker. Then, if McCormack died, the new speaker of the House would be next in succession, not the Senate's president pro tempore or any member of the cabinet.

Since McCormack says he favors the law which puts him next in line to Johnson, there is almost no chance the House will change the order of succession.

Thus, the House, under ordinary circumstances, has a strangle-hold on the line of presidential succession.

Three events could change that but all would have to be extraordinary and seem remote now:

1. THE SPEAKER who became president might die—he'd have to die pretty quickly—before the House had a chance to pick a new speaker.

If so, the Senate's president pro tempore would become the president. Then the new speaker when elected, could not be president although he would be No. 1 in line of succession if the new president died.

2. In this nuclear age — in case of attack— so many top officials might be wiped out that only some surviving Cabinet member, if any, would be left under the 1947 law to assume the presidency.

3. OR, THERE might be an assassination plot to kill the president, vice president, speaker and Senate president pro tempore. If it succeeded, the secretary of state would become president.

One cabinet member, Secretary of State William H. Seward, was seriously stabbed. The would-be killer of Johnson got cold feet and Johnson was able to succeed Lincoln.

World To Learn All Details Of Kennedy Assassination

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The United States Information Agency is undertaking a world-wide emergency public relations mission of the most delicate nature.

The government's international public relations arm plans to pull out all the stops to acquaint the world with the activities and findings of the special Presidential Commission studying the circumstances relating to the assassination of President Kennedy.

Under the close personal supervision of Director Edward R. Murrow, the USIA staff is preparing to use all of the government's facilities, including its 111 overseas posts, to keep all nations fully informed of the commission's investigation.

MOST OF the 7.5 million dollars restored by the Senate Appropriations Committee to this year's USIA budget will be used for this massive public relations campaign if the full Senate and House approve these funds.

USIA's request for 208 million dollars was cut to 163 million dollars by the House earlier this year. Meeting privately last week, the Senate committee restored the budget to 170.5 million dollars by a one-vote margin.

These and other still secret details of USIA plans to focus world attention on the Presidential Commission, headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren, were privately outlined to the senators by committee member Gale McGee (D-Wyo.), who led the successful fight to restore the money.

WAVING a handful of proxies hurriedly gathered from absent Democratic members, Senator McGee stressed the extra money was needed so that "the USIA can flood the world with information about and the findings of the commission on the circumstances relating to the assassination of President Kennedy."

He revealed that USIA Director had personaly urged him to take the lead in restoring the funds needed to launch this world-wide public relations campaign.

According to Senator McGee, the USIA already has spent $250,000 in unbudgeted funds in one week in relaying to the world the events surrounding the assassination and the orderly succession of President Johnson to the nation's highest office.

He said the objective is to assure the world that the change in presidents has not changed American foreign policies, and that the U. S. government remains strong.

IN PREPARING to launch its lightning-like publicity campaign, the USIA appears to be far ahead of the commission in its planning.

At the commission's first private meeting here, members were of the unanimous opinion that it would be several months before the commission would have any findings to report to President Johnson or the nation.

They agreed that no findings could be issued until after the trial of Jack Ruby, slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald, the president's assassin, because of the effect this would have on the case.

The sensational Ruby trial, scheduled to start in February, will run an estimated six weeks, according to the information given the commission by Texas authorities.

UNDER THESE circumstances, Chief Justice Warren told the other members of the commission that he planned to notify the White House the panel would not be able to wind up its investigation for at least four to six months.

Commission members also agreed to let Justice Warren select the blue-ribbon panel's counsel and staff, subject to their final approval.

All members approved Warren's suggestion that the panel obtain subpoena powers from Congress.

POLITICALS — White House insiders are hinting that the first Cabinet member who will be replaced is Interior Secretary Stewart Udall.

CREW CHIEF — A/1c Carl Callaway of the 78th Organizational and Maintenance Squadron has been chosen "Crew Chief of the Month" at Hamilton Air Force Base. As rewards, he will bet his first F-101 ride, and have no extra squadron duties for one month, and receive gifts from many Novato merchants. Callaway and his wife, Barbara, and year-old son, Jay, live in Petaluma.

Last Meeting Tonight On Hub Parking District Plan

Tonight will be the last chance for property owners in downtown San Anselmo to learn details of the proposed parking assessment district.

The last of a series of meetings to explain the district and seek petition signatures will be held at 8 o'clock in the city hall, announced chairman Mozart Kaufman of the city council-appointed parking district committee.

Signatures representing 51 per cent of the property owners and 60 per cent of the assessed valuation are needed for creation of the district, which would purchase lots designated on a district plan to provide off-street parking. Cost of buying and improving the property would be paid by assessments, with bonds issued to permit immediate purchase.

State Options $4.4 Million In Vehicles

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The state took an option on 4.4 million dollars worth of new cars and pickup trucks today from 15 California automobile dealers.

Robert Harkness, director of General Services, said bids on the 1,952 cars ranged from $1,566.38 each for Dodge Darts to $2,151.83 each for Dodge station wagons.

Bids were also accepted for 750 Dodge pickup trucks. The state has 20,000 vehicles in its motor pool. Harkness said the option guarantees the state's right to buy the cars, but doesn't mean it has to.

A spokesman said, however, that the state probably would buy the full amount.

The new vehicles will be distributed to state car pools in Sacramento, San Francisco, Fresno and Los Angeles.

Harkness said nearly half of the vehicles were bought under a new law allowing them to be traded in after four years.

Don't Get Sick Or Poor, Maw— The County's Out Of Cash

WELL, THE COUNTY'S run out of money, Ma. I guess we'd better not get sick or poor for a while.

Actually the county has all kinds of money. The big question is which money it will use to replenish the unappropriated reserve after its recent "Welfare Storm."

The big problem is that the county supervisors are basically nice guys, and they hate to see grown department heads cry. Many department heads cry rather well and often, especially over money.

Partly for that reason the board drew $50,000 out of its rainy day fund by December.

WITH ONLY $250,000 left, the rains came in the form of a request for more money by the Welfare Department and another by the Medical Department.

By the end of this month, the county won't have anything left in the reserve fund.

But real rains, the kind that wash out bridges and cause landslides in Tiburon, can be expected before June 30. So some more rainy day money will have to be found, because no specific budget items have been set up for road jobs everyone knows will have to be done.

A CHECK is being made of separate department budgets, but actually there are only a few spots which would make any difference. The idea of asking separate county departments to start saving paper clips and use typewriter ribbons longer just is not going to produce the amount of funds needed.

What County Administrator Alan Bruce is looking for is about $100,000 or a little more, that can be pulled into the reserve. Only two good sources appear.

One source isn't well known. The county Welfare Department staff will increase greatly starting next year because of a new program approved by the state. The county has no control over this staff increase, except that it can be phased over three years. By changing the phasing arrangement some of these jobs can be delayed.

THE SUPERVISORS would have to prove themselves five brave men to face the ire of Welfare Director Betty Presley, but they could do it. The staff increase would have to be made later anyway.

The other source is in capital improvement funds, that is, new physical projects like buildings and roads.

Some major construction jobs have not yet been started, such as the Juvenile Treatment Center in Lucas Valley. Some of these projects could be sliced or at least delayed so that payments to contractors need not be made until after the first of the 1964 - 65 fiscal year.

IN A SIMILAR category are funds being accrued for major construction projects to be started in the future. The biggest of these funds is the money set aside for the second stage of the Civic Center.

Many people feel the pressure will be strongest to tap this particular source, partly because there is still sentiment in the county against the Frank Wright project.

Besides, no individual administrator of a county department would feel the blow directly, although the municipal court clerks in the old courthouse are a little tired of falling over each other.

For a number of reasons, including some steps at the state level which the county had no control over, the budget estimates this year were way off. Most belt tightening this year will probably mean a belt loosening next year to compensate, and the taxpayer isn't going to feel the blow until next October.

THE LIGHTER SIDE

Have You A Bridge System? Now Everybody's Doing It

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI)— New bridge books are just about as common nowadays as new cook books. Both contribute to our society.

Thanks mainly to such publications, America is the only country in the world where a housewife can bur the roast and go down three tricks on a cinch slam hand simultaneously.

The latest bridge book to come to my attention is a bit unusual in that it was written by a practicing bureaucrat. Its title is "New Dimension Bidding in Contract Bridge" and its author is John B. Duncan, one of the District of Columbia commissioners.

IF Charges Goren now wants to write a book entitled "How To Run the District of Columbia," I'll be glad to give him equal time.

Duncan has devised a new system of bidding which he feels is superior to the Goren point count system widely used in this country.

Possibly Goren, in retaliation, could be persuaded to take a crack at improving traffic conditions around here.

As I understand it, the Duncan system is based largely on the so - called "artificial" bid. And as I understand that, an artificial bid is a bid that is totally unrelated to the cards in your hand.

OFTENTIMES that happens when the bid is not artificial. But when it is done artificially, it is intentional.

What I don't understand is why the commissioner calls his system a "new dimension." My bridge crowd has been using artificial bidding for years.

Only ours is sixth dimensional. We employ, in addition to hearts, spades, clubs, diamonds and no trumps, a bid known as "oops."

For accuracy in bidding, it can't be beat, for it permits the bidder to rectify a mistake. That, of course, is the main weakness of other bidding systems. Once you have made a bid there is no way to weasel out of it.

LET US ASSUME, for example, that your partner has opened with one spade and you have raised to two diamonds. Partner then jumps to three spades, making it obvious that your two-diamond response was a mistake.

Therefore, when it comes your time to bid again you bid "three oops."

This gives partner the option of either standing firm on three spades, going on to four spades or dropping back to two spades.

If partner is smart, however, she will jump up from the table and exclaim "I think the roast is burning."

Supervisors' Decision About Rumford Fuss Was Proper

A Judgment of Solomon was performed by Marin County supervisors Tuesday in quiet and able fashion.

They voted unanimously to reaffirm an earlier approval of the Rumford Fair Housing Act (initially supported jointly with another similar measure in bill form before the state assembly.) But they balked at criticizing private organizations of real estate men.

On the former point they manifested consistency, and gave new Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker the opportunity he asked to associate himself with the basic principle involved.

On the latter, they conducted civilized discussion and came to a conclusion seemingly well accepted by everyone with obviously sound reason behind them.

The act itself, by now somewhat misunderstood by many of the general public, is applicable to housing financed by the taxpayer. Since everybody including minority groups pays taxes, it is clearly no unreasonable infringement of individual liberty to prescribe that everybody should have equal opportunity to avail himself of construction for which all helped raise the money. Those builders who object should seek loans elsewhere.

Although this aspect didn't come up at the meeting, the initiative proposal of an amendment to the constitution seems so loosely drawn that apart from its "fair housing" aspect it could negate ordinances which forbid sale of property that has been illegally subdivided or developed.

With reference to the proposal that there be criticism of real estate people supporting the initiative measure either actively or passively, the board would have placed itself in an untenable position in so acting. Not only would this have seemed a political pressure-move unseemly in such a body, but the results could well have been the opposite intended.

Fully within the memory of most readers was Marin County's recent supervisorial recall action. Many who took part in that are today critical of real estate brokers' wish for repeal of the Rumford Act. Yet in that other action they rightly objected to charges that they were acting unfairly, or improperly, or illegally. The law provides for what is being attempted in both cases, and law-abiding citizens should realize the parallelism.

Emotion always enters into such matters and no one can object to that. In a democracy it is right and proper to debate but so long as legal channels are being properly observed, they have every obligation to keep their heads and respect the position of the other side.

Take It A Little Easy

With all reverence and respect to the memory of John F. Kennedy, we submit that it is not the greatest mark of patriotism to go overboard in the matter of re-naming places in his honor. In fact it comes perilously close to the commonplace and sometimes creates inconvenience.

It's another matter where something new and yet to be named is under consideration.

Thus the Dixie School District trustees did well to pause when asked to change the already established and geographically adequate name of the Miller Creek School in Marinwood to the John F. Kennedy School. If, however, they wish to name a new school in Lucas Valley after Mr. Kennedy that seems perfectly reasonable and proper.

A LITTLE-USED TECHNIQUE

Civil Rights Supporters Will Try For Discharge Petition

By Congressional Quarterly

WASHINGTON — The determination of House backers of a civil rights bill is now pitted against the wiles of House Rules Committee Chairman Howard W. Smith (D-Va.).

Although "Judge" Smith ultimately lost in similar recent civil rights battles, his defeat required no small effort on the part of his opponents. This time, as in 1960 when the last civil rights bill was passed, they will try to beat Smith by means of a little - used parliamentary technique - the discharge petition.

The civil rights bill was reported by the House Judiciary Committee Nov. 20. Like all controversial bills, it needs a "rule" governing its floor debate to avoid confusion and delay in the 435-Member House. Smith's committee dispenses these rules.

ON NOV. 27, following President Johnson's appeal to Congress to pass the civil rights bill as a memorial to the late President Kennedy, Rep. Richard Bolling (D-Mo.), a Rules Committee member, began discharge proceedings, a complicated procedure.

Even if Bolling's petition got the needed 218 signatures in short order, the earliest it could be brought up is Dec. 23, undoubtedly too late for floor action in this session. Nevertheless, it would be ready for consideration soon after the second session convened on Jan. 3, 1964.

The House would first consider the discharge motion, which could be adopted by a majority vote. It would then consider the rule which it had just discharged from the Rules Committee. Once the rule was adopted, it would then consider the bill itself under the conditions set forth in the rule.

DISCHARGE PETITIONS are rarely successful. In 1960, however, when a petition to spring the civil rights bill from the Rules Committee came within 10 signatures of success, this was enough to get the committee to grant a rule two days later.

The last time a bill was actually brought to the floor through a discharge petition was in 1960 when a bill providing a pay raise for federal employees was brought up.

After a whirlwind two-day campaign led by federal employees unions, a petition to free the bill from the Rules Committee reached the necessary 219 signatures. The bill was subsequently passed, vetoed by President Eisenhower, and enacted when the president's veto was overridden.

MANY REPRESENTATIVES are reluctant to sign a discharge petition for a number of reasons. Some simply oppose the legislation concerned and would be content to see it die in committee.

Others, in the interest of comity or their own possible desire to bottle up a bill in the future, do not like to use a procedure which they feel tramples on the prerogatives of their peers.

Some resist signing any petition, for fear that otherwise they would be pressured to sign others.

And some say that "half-baked" legislation might ensue from frequent use of petitions — legislation enacted without proper committee consideration.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS SAY

AND NOW, A SCAR . . .

Back through the yellowing pages of The San Quentin News, it is clear that in time of national emergency, the men of this institution have rallied and sacrificed for the cause of their nation.

Regardless of what a man had done to send him to prison, he nonetheless counted himself a part of this country, and with rare exception offered his limited help in whatever way opened by the Department.

During the black years of the early Forties, the News is filled with stories of selfless giving—in labor, talent and even blood which flowed beyond the walls to the Allied wounded. San Quentin blood too, was spilled at Iwo Jima and Bataan. What was it, what did it take to unite a community of so-called hardened criminals in this uncanny display of patriotism? That question is best left to the psychiatrists. But we like to think of it as pride that transcends personal circumstances.

It was that pride that brought this prison to its knees two weeks ago on November 22. That pride—and faith, if you will—had been shattered by a trigger controlled by a twisted mind.

But it was not pride that drew silent hundreds together that morning under the solemn radio speakers, determined to hear the news with their own ears before believing it—and even then, not quite.

It was not pride that held these "hardened criminals" there in an icy rain which pressed the gloom down upon them . . . it was not pride that held us before television sets which took us from Washington to Arlington National Cemetery, confused and stunned.

No, it was shame and a scar remained on our decency.

An unnatural shame strangely heavy on men who had committed burglaries, assaults, robberies and even murder. But some things are unforgivable, unthinkable. Yet such a thing had been done.

For a few catastrophic moments by unspoken truce the line between these men in blue, and those in tan was equated; there were no convicts, no guards . . . just simple mourners already feeling the loss. Their loss . . . and perhaps in this human reaction and manifestation can we someday justify the death of this husband, father and great American.

For in those moments, the cold steel heart of this prison softened, and all things became equal in grief.—San Quentin News.

Major Shirks Duties As A Citizen

Editor, Independent Journal

I read with interest Maj. Alan W. Saunders' "cute" letter to San Rafael Acting Police Chief di Grazia in which the major, supposedly well out of reach in Viet Nam, sarcastically pleads for an early arrest for a traffic warrant.

As one who paid his share of citation without exercising literary brilliance by writing "Dear Chief" letters as did the major, I should like to urge that Acting Chief di Grazia oblige Maj. Saunders as soon as practicable.

More important than the question of the bill for $15 which the clever major jumped town without paying is the apparently blatant attitude that such a person is impervious to the laws of this hick town of San Rafael, or its constituted authority.

I question the trustworthiness and suitability of officers of this calibre. Perhaps the military service which enjoys Maj. Saunders' talents will enlighten us as to what his background and official duties in Viet Nam are. His cleverness in beating us out of $15.00 and writing our acting chief a "Dear Chief" letter certainly would seem to demonstrate a special quality of which his service may well be proud. Let's have more on Maj. Alan W. Saunders, defender of the bastions of freedom in Viet Nam, but who delights in shirking his responsibilities as a citizen.

Pearl Harbor Day Brings Lessons

Editor, Independent Journal

As Pearl Harbor Day of 1963 approached American Legion Veterans, rededicated ourselves to the principles for which we fought and for which thousands of our comrades-in arms made the supreme sacrifice . . . peace, freedom, equality.

At the same time we must continue to shoulder the solemn responsibility which was entrusted to us. To advance this interest we must train our students in such a way as to acquire wisdom from experience and this can only be done by training them in all the modes of human thought.

Youth tends to reflect the attitudes of its parents. A love for intellectual excellance and willingness to work are grown in the home. Parents that create such a family atmosphere are preparing their children to meet their future responsibility of putting God's designs into action.

Let there be a dedicated effort and a greater crusade in our schools and homes for a world of peace, freedom and equality.

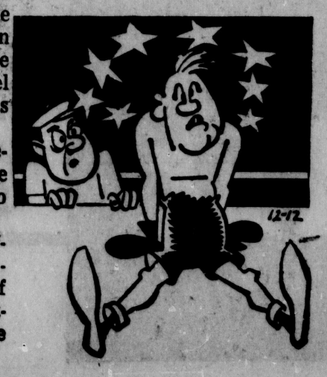
A prize fighter, having heavy going in his first important fight, was floored in the second round by a punch right on the button. He looked from the mat at his trainer with glazed eyes. "Let the referee count," yelled the trainer. "Don't get up till eight." The fighter nodded and asked weakly, "What time is it now?"



That eminent composer and band leader, Duke Ellington, who understandably is not displeased when disciples refer to him as "The American Bach," often quotes that same Bach in his casual conversation. Death Never Struck President And Vice President Within 4 Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has been lucky in a grisly way, because death has been choosy.

Eight presidents have died in office, four of them assassinated. Seven vice presidents have died in office.

Death never tapped a president and vice president in any single four-year term.

BUT NOW once again, with Vice Pres. Lyndon B. Johnson moved up to the presidency, there is no vice president.

The law which provides for a successor to Johnson, if the president died, is a lot more pretentious looking than it really is.

Next in line for the presidency, when there is no president or vice president, are these people in this order:

John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, 71, speaker of the House; Sen. Carl Hayden of Arizona, 86, president pro tempore of the Senate; and the Cabinet, starting with Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

THIS ORDER of succession, laid down by Congress in 1947, seems to be generously spread out over the government. That's misleading.

If Speaker McCormack became the president, he would automatically have to resign from Congress and give up the speakership.

It's a safe bet this would follow quickly:

The House would elect another speaker. Then, if McCormack died, the new speaker of the House would be next in succession, not the Senate's president pro tempore or any member of the cabinet.

Since McCormack says he favors the law which puts him next in line to Johnson, there is almost no chance the House will change the order of succession.

Thus, the House, under ordinary circumstances, has a strangle-hold on the line of presidential succession.

Three events could change that but all would have to be extraordinary and seem remote now:

1. THE SPEAKER who became president might die—he'd have to die pretty quickly—before the House had a chance to pick a new speaker.

If so, the Senate's president pro tempore would become the president. Then the new speaker when elected, could not be president although he would be No. 1 in line of succession if the new president died.

2. In this nuclear age — in case of attack— so many top officials might be wiped out that only some surviving Cabinet member, if any, would be left under the 1947 law to assume the presidency.

3. OR, THERE might be an assassination plot to kill the president, vice president, speaker and Senate president pro tempore. If it succeeded, the secretary of state would become president.

While Jonh Wilkes Booth killed President Lincoln, his plot called for assassinating Vice Pres. Andrew Johnson, too, and cabinet members.

One cabinet member, Secretary of State William H. Seward, was seriously stabbed. The would-be killer of Johnson got cold feet and Johnson was able to succeed Lincoln.

These and other still secret details of USIA plans to focus world attention on the Presidential Commission, headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren, were privately outlined to the senators by committee member Gale McGee (D-Wyo.), who led the successful fight to restore the money.

WAVING a handful of proxies hurriedly gathered from absent Democratic members, Senator McGee stressed the extra money was needed so that "the USIA can flood the world with information about and the findings of the commission on the circumstances relating to the assassination of President Kennedy."

He revealed that USIA Director had personaly urged him to take the lead in restoring the funds needed to launch this world-wide public relations campaign.

According to Senator McGee, the USIA already has spent $250,000 in unbudgeted funds in one week in relaying to the world the events surrounding the assassination and the orderly succession of President Johnson to the nation's highest office.

He said the objective is to assure the world that the change in presidents has not changed American foreign policies, and that the U. S. government remains strong.

IN PREPARING to launch its lightning-like publicity campaign, the USIA appears to be far ahead of the commission in its planning.

At the commission's first private meeting here, members were of the unanimous opinion that it would be several months before the commission would have any findings to report to President Johnson or the nation.

They agreed that no findings could be issued until after the trial of Jack Ruby, slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald, the president's assassin, because of the effect this would have on the case.

The sensational Ruby trial, scheduled to start in February, will run an estimated six weeks, according to the information given the commission by Texas authorities.

UNDER THESE circumstances, Chief Justice Warren told the other members of the commission that he planned to notify the White House the panel would not be able to wind up its investigation for at least four to six months.

Commission members also agreed to let Justice Warren select the blue-ribbon panel's counsel and staff, subject to their final approval.

All members approved Warren's suggestion that the panel obtain subpoena powers from Congress.

POLITICALS — White House insiders are hinting that the first Cabinet member who will be replaced is Interior Secretary Stewart Udall.

No Scholarships At Marin College

There are no scholarships for students at the College of Marin and only a "minute amount of money" is available for student loans.

These findings are contained in a report to be presented to the Marin Junior College District board at its meeting at 8 p.m. today at the college.

The report is by Fred F. Enemark, member of the college district's citizen advisory committee.

"Scholarships were found to be one of the most important needs of the college. The group was shocked at the minute amount of money available now," Enemark wrote.

The "minute amount" to which he referred is about $600. Five hundred dollars is in an emergency loan fund, and $102 was recently collected from the proceeds of a faculty and staff potluck dinner.

The only other money available for financial assistance to students is $8,200 in a national defense student loan fund. This money is given only to students who go on to complete a four-year college course. Preference is given students engaged in scientific studies.

These are all loan funds. "It was revealed that there are no scholarships available at this time for entering students," Enemark wrote.

He suggested that a non-profit corporation or foundation be set up to handle scholarships and grants. The same organization could build and support residence halls at the college, he suggested.

Enemark pointed out that about one-half of the students at the college work at some type of job during the school year.

South Bay Chart

A new chart covering the southern portion of San Francisco Bay has been completed by the Coast and Geodetic Survey and a copy can be obtained for $1 by writing the Coast and Geodetic Survey, Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C. or at a regional office. The chart number is 5531.

Services Advisory Group To Aid In Mill Valley Center

The Marin County Community Services Advisory Committee has directed its coordinator, Richard Phenix, to give technical assistance to Mill Valley in development of a center which could be used by older adults as well as youth.

Harry Heifetz, chairman of the advisory committee, said assistance was requested by Hal H. Schwartz, chairman of the Mill Valley Youth Activities Committee.

Phenix said many communities need assistance in developing facilities and jrograms for the aging, but Mill Valley was selected because of the high interest in its projected center.

CSD Board To Meet

The Marinwood Community Services District board will meet at 8 p.m. today at Mary E. Silveira School to accept the new community center and firehouse. Acceptance was postponed last week because the board found the buildings were not completed.

Statisticians say 26 million boys and girls between 16 and 21 will be looking for jobs in this decade, 40 per cent more than in the 1950s. The breakdown: 6½ million college trained, 12 million high school graduates, 7½ million high school dropouts.

Don't Get Sick Or Poor, Maw— The County's Out Of Cash

WELL, THE COUNTY'S run out of money, Ma. I guess we'd better not get sick or poor for a while.

Actually the county has all kinds of money. The big question is which money it will use to replenish the unappropriated reserve after its recent "Welfare Storm."

The big problem is that the county supervisors are basically nice guys, and they hate to see grown department heads cry. Many department heads cry rather well and often, especially over money.

Partly for that reason the board drew $50,000 out of its rainy day fund by December.

WITH ONLY $250,000 left, the rains came in the form of a request for more money by the Welfare Department and another by the Medical Department.

By the end of this month, the county won't have anything left in the reserve fund.

But real rains, the kind that wash out bridges and cause landslides in Tiburon, can be expected before June 30. So some more rainy day money will have to be found, because no specific budget items have been set up for road jobs everyone knows will have to be done.

A CHECK is being made of separate department budgets, but actually there are only a few spots which would make any difference. The idea of asking separate county departments to start saving paper clips and use typewriter ribbons longer just is not going to produce the amount of funds needed.

What County Administrator Alan Bruce is looking for is about $100,000 or a little more, that can be pulled into the reserve. Only two good sources appear.

One source isn't well known. The county Welfare Department staff will increase greatly starting next year because of a new program approved by the state. The county has no control over this staff increase, except that it can be phased over three years. By changing the phasing arrangement some of these jobs can be delayed.

THE SUPERVISORS would have to prove themselves five brave men to face the ire of Welfare Director Betty Presley, but they could do it. The staff increase would have to be made later anyway.

The other source is in capital improvement funds, that is, new physical projects like buildings and roads.

Some major construction jobs have not yet been started, such as the Juvenile Treatment Center in Lucas Valley. Some of these projects could be sliced or at least delayed so that payments to contractors need not be made until after the first of the 1964 - 65 fiscal year.

IN A SIMILAR category are funds being accrued for major construction projects to be started in the future. The biggest of these funds is the money set aside for the second stage of the Civic Center.

Many people feel the pressure will be strongest to tap this particular source, partly because there is still sentiment in the county against the Frank Wright project.

Besides, no individual administrator of a county department would feel the blow directly, although the municipal court clerks in the old courthouse are a little tired of falling over each other.

For a number of reasons, including some steps at the state level which the county had no control over, the budget estimates this year were way off. Most belt tightening this year will probably mean a belt loosening next year to compensate, and the taxpayer isn't going to feel the blow until next October.

THE LIGHTER SIDE

Have You A Bridge System? Now Everybody's Doing It

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI)— New bridge books are just about as common nowadays as new cook books. Both contribute to our society.

Thanks mainly to such publications, America is the only country in the world where a housewife can bur the roast and go down three tricks on a cinch slam hand simultaneously.

The latest bridge book to come to my attention is a bit unusual in that it was written by a practicing bureaucrat. Its title is "New Dimension Bidding in Contract Bridge" and its author is John B. Duncan, one of the District of Columbia commissioners.

IF Charges Goren now wants to write a book entitled "How To Run the District of Columbia," I'll be glad to give him equal time.

Duncan has devised a new system of bidding which he feels is superior to the Goren point count system widely used in this country.

Possibly Goren, in retaliation, could be persuaded to take a crack at improving traffic conditions around here.

As I understand it, the Duncan system is based largely on the so - called "artificial" bid. And as I understand that, an artificial bid is a bid that is totally unrelated to the cards in your hand.

OFTENTIMES that happens when the bid is not artificial. But when it is done artificially, it is intentional.

What I don't understand is why the commissioner calls his system a "new dimension." My bridge crowd has been using artificial bidding for years.

Only ours is sixth dimensional. We employ, in addition to hearts, spades, clubs, diamonds and no trumps, a bid known as "oops."

For accuracy in bidding, it can't be beat, for it permits the bidder to rectify a mistake. That, of course, is the main weakness of other bidding systems. Once you have made a bid there is no way to weasel out of it.

LET US ASSUME, for example, that your partner has opened with one spade and you have raised to two diamonds. Partner then jumps to three spades, making it obvious that your two-diamond response was a mistake.

Therefore, when it comes your time to bid again you bid "three oops."

This gives partner the option of either standing firm on three spades, going on to four spades or dropping back to two spades.

If partner is smart, however, she will jump up from the table and exclaim "I think the roast is burning."

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

State action cleared the way for construction of a million dollars worth of school buildings in Marin County, including 32 new classrooms in three districts.

20 YEARS AGO

Supervisor William D. Fusselman accepted the county chairmanship of the War Finance Committee for a $3,500,000 Marin County bond drive.

Warden Clinton Duffy sent a check for $369.27 to the Marin County War Chest on behalf of San Quentin prisoners, saving from candy and cigarette allowances.

No Scholarships At Marin College

There are no scholarships for students at the College of Marin and only a "minute amount of money" is available for student loans.

These findings are contained in a report to be presented to the Marin Junior College District board at its meeting at 8 p.m. today at the college.

The report is by Fred F. Enemark, member of the college district's citizen advisory committee.

"Scholarships were found to be one of the most important needs of the college. The group was shocked at the minute amount of money available now," Enemark wrote.

The "minute amount" to which he referred is about $600. Five hundred dollars is in an emergency loan fund, and $102 was recently collected from the proceeds of a faculty and staff potluck dinner.

The only other money available for financial assistance to students is $8,200 in a national defense student loan fund. This money is given only to students who go on to complete a four-year college course. Preference is given students engaged in scientific studies.

These are all loan funds. "It was revealed that there are no scholarships available at this time for entering students," Enemark wrote.

He suggested that a non-profit corporation or foundation be set up to handle scholarships and grants. The same organization could build and support residence halls at the college, he suggested.

Enemark pointed out that about one-half of the students at the college work at some type of job during the school year.

Today is Thursday, Dec. 12, the 346th day of 1963 with 19 to follow.

The moon is approaching its last phase. The evening stars are Jupiter, Saturn and Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1910, Edward D. White of Louisiana became chief justice of the United States.

In 1947, John L. Lewis withdrew his United Mine Workers Union from the American Federation of Labor for the second time.

In 1953, Maj. Charles Yeager flew a research jet plane more than two and one half times the speed of sound.

In 1959, the Paraguayan government announced an invasion by 1,000 rebel exiles based in Argentina had been crushed.

A thought for the day — American theologian Jonathan Edwards said: "I assert that nothing ever comes to pass without a cause."

Cairo, with a population of more than three million, is Africa's largest city.

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Light-face type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

Opening lead — ♠ 10

East won the first trick with the ace of spades and returned the nine of diamonds.

This gave South his chance for a finesse, and he lost the ten of diamonds to the jack.

TRIED FINESSE

Back came a trump, and declarer took the ace and queen of hearts. Then he tried a finesse with the queen of diamonds.

This lost, and back came a diamond.

South won the diamond return and ruffed a spade in dummy to try the club finesse. West took the setting trick with the king of clubs, and South complained that he was the unluckiest bridge player in five counties.

MISSED CHANCE

It's true that South was unlucky. The odds are 7 to 1 against losing three finesses. Still, South missed a chance to make his contract.

It was correct to try the first diamond finesse when that was thrust on South by East's lead of the nine of diamonds. But South's next finesse should be in clubs.

Even though the queen of clubs loses to the king, South can get rid of a diamond on dummy's jack of clubs.

10 OF CLUBS

If the 10 of clubs happens to fall, South can get rid of a second diamond — and then will not need another diamond finesse.

If the 10 of clubs does not happen to fall, there is still time for South to fall back on his second diamond finesse.

It can cost nothing to try for the clubs first, and in this case the correct play would give declarer the contract.

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two clubs, intending to raise hearts at your next turn. The idea is to invite a game, without demanding it.

If you have a conservative partner, bid three hearts to make sure of getting to game.

Today is Thursday, Dec. 12, the 346th day of 1963 with 19 to follow.

The moon is approaching its last phase. The evening stars are Jupiter, Saturn and Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1910, Edward D. White of Louisiana became chief justice of the United States.

In 1947, John L. Lewis withdrew his United Mine Workers Union from the American Federation of Labor for the second time.

In 1953, Maj. Charles Yeager flew a research jet plane more than two and one half times the speed of sound.

In 1959, the Paraguayan government announced an invasion by 1,000 rebel exiles based in Argentina had been crushed.

A thought for the day — American theologian Jonathan Edwards said: "I assert that nothing ever comes to pass without a cause."

Cairo, with a population of more than three million, is Africa's largest city.

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Light-face type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

RESOLUTION NO. 2902

A RESOLUTION OF INTENTION TO SELL ELECTRIC AND GAS DISTRIBUTION AND TELEPHONE IMPROVEMENTS WITHIN MARIN BAY IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT NO. 2 IN THE CITY OF SAN RAFAEL AND PROVIDING FOR NOTICE AND HEARING THEREON

RESOLVED, by the City Council of the City of San Rafael, California, that

WHEREAS, on March 19, 1962, the City Council of said City adopted its Resolution No. 2576, A Resolution of Intention to Acquire and Construct Improvements by special assessment and assessment bond proceedings, Marin Bay Improvement District No. 2, which proceedings include the acquisition of a right of service in telephone and electrical and gas facilities together with all appurtenances thereto;

WHEREAS, said improvements are generally described in said Resolution of Intention, and are more particularly shown on the plans and specifications filed with the City Clerk pursuant to said special assessment proceedings;

WHEREAS, said telephone and electric and gas facilities lie within the respective service areas of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, existing private utilities;

WHEREAS, in order that said telephone and electric and gas facilities may become useful for the purposes for which they are constructed, it is necessary that they be connected to operating telephone and electric and gas distribution systems;

WHEREAS, said City does not now own or operate a public telephone and electric and gas system to which connection of said telephone and electric and gas facilities may be made, and the City cannot economically operate and maintain such telephone and electric and gas facilities; and

WHEREAS, said existing private utility companies operate, respectively, telephone and electric and gas systems within areas adjacent to Marin Bay Improvement District No. 2, to which certain segments of the telephone and electric and gas facilities may be connected, and each private utility is willing to purchase portions of the improvements which are susceptible of service by it, upon terms and conditions as agreed to by each of said public utilities and said City, and to furnish telephone and electric and gas service to the properties assessed for the cost of the telephone and electric and gas facilities through and by the said facilities upon terms and conditions and in accordance with applicable rules and regulations of each of said utilities as filed with the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California, subject to all changes, revisions and amendments as may be ordered or approved by said Commission.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY FOUND, DETERMINED and ORDERED, as follows:

1. That the telephone and electric and gas facilities will not be useful for the purposes for which they were or are to be constructed in that the improvements cannot be connected to any existing public telephone and electric and gas system, and that arrangements have been or will be made for connection to the existing private utility systems of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Pacific Gas and Electric Company; that the improvements cannot be economically and efficiently operated and maintained by the City of San Rafael because said City does not own any telephone and electric and gas system to which the telephone and electric and gas facilities to be installed could feasibly be connected; that said City has no facilities, personnel or ability for the operation and maintenance of said improvements for providing or supplying telephone or electric or gas service; that said Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and Pacific Gas and Electric Company are the only utilities or persons or corporations that have the facilities, personnel or ability for the operation and maintenance of said improvements and providing telephone and electric and gas service; and that calling or advertising for bids prior to the sale herein proposed would be futile and useless under the circumstances and would not result in competitive bidding and that the public interest will be furthered by the sale herein provided without first calling or advertising for bids.

2. That it is the intention of the City Council of the City of San Rafael to sell the telephone facilities to be constructed to said existing private utility, the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, and to sell the electric and gas facilities to be constructed to the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, each of which utilities service the area of the assessment district, for the reasons hereinabove stated without calling or advertising for bids.

That title to the proposed street lighting system, including standards, conduits and all necessary appurtenances shall continue to remain in the City, and said facilities are not included in the proposed sale to Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

3. That Monday, the 6th day of January, 1964, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P.M., in the regular meeting place of said Council, Council Chambers, City Hall, San Rafael, California, be, and the same are hereby, appointed and fixed as the time and place when and where persons objecting to the proposed sale may appear before said Council and show cause why the proposed sale shall not be made. At said time and place any owner of property assessed or being assessed to pay for the improvements proposed to be sold may appear before the Council and object to the sale.

At any time not later than the time set above for hearing objections, any owner of property assessed or being assessed to pay for the improvements proposed to be sold may make and deliver to the City Clerk of said City a written protest against the proposed sale. Failure to object in writing at said time will constitute a waiver of all objections to the proposed sale and a bar to any subsequent attack on the validity of such sale.

4. That the City Clerk of said City be, and he is hereby, directed to give notice of said hearing by causing this resolution to be published once a week for two successive weeks in the San Rafael Independent-Journal, a newspaper of general circulation in said City.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of a resolution duly passed and adopted by the City Council of the City of San Rafael, California, at a meeting thereof held on the 2nd day of December, 1963, by the following vote of the members thereof:

England Hospital Food Is Attacked

By JOSEPH GLADSTONE
Worldwide Press Service

LONDON—A shocking story of food and kitchen conditions in some of the 3,100 British hospitals run by the state's National Health Service has been unfolded by three scientists here.

Hospital food has long been as much of a national joke here in Britain as rainy vacations and govenrmental inability to cope with mounting traffic chaos. But few people, except those who have endured lengthy stays in hospitals, were aware that conditions are quite so bad as depicted in the 200-page report written by Benjamin Platt, Trewavas Eddy and Peter Pellett, all research specialists from the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine. They spent three years scrutinizing the feeding methods of 152 hospitals.

Their report tells of patients being wakened at 4:30 a.m. for tea; of patients being served breakfast bacon which had been cooked 24 hours before; of such food wastage that nearly one third of the meals sent to wards ended up as pig swill.

Selecting the hospitals at random, the three scientists swooped down on their kitchens with a minimum of warning. In one hospital the assistant cook was so upset by their visit that he put the cold chocolate mousse into a hot over. (It was later served as hot chocolate sauce.)

But what the investigators found was not so funny. They report such things as a coating of dust on a fruit trifle which had been stored next to a boiler room; a kitchen which was also used for washing diapers; a kitchen where everything was washed up and wiped with one cloth—which the cleaner usually carried under her armpit.

"Conditions and practices in some kitchens," the experts say, "might well lead to prosecution if they were found in commercial catering premises."

They reported that in one hospital a ward nurse said there was not much point in feeding patients well since they were admitted for so short a time and could recuperate with good feeding at home.

These are exceptional cases, to be sure, but they highlight three general complaints found by the investigators:

1. "Remarkable" contrasts between antiseptic wards and squalid kitchens where there was no reliable system for washing up or cleaning equipment.

2. Overcooked vegetables and delay in their service, causing nearly complete loss of vitamin C in potatoes and three-quarters of the value in green vegetables.

3. Tremendous food wastage because so much of the meals was left uneaten.

"The best food and the best service were given in the best small hospitals," the scientists note. "The larger the hospital the lower the efficiency of administration and the quality of the food as served. In many kitchens, buildings and equipment are so inadequate that the most conscientious catering officer would be unable to maintain desirable standards. He can only wait for rebuilding."

In some hospitals the staffs rely on food brought by visitors to help out with the diet. The tidbits in the cupboards besides the patients' beds often make a substantial contribution to their food needs. Patients who had no visitors were given food by other patients.

The way some hospitals treat potatoes is an "insult" to the vegetable, says the report. Potatoes peeled the previous day and left to soak overnight, a hospital routine that drains away half their vitamin C.

In one 720-bed hospital the team followed 12 steps in the cooking of cabbage—including chopping, washing, boiling, mincing, heating, reheating, pulping and reboiling—before it arrived on a patients plate nearly three hours later, virtually all nutrition wrung out of it.

In most of the hospital kitchens inspected, the team found cramped, dirty accomodations, frequently infested with flies.

The worst kitchens seemed to be in the wards of the aged. Of one, the report says: "The sampled ward in Hospital 29 (the investigators do not name the hospitals) was more like a barrack hut. The ward kitchen was very unsatisfactory . . . The floor was dirty, the trolley was dirty . . .

The kitchen of a hospital for the chronic sick was "very dirty, with everything piled on top of the ovens, meat all over the table, apples boiling over the pans and dirty, musty steam broilers."

Occasionally the team found hospitals they could praise.

Their final verdict: At their best, hospital kitchens were excellent; at their worst, they were "horrible."

The Government is now taking all possible measures to correct the situations highlighted by this very critical report.

The Ministry of Health says it is raising the level of catering in hospitals.

Redwood Classes Decorate Halls

The halls of Redwood High School will be decked with Christmas spirit next week as the four classes compete in the traditional decorating contest.

The senior hall is planned around a blue and silver theme of "Winter Wonderland." Christmas throughout the years will be presented by the sophomores through "Peanuts" cartoon characters. Freshmen are using an international theme of "peace on earth."

The junior class will decorate a hall to achieve an outdoor effect, the major feature being a Christmas tree. On the last day of school before vacation, the junior tree will be given to Marin General Hospital.

The decorations will be judged Tuesday, with a $5 prize awarded the winning class.

Gall Bladder Disease Continues But Death Rate Down 45 Per Cent

VAN DELLEN

Gall bladder disease continues to be a common ailment but there has been a 45 per cent reduction in the death rate since 1950, according to a life insurance company. The decline is attributed mainly to safer and earlier surgery; the operation is being done before dangerous complications arise. Credit is due also to advances in anesthesia and in the control of infections.

Fewer women are developing the disorder. In the past, we used the expression, "Fair, fat and 40," to describe the typical patient. This is not true, except for the age group, as the incidence increases with each dacade after 40.

GALL BLADDER disease is rare in infants, uncommon in children and adolescents, and is noted only occasionally in young male adults and unmarried women. It is most prevalent among women who have had children. We do not know whether pregnancy has anything to do with it; most women marry and rear a family and gall bladder involvement may be coincidental.

By the age 75, one in every three persons will have gall stones. The majority never are bothered except for an occasional attack of indigestion which often is blamed on something they ate. Gallstones and infection of the gall bladder go together like ham and eggs.

DOES THE LIVER suffer when this combination exists? Some authorities believe this organ is damaged, varying from mild derangement to complete liver failure. Ordinary liver tests seldom show evidence of serious damage, indicating the injury is too slight to be recognized this way.

This is important when the subject of surgery is considered. Those who postpone the operation run the risk of developing a liver complication, especially when the infected gall bladder is causing more than average discomfort.

(Dr. Van Dellen will send leaflet on gall bladder disease if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

COME AGAIN

Mrs. S. writes: I'm 62 years old and my doctor tells me I have started getting an old age cancer and that nothing can be done about it. Please give me some information on this condition.

REPLY

Return to your physician to verify this statement. Many people leave the doctor's office with a mistaken idea about the diagnosis. If you heard right, suggest a consultation.

STRESS AND HIVES

T. S. L. writes: Can hives be due to nerves or must it be from food?

REPLY

"Nerves" can cause hives but food is a more likely possibility. But when hives persist, and skin and other tests for allergens prove negative, stress and other emotional factors may be responsible.

"AUTOINTOXICATION"

H. M. writes: What causes intestinal toxemia?

REPLY

By definition, this term refers to toxins absorbed from the intestines. This is a debatable condition, and in the past, many symptoms, including headache and sluggishness, were blamed on "poisons" in the intestines.

CHECKUP NEEDED

J. V. writes: I had rheumatic fever as a child. Now I have dull pains in my legs that keep me awake at night and my pulse is 140. Do you think this means another attack?

REPLY

You need an examination with a pulse so rapid.

SPINAL TAP

E. J. K. writes: Why is a spinal puncture a prerequisite in a clinic before mental illness is diagnosed?

REPLY

Because of the possibility that a specific infection or brain lesion is responsible for the mental condition. This test is not always deemed necessary so that the term "prerequisite" is not apropos.

DIET FOR DIABETICS

A. L. writes: Can a diabetic safely take reducing pills?

REPLY

Yes, but the diabetic diet takes into account the ideal weight of the individual. If you are too stout at present you will reduce by sticking to the diet.

Wall Street Hase Case Of Soybean Indigestion

NEW YORK (AP) — Soybean oil and stock brokering, tossed in an unsavory salad, have given Wall Street one of its worst spells of indigestion in years.

Stocks are involved because some brokerage houses deal both in security trading and commodity futures. The New York Stock Exchange has authorized up to 12 million dollars to help the innocent bystanders, some of the 20,000 customers of IRA Haupt & Co., a member firm, wha saw their securities accounts suddenly frozen because of disasterous deals in the commodity markets in which they were in no way directly involved.

Many of the 17 million Americans who own stocks until now may have paid little mind to commodity markets.

Here, in simplified terms, is what commodity futures trading normally is. The Haupt affair started this way but went into a maze of dealings far beyond the scope of ordinary commodity future trading.

Commodity futures are contracts for delivery of a specified amount of a given grain, fiber, metal, or other goods, at a fixed price at some future date. Say, 60,000 pounds of soybean oil, for X-dollars next January. Actually, most contracts are settled without delivering or receiving the physical commodity. The contracts, in short, are bought and sold like stock certificates. The difference between the price specified in the contract and the market price at the time the contract expires constitutes the profit or loss.

Those who first offer the contracts usually are the growers, dealers or producers of basic raw materials, who have the commodity on hand but want to hedge against the risk of sharp and unpredictable price movements. A sudden Soviet offer to buy wheat, for example, can overnight affect the going price for the grain—and so can the weather conditions.

The hedge works like this: To protect his holdings in soybeans, say, the dealer or processor may go short by having his broker sell January contract at the prevailing present price. If the price does fall, he can fulfill his contract and use this profit to offset the lower value of the same beans he holds. If the price rises between now and January, he is ahead on the commodity he holds and thus offsets any loss in settling his futures contract.

Contracts are mostly bought by speculators willing to take on the price change risks the hedgers seeks to sidestep. Speculators buy a contract specifying a certain price at a definite future date because they are betting the present price will hit that figure.

Margins in commodity future trading are very small by stock trading standards—5 to 10 per cent in cash for commodities compared to the present 70 per cent cash requirment in stocks. Thus the leverage and chances of making a big profit are much larger in trading on margin in commodities than in stocks—and the risks are correspondingly greater, too, if you guess wrong.

RESOLUTION NO. 2902

A RESOLUTION OF INTENTION TO SELL ELECTRIC AND GAS DISTRIBUTION AND TELEPHONE IMPROVEMENTS WITHIN MARIN BAY IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT NO. 2 IN THE CITY OF SAN RAFAEL AND PROVIDING FOR NOTICE AND HEARING THEREON

RESOLVED, by the City Council of the City of San Rafael, California, that

WHEREAS, on March 19, 1962, the City Council of said City adopted its Resolution No. 2376, A Resolution of Intention to Acquire and Construct Improvements by special assessment and assessment bond proceedings, Marin Bay Improvement District No. 2, which proceedings include the acquisition of a right of service in telephone and electrical and gas facilities together with all appurtenances thereto;

WHEREAS, said improvements are generally described in said Resolution of Intention, and are more particularly shown on the plans and specifications filed with the City Clerk pursuant to said special assessment proceedings;

WHEREAS, said telephone and electric and gas facilities lie within the respective service areas of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, existing private utilities;

WHEREAS, in order that said telephone and electric and gas facilities may become useful for the purposes for which they are constructed, it is necessary that they be connected to operating telephone and electric and gas distribution systems;

WHEREAS, said City does not now own or operate a public telephone and electric and gas system to which connection of said telephone and electric and gas facilities may be made, and the City cannot economically operate and maintain such telephone and electric and gas facilities; and

WHEREAS, said existing private utility companies operate, respectively, telephone and electric and gas systems within areas adjacent to Marin Bay Improvement District No. 2, to which certain segments of the telephone and electric and gas facilities may be connected, and each private utility is willing to purchase portions of the improvements which are susceptible of service by it, upon terms and conditions as agreed to by each of said public utilities and said City, and to furnish telephone and electric and gas service to the properties assessed for the cost of the telephone and electric and gas facilities through and by the said facilities upon terms and conditions and in accordance with applicable rules and regulations of each of said utilities as filed with the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California, subject to all changes, revisions and amendments as may be ordered or approved by said Commission.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY FOUND, DETERMINED and ORDERED, as follows:

1. That the telephone and electric and gas facilities will not be useful for the purposes for which they were or are to be constructed in that the improvements cannot be connected to any existing public telephone and electric and gas system, and that arrangements have been or will be made for connection to the existing private utility systems of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, existing private utilities; that the improvements cannot be economically and efficiently operated and maintained by the City of San Rafael because said City does not own any telephone and electric and gas system to which the telephone and electric and gas facilities to be installed could feasibly be connected; that said City has no facilities, personnel or ability for the operation and maintenance of said improvements for providing or supplying telephone or electric or gas service; that said Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and Pacific Gas and Electric Company are the only utilities or persons or corporations that have the facilities, personnel or ability for the operation and maintenance of said improvements and providing telephone and electric and gas service; and that calling or advertising for bids prior to the sale herein proposed would be futile and useless under the circumstances and would not result in competitive bidding and that the public interest will be furthered by the sale herein provided without first calling or advertising for bids.

2. That it is the intention of the City Council of the City of San Rafael to sell the telephone facilities to be constructed to said existing private utility, the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, and to sell the electric and gas facilities to be constructed to the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, each of which utilities service the area of the assessment district, for the reasons hereinabove stated without calling or advertising for bids.

That title to the proposed street lighting system, including standards, conduits and all necessary appurtenances shall continue to remain in the City, and said facilities are not included in the proposed sale to Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

3. That Monday, the 6th day of January, 1964, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P.M., in the regular meeting place of said Council, Council Chambers, City Hall, San Rafael, California, be, and the same are hereby, appointed and fixed as the time and place when and where persons objecting to the proposed sale may appear before said Council and show cause why the proposed sale shall not be made. At said time and place any owner of property assessed or being assessed to pay for the improvements proposed to be sold may appear before the Council and object to the sale.

At any time not later than the time set above for hearing objections, any owner of property assessed or being assessed to pay for the improvements proposed to be sold may make and deliver to the City Clerk of said City a written protest against the proposed sale. Failure to object in writing at said time will constitute a waiver of all objections to the proposed sale and a bar to any subsequent attack on the validity of such sale.

4. That the City Clerk of said City be, and he is hereby, directed to give notice of said hearing by causing this resolution to be published once a week for two successive weeks in the San Rafael Independent-Journal, a newspaper of general circulation in said City.

* * * * * * *

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of a resolution duly passed and adopted by the City Council of the City of San Rafael, California, at a meeting thereof held on the 2nd day of December, 1963, by the following vote of the members thereof:

VATICAN CITY (AP) — At a Vatican audience for pilgrims from many lands, Pope Paul VI has urged Catholics to prepare for Christmas with prayer.

"Pray," the Pope said yesterday, "pray well . . . this advice, which is always valid, is even more appropriate now when we are preparing for Christmas..."

England Hospital Food Is Attacked

By JOSEPH GLADSTONE
Worldwide Press Service

LONDON—A shocking story of food and kitchen conditions in some of the 3,100 British hospitals run by the state's National Health Service has been unfolded by three scientists here.

Hospital food has long been as much of a national joke here in Britain as rainy vacations and govenrmental inability to cope with mounting traffic chaos. But few people, except those who have endured lengthy stays in hospitals, were aware that conditions are quite so bad as depicted in the 200-page report written by Benjamin Platt, Trewavas Eddy and Peter Pellett, all research specialists from the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine. They spent three years scrutinizing the feeding methods of 152 hospitals.

Their report tells of patients being wakened at 4:30 a.m. for tea; of patients being served breakfast bacon which had been cooked 24 hours before; of such food wastage that nearly one third of the meals sent to wards ended up as pig swill.

Selecting the hospitals at random, the three scientists swooped down on their kitchens with a minimum of warning. In one hospital the assistant cook was so upset by their visit that he put the cold chocolate mousse into a hot over. (It was later served as hot chocolate sauce.)

But what the investigators found was not so funny. They report such things as a coating of dust on a fruit trifle which had been stored next to a boiler room; a kitchen which was also used for washing diapers; a kitchen where everything was washed up and wiped with one cloth—which the cleaner usually carried under her armpit.

"Conditions and practices in some kitchens," the experts say, "might well lead to prosecution if they were found in commercial catering premises."

They reported that in one hospital a ward nurse said there was not much point in feeding patients well since they were admitted for so short a time and could recuperate with good feeding at home.

These are exceptional cases, to be sure, but they highlight three general complaints found by the investigators:

1. "Remarkable" contrasts between antiseptic wards and squalid kitchens where there was no reliable system for washing up or cleaning equipment.

2. Overcooked vegetables and delay in their service, causing nearly complete loss of vitamin C in potatoes and three-quarters of the value in green vegetables.

3. Tremendous food wastage because so much of the meals was left uneaten.

"The best food and the best service were given in the best small hospitals," the scientists note. "The larger the hospital the lower the efficiency of administration and the quality of the food as served. In many kitchens, buildings and equipment are so inadequate that the most conscientious catering officer would be unable to maintain desirable standards. He can only wait for rebuilding."

In some hospitals the staffs rely on food brought by visitors to help out with the diet. The tidbits in the cupboards besides the patients' beds often make a substantial contribution to their food needs. Patients who had no visitors were given food by other patients.

The way some hospitals treat potatoes is an "insult" to the vegetable, says the report. Potatoes peeled the previous day and left to soak overnight, a hospital routine that drains away half their vitamin C.

In one 720-bed hospital the team followed 12 steps in the cooking of cabbage—including chopping, washing, boiling, mincing, heating, reheating, pulping and reboiling—before it arrived on a patients plate nearly three hours later, virtually all nutrition wrung out of it.

In most of the hospital kitchens inspected, the team found cramped, dirty accomodations, frequently infested with flies.

The worst kitchens seemed to be in the wards of the aged. Of one, the report says: "The sampled ward in Hospital 29 (the investigators do not name the hospitals) was more like a barrack hut. The ward kitchen was very unsatisfactory . . . The floor was dirty, the trolley was dirty . . .

The kitchen of a hospital for the chronic sick was "very dirty, with everything piled on top of the ovens, meat all over the table, apples boiling over the pans and dirty, musty steam broilers."

Occasionally the team found hospitals they could praise.

Their final verdict: At their best, hospital kitchens were excellent; at their worst, they were "horrible."

The Government is now taking all possible measures to correct the situations highlighted by this very critical report.

The Ministry of Health says it is raising the level of catering in hospitals.

Redwood Classes Decorate Halls

The halls of Redwood High School will be decked with Christmas spirit next week as the four classes compete in the traditional decorating contest.

The senior hall is planned around a blue and silver theme of "Winter Wonderland." Christmas throughout the years will be presented by the sophomores through "Peanuts" cartoon characters. Freshmen are using an international theme of "peace on earth."

The junior class will decorate a hall to achieve an outdoor effect, the major feature being a Christmas tree. On the last day of school before vacation, the junior tree will be given to Marin General Hospital.

The decorations will be judged Tuesday, with a $5 prize awarded the winning class.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Gall Bladder Disease Continues But Death Rate Down 45 Per Cent

VAN DELLEN

Gall bladder disease continues to be a common ailment but there has been a 45 per cent reduction in the death rate since 1950, according to a life insurance company. The decline is attributed mainly to safer and earlier surgery; the operation is being done before dangerous complications arise. Credit is due also to advances in anesthesia and in the control of infections.

Fewer women are developing the disorder. In the past, we used the expression, "Fair, fat and 40," to describe the typical patient. This is not true, except for the age group, as the incidence increases with each dacade after 40.

GALL BLADDER disease is rare in infants, uncommon in children and adolescents, and is noted only occasionally in young male adults and unmarried women. It is most prevalent among women who have had children. We do not know whether pregnancy has anything to do with it; most women marry and rear a family and gall bladder involvement may be coincidental.

By the age 75, one in every three persons will have gall stones. The majority never are bothered except for an occasional attack of indigestion which often is blamed on something they ate. Gallstones and infection of the gall bladder go together like ham and eggs.

DOES THE LIVER suffer when this combination exists? Some authorities believe this organ is damaged, varying from mild derangement to complete liver failure. Ordinary liver tests seldom show evidence of serious damage, indicating the injury is too slight to be recognized this way.

This is important when the subject of surgery is considered. Those who postpone the operation run the risk of developing a liver complication, especially when the infected gall bladder is causing more than average discomfort.

(Dr. Van Dellen will send leaflet on gall bladder disease if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

COME AGAIN

Mrs. S. writes: I'm 62 years old and my doctor tells me I have started getting an old age cancer and that nothing can be done about it. Please give me some information on this condition.

REPLY

Return to your physician to verify this statement. Many people leave the doctor's office with a mistaken idea about the diagnosis. If you heard right, suggest a consultation.

STRESS AND HIVES

T. S. L. writes: Can hives be due to nerves or must it be from food?

REPLY

"Nerves" can cause hives but food is a more likely possibility. But when hives persist, and skin and other tests for allergens prove negative, stress and other emotional factors may be responsible.

"AUTOINTOXICATION"

H. M. writes: What causes intestinal toxemia?

REPLY

By definition, this term refers to toxins absorbed from the intestines. This is a debatable condition, and in the past, many symptoms, including headache and sluggishness, were blamed on "poisons" in the intestines.

CHECKUP NEEDED

J. V. writes: I had rheumatic fever as a child. Now I have dull pains in my legs that keep me awake at night and my pulse is 140. Do you think this means another attack?

REPLY

You need an examination with a pulse so rapid.

SPINAL TAP

E. J. K. writes: Why is a spinal puncture a prerequisite in a clinic before mental illness is diagnosed?

REPLY

Because of the possibility that a specific infection or brain lesion is responsible for the mental condition. This test is not always deemed necessary so that the term "prerequisite" is not apropos.

DIET FOR DIABETICS

A. L. writes: Can a diabetic safely take reducing pills?

REPLY

Yes, but the diabetic diet takes into account the ideal weight of the individual. If you are too stout at present you will reduce by sticking to the diet.

Wall Street Hase Case Of Soybean Indigestion

NEW YORK (AP) — Soybean oil and stock brokering, tossed in an unsavory salad, have given Wall Street one of its worst spells of indigestion in years.

Stocks are involved because some brokerage houses deal both in security trading and commodity futures. The New York Stock Exchange has authorized up to 12 million dollars to help the innocent bystanders, some of the 20,000 customers of IRA Haupt & Co., a member firm, wha saw their securities accounts suddenly frozen because of disasterous deals in the commodity markets in which they were in no way directly involved.

Many of the 17 million Americans who own stocks until now may have paid little mind to commodity markets.

Here, in simplified terms, is what commodity futures trading normally is. The Haupt affair started this way but went into a maze of dealings far beyond the scope of ordinary commodity future trading.

Commodity futures are contracts for delivery of a specified amount of a given grain, fiber, metal, or other goods, at a fixed price at some future date. Say, 60,000 pounds of soybean oil, for X-dollars next January. Actually, most contracts are settled without delivering or receiving the physical commodity. The contracts, in short, are bought and sold like stock certificates. The difference between the price specified in the contract and the market price at the time the contract expires constitutes the profit or loss.

Those who first offer the contracts usually are the growers, dealers or producers of basic raw materials, who have the commodity on hand but want to hedge against the risk of sharp and unpredictable price movements. A sudden Soviet offer to buy wheat, for example, can overnight affect the going price for the grain—and so can the weather conditions.

The hedge works like this: To protect his holdings in soybeans, say, the dealer or processor may go short by having his broker sell January contract at the prevailing present price. If the price does fall, he can fulfill his contract and use this profit to offset the lower value of the same beans he holds. If the price rises between now and January, he is ahead on the commodity he holds and thus offsets any loss in settling his futures contract.

Contracts are mostly bought by speculators willing to take on the price change risks the hedgers seeks to sidestep. Speculators buy a contract specifying a certain price at a definite future date because they are betting the present price will hit that figure.

Margins in commodity future trading are very small by stock trading standards—5 to 10 per cent in cash for commodities compared to the present 70 per cent cash requirment in stocks. Thus the leverage and chances of making a big profit are much larger in trading on margin in commodities than in stocks—and the risks are correspondingly greater, too, if you guess wrong.

HER BEST FRIENDS

Diamonds, even if for only a moment, are a girl's best friend. Marian Belstra, an employee of Hotel Continental in Chicago, had the opportunity to wear one million dollars worth of jewels during a press luncheon to kick off a Ford Motor Co. Autolite sales program. The diamonds are part of Harry Winston, Inc.'s collection. Miss Belstra was allowed to wear the gems only a short time before they were returned to their cases and a vault. Nuts, Says Steinbeck, Crosses Berlin Line

BERLIN (AP)—"Oh, nuts! If they want to shoot at me, they can," said John Steinbeck, ignoring his wife's warning yesterday and stepping across the white line marking the border with East Berlin. Red guards stood nearby.

"I've been shot at before," the Nobel Prize-winning American novelist said, and as if in defiance turned his bearded face toward the guards who cradled submachine guns in their arms.

Steinbeck stood at the U. S. Army's Checkpoint Charlie, a crossing point through the Communist wall to East Berlin.

Two years ago U. S. and Soviet tanks faced each other at that spot for 16 hours during a dispute over allied access to the Communist sector.

Steinbeck, 61, who also won a Pulitzer Prize, arrived in West Berlin on Tuesday night, the last stop in a two-month European tour.

He listened intently to the explanations of a guide at the wall.

Then he borrowed a pair of binoculars from an American military policeman to gaze into East Berlin, watching especially the border guards who had their field glasses trained on Steinbeck.

"Incredible," he muttered. "This is unusual."

Steinbeck walked away, then turned back to point his gnarled cane at the wall.

"I'm amazed that anybody would confess so completely that he failed. That's what this amounts to. A failure in competition, a failure in everything. It is like a little kid who takes his football home when he can't play very well," Steinbeck said.

'Pray.. For Christmas,' Pontiff Tells Pilgrims

VATICAN CITY (AP) — At a Vatican audience for pilgrims from many lands, Pope Paul VI has urged Catholics to prepare for Christmas with prayer.

"Pray," the Pope said yesterday, "pray well . . . this advice, which is always valid, is even more appropriate now when we are preparing for Christmas..."

CORTE MADERA

A Cappella Choir, Madrigal Group Concert Tomorrow

The College of Marin a cappella choir and madrigal group, under the direction of Dr. S. Drummond Wolff, will sing choral works appropriate to the Christmas season at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow in Olney Hall. The concert is open free to the ublic.

Students Gloria Tiddings, Mary Carroll, Craig Bond, Kathryn Greiner and David Kufner will be featured as soloists in several numbers.

The 75-voice a cappella choir will sing works by Bach, Berlioz Peter Warlock, Gustav Holst, Tchaikowsky and others. The madrigal group will sing "Fanfare for Christmas Day" by Martin Shaw, two arrangements by Wolff and work by Hassler and Nanini.

After the concert coffee will be served and the audience is invited to remain and visit with the performers, it was announced.

Paintings On Display

Proceeds from the sale of paintings by L. Richard Schinazi of 121 Bretano Way, Greenbrae, at the YWCA of Portsmouth, N. H., are being turned over to the YWCA, manager Jean Elkins reported today.

A two-week one-man show by Schinazi, whose training included three years study at College of Marin, will close Saturday. The paintings, described as primitives, range from Maine sea-scapes to views of the West Coast and Mexico. Schinazi took up painting after many years in the Army, from which he retired with the rank of colonel.

HER BEST FRIENDS

Diamonds, even if for only a moment, are a girl's best friend. Marian Belstra, an employee of Hotel Continental in Chicago, had the opportunity to wear one million dollars worth of jewels during a press luncheon to kick off a Ford Motor Co. Autolite sales program. The diamonds are part of Harry Winston, Inc.'s collection. Miss Belstra was allowed to wear the gems only a short time before they were returned to their cases and a vault. 18 AND HALF FEET OF GIFTS FOR SCHOOL

The way this gift stacks up, it is 18 and one-half feet tall.

From 1924 to 1961, the National Geographic Society published 444 issues of its magazine. Mr. and Mrs. Byron White, now of 24 Staghorn Passage, Corte Madera, saved all their issues.

Recently the Whites donated their collection to the Davidson Junior High School Library in San Rafael. The volumes will be bound and placed on the library shelves.

Nuts, Says Steinbeck, Crosses Berlin Line

BERLIN (AP)—"Oh, nuts! If they want to shoot at me, they can," said John Steinbeck, ignoring his wife's warning yesterday and stepping across the white line marking the border with East Berlin. Red guards stood nearby.

"I've been shot at before," the Nobel Prize-winning American novelist said, and as if in defiance turned his bearded face toward the guards who cradled submachine guns in their arms.

Steinbeck stood at the U. S. Army's Checkpoint Charlie, a crossing point through the Communist wall to East Berlin.

Two years ago U. S. and Soviet tanks faced each other at that spot for 16 hours during a dispute over allied access to the Communist sector.

Steinbeck, 61, who also won a Pulitzer Prize, arrived in West Berlin on Tuesday night, the last stop in a two-month European tour.

He listened intently to the explanations of a guide at the wall.

Then he borrowed a pair of binoculars from an American military policeman to gaze into East Berlin, watching especially the border guards who had their field glasses trained on Steinbeck.

"Incredible," he muttered. "This is unusual."

Steinbeck walked away, then turned back to point his gnarled cane at the wall.

"I'm amazed that anybody would confess so completely that he failed. That's what this amounts to. A failure in competition, a failure in everything. It is like a little kid who takes his football home when he can't play very well," Steinbeck said.
